HAWKEYE QUINTET INVADES THE NORTH

IOWA BASKETBALL TEAM LEFT
LAST EVENING FOR GAMES IN THE NORTH

Two Hard Contests in Store for
Kent's Men—Will Seek to Avenge
Three Defeats Suffered at Hands of Carleton—Eight Men in Party.

Eight members of the Iowa basketball team, accompanied by Coach Kent and Trainer Watson, left last evening on a two-day invasion of the north. Tonight they will meet the strong Minnesota five at Minneapolis and on Saturday evening they will play the Carleton college team at Northwood, Minn. The Hawkeyes will return to Iowa City Sunday morning.

The men who made the trip were: Capt. Jacobsen, Parsons, Kerwick, Bannick, Von Lackum, Feisler, Nevin and Dutton. The team is in good condition and are confident of returning with two scalps hanging from their belt. The men emerged from the hard contest with Indiana Tuesday evening in excellent shape and the showing made against the Hoosiers has served to instill confidence in every man.

Both of the games to be played on the northern trip will be hard ones. Minnesota has an excellent team this year. Wisconsin, who is at the present time admitted to be the strongest in the conference, barely defeated the Gophers, while they overwhelmed Indiana, whom Iowa had such a struggle to down last Tuesday.

Carleton will also give Kent's men a scrap. For the past three years Iowa has gone down to defeat before the Northwood school and the northerners are expecting to repeat this year. The Hawkeyes are determined to reverse matters, however, and will put up a strong battle for the honors. Carleton is the school that Kent coached for four years before coming to Iowa. Three of the men on this year's five were coached by the Iowa mentor when he was at Carleton. The latter has a heavy, experienced quintet and will force the Hawkeyes to the limit.

Iowa students will not have a chance to see their team in action again until January 30, when the Hawkeyes play Grinnell on the home floor.

PHILO DANCE

The Philomatheans will entertain the members of the Octave Thanet society at a dance in Sueppel's hall on Saturday evening. Excellent music and a good dance program has been arranged.

CORNELLIANS TO DINE AT JEFFERSON

About Fifty Former Cornell Students
Will Make Merry Saturday
Evening, January 23

Plans for the big dinner, which former Cornell students now at Iowa are planning for Saturday, Jan. 23, are fast materializing. About fifty will gather around the banquet boards at the Jefferson on Saturday evening to make merry and drink toasts to their former college days. Among those who will be present are Dr. Knight of the department of chemistry at Cornell and Miss Riley, of the department of Latin. Dean Freer and Dr. Betts of the department of psychology are expected to be present together with a number of out-of-town guests.

Dean Raymond of the Iowa school of applied science will represent the university.

WOODROW WILSON MAY SPEAK HERE

Dr. Shambaugh is Making Effort to Have Chief Executive Address
Historical Society

If the efforts of Dr. Benjamin F. Shambaugh, who is acting in the interests of the Iowa Historical society, are successful, Woodrow Wilson, chief executive of the United States, will stop off in Iowa City and deliver an address on his return to Washington from the San Francisco exposition late in March. Dr. Shambaugh, who is curator of the Historical society, has sent an urgent invitation to the president to visit this city on his trip and the latter has promised to consider it.

The invitation sent to Mr. Wilson assures him that if he will speak as the guest of the Iowa Historical society he will have an audience in which every county of the state will be represented. Congressman Connolly is in sympathy with the request of the society and is making every effort to have President Wilson stop here. He is confident that he will be able to prevail on Mr. Wilson to stop off.

Several other Iowa cities have requested the president to visit them and he will consider their invitations along with that of Dr. Shambaugh's.

TRUMAN TO GIVE TALK

Prof. O. H. Truman, who is connected with the mathematics department of the university, will speak tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock before the Mathematics club on the subject, "Astronomy." The club will meet in room 224 of the physics building.

"FROSH" PARTY TONIGHT.

FRESHMAN PARTY TO BE PLEASING AFFAIR

EVERYTHING IN READINESS FOR AFFAIR THIS EVENING AT ARMORY

Arrangements Have Been Made to Open Gallery to Those Who Wish
To See Party—Program is Exceptionally Pleasing.

Plans which will make this year's Freshman party bigger and better than anything ever before attempted by the "Frosh" have been completed and everything is in readiness for the affair tonight. For the first time, the armory will be decorated for this affair.

The programs which are of an exceptionally clever design, with a dull green colored leather case, and leather cords attached, can be obtained at Whetstone's or Purcell's by those holding tickets.

