Iowa Engineering Society to Convene

February 17, 18, and 19 date for big professional convention

Dean Raymond, President of Iowa Engineering Society with President J. B. Etchel is making extensive plans for occasion.

One of the biggest events in a technical way of the entire school year is to take place now. On February 17, 18 and 19 the Iowa Engineering Society will meet at the university and accept for bringing in many of the possibilities of the state in this direction.

Hawkeye Marksmen Lose the Third Mix

Lowest of Match Iowa in Fourth Place-Taken over the Iowa Rifle Team lost the third match of the season to her old rival, the Massachusetts Aggies. This is not surprising as this match came as a result of the team having been suffering. However, ranking third in the National Rifle Club Association at the end of the season, this defeat will place Iowa three points behind the Massachusetts Aggies and temporarily rank her fourth in this year's rifle showing. However, ranking at the present time, this match does not show above 935 in total. The standing of the clubs at the end of the second match of the year is as follows:

Annual Convocation Set for February 8

Twenty-two students are candidates for degrees this spring.

Scores: Evans, Frances, M.; Blinn, John H.; Bowden, George, M.; Stone, George, M.; Smith, Charles.

SEVENTEEN STUDENTS ARE CANDIDATES FOR DIPLOMAS.

So, what is this? It is the new light of Iowa. We are a new light in the educational field. A new light in the educational field. The Iowa State University has appointed a committee to investigate the situation of the state in this direction.
Thursday Morning, Feb. 4, 1915.

A SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

It has been brought out in discussions in legislative committees that university students are not prepared for business careers with the idea that professional men are training for their respective fields of endeavor. Man and woman who are studying in the university will be expected to enter the business world upon completion of their college training. A serious neglect has been shown in the study of business methods. It is true that some courses are offered in the university pertaining to business, and which are absolutely necessary for a man entering the business world. But the students must take these courses, as electives and they do not have the practical guidance in choosing courses as they would have in a school of commerce, where the faculty members would necessarily be practical business men with a practical business experience behind them.

Some of the states in the recent years have written books destined to help the prospective practical men of Iowa and the state. During recent years the demand for students destined to enter the profession of business has become greater, and the time is here when practical business methods are of just the same importance in the professional work as in the state. WIN GUNS ARE TO BE DISCUSSED AT MONDAY MEETING

President Lagrange of Ohio Paper

"Modern Guns and Gunpowder"

Tomorrow Evening

"Modern guns and Gunpowder" will be the subject of a paper by President B. J. LaHunt, before the Hunting Club Tuesday evening. One of the most striking features of the present war has been the large amount of fighting that the issue has been decided at great distances by means of the large pieces of ordnance. The forty-two gun batteries of the Germans was a complete surprise to the other nations and its successful use is the field marks the week in military practice. Professor Lambert will deal with the manufacture of large guns and ammunition and their use in target practice and actual warfare. The Physic lecture room at 7:30 and is open to the public.
