ANNUAL CHRISTMAS TREE ON THURSDAY

W. Y. C. A. Will Sponsor Annual Hunters of University Hospital Tomorrow Afternoon

Santa Claus will visit the children and announce of the university hospital on Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m. when the W. Y. C. A. will stage their annual Christmas tree in the main lobby.

The social service committee, of which Miss Kline Kinn is chairman, is in charge of the program, which will include a number of musical selections and readings. W. K. Hayes head of the university school of music, will sing.

All children in the hospital as well as on the other wards are given gifts, and all children between the ages of two and twelve will receive a present. Following Christmas, some of these babies on the second week in January and some on Tuesday.

It has often been said that the gospel team are one of the best advertisements for the university that could possibly be devised. They are.

OPEN HOUSE MIXER AT UNION TONIGHT

IOWA UNION TO EXTEND HOSPITALITY TO STUDENTS AND PROFESSIONALS

Tonight to be a Girl's Night at Union Building-For Students to Be Made Welcome at Big Mixer

Professors and students of every college and department will be the guest of the Iowa Union. The "Open House Night" event goes from 7 to 9 in the Union balcony. In charge of Dr. Beckstrom, professors and students will debate in an order arranged for a mixer. The program will open with a song by the "longest running " group, in its proportions to the number of professors and students present. The program will include a number of musical selections, some of which will deal with the devoted partner. On the Union balcony there will be some of the musical and literary clubs in the university. The students will be received on the Balloon at 7:30. Professors and students will be received on the Union balcony.

NEW PLAN THIS YEAR IN SOCIETY DEBATES

Opportunity Will Be Provided by Law Instead of by the Old System

A new plan will be inaugurated this year in the society debates. Formerly the year before the society had chosen the subject of the debate for the next year. This year the societies will debate in an order appointed by the president of the student body. The program will be arranged by the society of which the student is a member.

The society plans to divide the floor into two sections, one for the affirmative and one for the negative. The affirmative side will have the floor from the start of the debate until the end of the argument. The negative side will have the floor from the start of the argument until the end of the affirmative side's argument.

Two Hundred Juniors Lost Is Statement

STREET ANNOUNCEMENT MADE BY HAWKEYE MANAGERS YESTERDAY

Every effort being made to get the Juniors pictures but the "Hawkeye" pictures have been given off to the Minneapolis office. Only about half of the class have been seen by the photographer, and it is to have their pictures taken by the "Hawkeye," which is a superior service. It would be advisable for every man or woman who claims to be a junior to have their pictures taken before they go home on the Christmas vacation. Last year your approximately eight per cent of the Juniors had their pictures in the Horizons. This was due to the carelessness of the editors, but in the conference of the Juniors, themselves.

Mr. Turner, this year's Horizons editor, said yesterday in an interview as an Iowa reporter: "I am putting more work on the Junior department than we have ever been able to up to this year. The pictures are to be arranged in panels with the name and record so placed that their will be no mix-up in the names. In the past there has been some confounded names with pictures. This year we wish to do all the Junior department should be in a hurry."
