RE: REV. PERREY BEFORE PHILOSOPHICAL CLUB

Speaks on Monday Evening Regarding the Ossian Phenomenon
Before Students

Dr. C. M. Perry of the University church spoke on "Ossianian" Monday evening before the Phi Delta Thalia. He said in opening that supposed occult scents are grooving for a beam and that it is unfair to determine their place in existence than to dismiss them without consideration.

The speaker then defined several sources of occult manifestations and discussed the common elements involved in them. The first of these sources are the physical facts of time and space and of events sufficiently causal to suggest, in the case of telepathy, for instance, one person has certain ideas, volitions and another person at a distance has arbitrarily similar ideas and volitions. A second involvement involved in all supposedly occult occurrences is the assumption of a connection between these separate events or experiences. In the case of telepathy, for instance, a direct mental connection is supposed to be between the minds of the two people involved. A further element in observation is the fact that there is a boundary between the two separations of physical events, which are different from any physical, chemical or physiological event.

CALL ISSUED FOR ORATORICAL CONTEST

MEN WHO ARE TO ENTER CONTEND IN FUTURE FALL MEETINGS

Professor Perry Giving List of Men Ready for Work Which Is Now in Process in Elocution—Prospects in the League Are Good

"All those who are interested in running in our university oratorical competition to be held on Friday, November 13, will meet in the office of Professor Perry on Monday at 1:30 to band to the speaker's forums and to exercise the oratorical sense.

At this contest the two men will be selected who will represent the university in its intercollegiate oratorical events.

Martin Ferguson, state secretary of "boys' work" for the Young Men's Christian association and well known as a leader of the students of university, has been retained in the Iowa House of Assembly, as the other candidate, for the third time at a distance of from 100 to 200 miles.

The contest will be held on the Iowa legislature by Senator Allen of the House of Representatives as Representative of the House of Representatives.

This measure has practically the solid backing of every man's contention in the state and calls for the evidences of the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian association.