Arrangements have been made for those wishing to view the party from the gallery and a small fee will be charged. Dancing will start promptly at 8:30 and continue until one o'clock.

Punch Dunkel's orchestra will furnish the following pleasing program.

FIX DATES FOR IOWA NEBRASKA CONTESTS

HAWKEYES TO MEET THE CORN-HUSKERS AT LINCOLN ON NOVEMBER 20

Signed Contracts Received by Kellogg
Completes Negotiations—
Both Dates Will Mark Homecoming Celebrations.

Iowa's football team will meet Nebraska at Lincoln on November 20 this year, while the Cornhuskers will journey to Iowa City to play the Hawkeyes on November 25 in 1916. These were the dates definitely fixed in the signed contract returned to Manager Kellogg today by the Nebraska authorities. With the signed agreement safely in the keeping of the athletic managers of both schools final details of the Iowa-Nebraska contests were consummated and the meeting of the two universities on the gridiron was assured for the next two years.

Both of the dates agreed upon in the contract will mark Homecoming celebrations. The Iowa-Nebraska game the coming fall will be the occasion of the Cornhuskers' annual gathering, while November 25, 1916, is the date of the Iowa reunion for

SELECT BOARD MAN IN BIG ELECTION

Names of Ten Candidates for Position on Athletic Board to be Voted On at Primary

An all day primary on next Tuesday and a final election on Wednesday will be the means taken to choose a member from the student body to the athletic board of the university. A man was to have been chosen for that position last evening at a meeting of the members of the Iowa Union, but because many of the members were not present it was deemed advisable to hold an election so that as large a percentage of students as possible might make known their choice.

The ten men reported by the nominating committee of the Union, whose names will be voted on Tuesday, are: Wayne Foster, J. C. Fer-

RECITAL OF LAST EVENING A SUCCESS

Concert Given by Esther McDowell
Swisher and W. E. Hayes is Received Enthusiastically

A success from every standpoint was the recital given last evening in the auditorium of the school of music of the university by Esther McDowell Swisher and W. E. Hayes. A large audience was present at the concert and their appreciation of the various numbers was freely manifested.

The program, which was staged under the auspices of the music association of the university, was unique in nature and wide in its range. The various members were presented with the skill that only finished artists display. Esther Swisher carried her auditors into the realms of song land by masterful recitations, while Mr. Hayes entranced his audience by his remarkable work at the pianoforte.

The concert last evening was the first of a series of three concerts to be given under the auspices of the music association. The program presented last evening follows:

- Sonata Eroica, inspired by Tennyson's "Idyls of the King."
 - The coming of Arthur.
 - Dance of the Elves, as described by the little Novice.
 - Gunivere.
 - The passing of Arthur.
 - Miss Swisher
 - The Robin Sings in the Apple Tree.
 - Thy Beaming Eyes.
 - Mr. Hayes
 - Scotch Poem from "Six Poems from Helene."
 - Of Br'er Rabbit, from "Fireside Tales."

DRAMATIC CLUB IS REORGANIZED

VERNE FOLEY ELECTED MANA-GER AND CLUB IS PLACED ON NEW BASIS

Plan to Put on "The House Next Door" as Dramatic Production,
Either in March or April—Eslick
Will Take Leading Part.

At a reorganization meeting of the University Dramatic club last evening, Verne Foley was elected manager to succeed Leonard West. The meeting was an important one and marked a new era in the vacillating career of the association. The Dramatic club was revived, regenerated and placed on an entirely new basis by the members. It was decided that in the future only plays of the highest class should be put on by the club.

One of the important changes made last evening in the organization of the club was in the duties of the manager. Heretofore the manager of the Dramatic club has run the plays presented and been forced to stand full responsibility for their success or failure. In the future the manager will have the entire club behind him in his efforts.

The club decided to put on "The House Next Door" as their first play of the season. The choice of the play is in keeping with the standard raised at last evening's meeting and has been a success wherever presented. "The House Next Door" will be put on some time during the latter part of March or the forepart of April and Mr. Eslick will take the leading role.

Mr. Eslick is a graduate of Grinnell and is now in the law school at Iowa. He has had four years' experience in dramatics and took the leading role in the same play at Grinnell recently. He will take charge of the play for the first three weeks and will work out the characters. It is planned to secure a dramatist from Chicago who coached the play at Grinnell, for the last two weeks before the production is staged.

The Dramatic club will meet Wednesday evening in Close hall at eight o'clock in the Tower room to read over the play and decide upon the cast, which will be picked by the members.

