GEOPELF TEAM GOOD SCHOOL ADVERTISERS.

Twenty-one Men Go Into Four Commissions During Holidays—See 7,000.

The gospel teams, some of the best advertisers that the university has, went into four commissions during the holidays, the Christmas holidays to conduct religious services.

Rev. Prof. Lowden, the head of the Department of Religion, was in charge of the group that went to Churston. A total of twenty-two were working there during the Christmas season.

The men addressed a total of some of the important religious and theological questions that are now before the church, and are the best advertising for the university that reaches the young people of the state.

This year's work is considered a great success, and Secretary Aldrich head of the M. Y. C. A. is exulting over the results coming from the commissions.

Through the Line and Gone

Peconut Crisp
"The Real Food Candy"

Peconut was rooted in 1931 in Richmond, Old Virginia, then the good word was passed along to people who had never heard of Richmond until introduced to Peconut. The real thing is a big job to fill your pockets with Peconut before going to the game. If you have a rooter you can root after intervals of close communication with Peconut. Peconut is made of finest peanuts infused with mill-white coconut and cooked into creamy, shining pure cane sugar. Two large, often, salty lips wagged in wax paper and sealed in dust and garm proof box—all for 5c.