At the meeting last evening the following new members were taken into the club: Cornelia Prentiss, Ruth Farquhar, Irvin Sams, Mr. Eslick and Archibald MacVicar.

DENIO SPEAKS

One of the features of the Cornell banquet which will be held here this week will be a speech by Denio on "Cornell, the Dear Old School."

Friday Morning, Jan. 22, 1915

ONE WEEK FROM MONDAY

Semester examinations are rapidly approaching. Week after next every student in the university will be wrestling with the mid-year tests. To many students these examinations are merely incidents of the day, while to others they are the darkest period of the year's work. Examinations are being discussed on every side, which is altogether natural. Following the examinations there invariably is a period of depression for some and for others the examinations finished means the end of a day's work.

Then for others, a few we fear, there is a time after examination when consciences are not clear. These latter are the ones who have "cribbed." This subject is one that occasionally brings untold grief to students and adverse publicity to the university. That cheating in examinations exists there is no doubt, but we believe that here there is less of the evil than in some other institutions.

The Daily Illini has a most interesting article concerning this subject and we believe that they have hit the nail on the head.

"When outside papers publish a story concerning 'cribbing' at the university," says the Illini, "immediately a number of people about the campus, faculty and otherwise, raise a noisome clamor that we must not talk about 'cribbing.' The good name of the university will be besmirched, and only injury will come to the institution. They say, 'let us hug cribbing and other evils to our bosoms and though conscious of the existence, let us keep them covered up.'

"But is not this a short-sighted and weak way of looking at things?"

Notices intended for this column must be signed by a responsible person and placed in the office of the University Editor, L. A. Building, Room 11, by 4:00 p. m. of the day preceding the day for publication.

BACONIAN CLUB

The regular meeting of the Baconian club will be held in the physics lecture room tonight at 7:30. Doctor Mabel Williams will read a paper on "Color Blindness." The public is invited. H. L. Dodge, Secretary.

JACKSON CLUB NOTICE

A meeting of the Jackson County club will be held Friday evening, Jan. 22, in room 14, liberal arts. Important business. O. H. Frank, president.

PHILO PICTURE

The Philo picture for the 1916 Hawkeye will be taken this Saturday, January 23, at Newberg's studio at 1:30 sharp. Be there on time. Vern Foley, President.

CORNELLIANS

Tickets for the Cornell dinner can be obtained now at the Iowan office or at the Hotel Jefferson just before the banquet.

IRVINGS

The regular meeting tonight is postponed. This week's program will be held next Friday evening, Jan. 22. H. H. Blanchard, President.

Won't the gain to be derived from squarely facing the problem of 'cribbing' outweighs the temporary harm, which will result from a certain amount of bad publicity and extravagant statements in Chicago newspapers?

"The Daily Illini believes that infinitely more harm will accrue to the university from unchallenged 'cribbing' than from unpleasant publicity. The one goes to the essence of things; the other is merely fleeting. Only by an open discussion of the matter can students be made to take the proper attitude toward cheating on examinations.

"The Daily Illini believes that we must not cease facing our campus problems for fear of the Chicago newspapers. We need not muzzle our opinions."

STATE SECRETARY HERE
Harry Goodrich of Des Moines, state secretary for the boys' work of the Y. M. C. A., will be in Iowa City Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. A big mass meeting has been planned for Sunday afternoon in the high school auditorium at which Prof. Trowbridge of the university will preside. A male quartette from the university will furnish the music.

TWO MORE FRESHIE LECTURES
There will be but two more freshman lectures delivered and then that course will be brought to a close for the remainder of the academic year. The lectures this year have aroused much interest among the first year men and women and have been very beneficial from both an advisory and instructive standpoint. Many of the prominent faculty members of the university have addressed the freshmen through invitation and these outside speakers have served to stimulate interest.

PHILO PROGRAM

Miss Charlotte Loveland, a vocalist of ability, will feature the regular weekly program of the Philomathean literary society this evening. An invitation is extended to every one to be present. The program follows:

NEBRASKA ACONTESTS
that year. Since the two schools are bitter rivals in the gridiron sport it is certain that monster crowds will see the teams battle in their next two engagements.

The completion of the Nebraska negotiations practically fills the Iowa schedule for next year. Games have already been arranged with Purdue, Ames, Minnesota, Nebraska and Northwestern and only the two practice games at the start of the season remain to be decided upon. It is probable that Cornell will again meet Iowa in the second game of the year, but an effort is being made to secure another team to take the place of the State Teachers' college which has proven too weak to furnish sufficient competition. Drake has been considered, but they insist upon a late season date, which cannot be granted them in view of their showing made in the past two years.

The arranging of the Nebraska date in 1916 incidentally sets the time for the Homecoming two years hence. It will be the latest that the annual celebration has ever been held.

IOWA RIFLE TEAM WINS FIRST MATCH

DEFEATS CALIFORNIA BY 22 POINTS IN FIRST SHOOT OF THE YEAR

Competes This Week With Anapolis and Will Clash Next Week With Michigan Aggies, Time-Honored Rivals.

Iowa's rifle team, already made famous by its records in the National Rifle club association shoots of last year, led in its first match this year with 22 points over its opponents. Iowa scored 967 against California's 945. With even the splendid record of last year backing the team they have come out of their first clash with a score of 15 more points to their credit than in last year's first shoot.

The scores of the first team in this shoot are as follows:

Arneson	96	99	195
Jaeger	96	99	195
Oehler	96	97	193
Weems	96	97	193
Kuhlmann	94	97	191
Totals	478	489	967

The scores made by the second team in this match was 931, which was 4 points higher than the score made by Minnesota's first team and 25 points higher than Purdue's score. The scores of the different schools composing the National Rifle club association in their first shoot of the 1915 season held January 14, is as follows:

Class A

Mass. Agg., 963, vs. U. S. Naval academy, 950.
Iowa, 967, vs. California, 945.
W. Virginia, 958, vs. Norwich, 935.
Cornell Univ., 949, vs. Purdue, 906.
Illinois, 947, vs. Minnesota, 927.

Mich. Agg., 976, vs. Wash. State, 973.

This week Iowa shoots with Anapolis. According to last week's scores and in view of the fact that the team has shot a score of 971 this week, it seems safe to predict a victory for Iowa in that quarter. Next week, however, it is apt to be another story as the team clashes with the Massachusetts Aggies, her old enemy. They stand in the same position to Iowa in shooting as does Ames in football. The greatest danger in this shoot will come from the absence of one of the best men from the team, as Jaeger is having his eyes treated and cannot see to shoot.

The scores for the shoot with the U. S. Naval academy are as follows:

First team:

Ingham	97	100	197
Arneson	95	100	195
Jaeger	97	97	194
Oehler	95	99	194
Weems	93	98	191
Totals	477	494	971

Second team:

Boerner	94	96	190
Chapman	93	97	190
Kuhlmann	89	99	188
Martin	91	96	187
Harding	95	91	186
Totals	462	479	941

Intercollegiate gallery matches, season of 1915. Iowa vs:

California, Jan. 14; U. S. Naval academy, Jan. 21; Mass. Agg., Jan. 28; Norwich, Feb. 4; Illinois, Feb. 11; Purdue, Feb. 18; Mich. Agg., Feb. 25; Wash. State, March 4; Cornell Univ., March 11; Minensota, March 18; W. Virginia, March 25.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR

Selwyn & Co., the sponsors for "Within the Law," have found a worthy successor to that popular play in "Under Cover" which will be the attraction at the Englert theatre.

"Under Cover" is a melodrama in four acts, written by Roi Cooper Megrue. It is melodrama of a high standard and deals with an attempt to smuggle a valuable pearl necklace into the United States. The Treasury Department learns of the entry of the jewels and sets the secret service to work at running down the smugglers. Mr. Megrue has builded his story with cumulative interest, and while the entire play is replete with surprises the biggest surprise of all comes just before the fall of the last curtain. If reports speak true "Under Cover" is a play for all classes of playgoers and will appeal with equal force to the patrons of the orchestra and gallery of the playhouse. "Under Cover" has scored the theatrical sensation of the year in New York and Chicago, in both of which cities it has been attracting capacity audiences at each performance for months past.

guson, Clarence Strike, Tom E. Martin, Carl Brueckner, Walter Cardell, Paul Garzee, Leslie Fenlon, Lester Drenner and C. D. Jory. The primary on Tuesday will be held in the lobby of the Iowa Union and special ballots will be provided. The two high men in the primary will be voted upon in the election on Wednesday and in this way a final choice will be made. The polls on both days will be open in the Union lobby from 8 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock at night.

If anyone desires to place in the field the name of any candidate in addition to the above list he may do so by securing a petition signed by twenty-five students. Only Iowa Union members will be allowed to vote in the primary and election and it is desired that every member see that his membership card makes him eligible to vote and to straighten out all matters of similar nature before Tuesday.

Any petition which are circulated to enter other candidates must be in the hands of a Union official by Monday in order to be placed on the ballot.
