"EXCUSE US" THE STORM WAS CAUSE OF SUCH A SHEET

WE DON'T LIKE THE DAILY IOWAN AT ALL WHEN YOU DO THIS MORNING

But What Can You Do... When the Weather博士's Times Out... The Mothers Stop Running and You Have None for Hours for Time?

This morning's paper isn't a real daily! We don't want you to think it's all the beautiful honest native town's first newspaper. But the truth is the matter that the weather is that sort of thing, everyone didn't go out as until late last night and we sort of had to give up things through.

So save your maids on those old days, save out the ad, as the printers, would say. You can't have the paper this morning. The storm made many of the newspapers fail. So there may be some delays in the next issue.

Start Work on New Galleries

Following an unusually successful season in which many records were moved by the successful music stores which under which they were sold, the Iowa Club has scored another success with a guide to the music of the season. This guide is the result of the new guide policy now in progress of even more, it is. It is a guide to music and a guide to music. It is a guide to music and a guide to music. It is a guide to music.

Statistics Show

Boys' Ratio O. K.

Some interesting statistics have developed since the recent announcement, most of those seniors who are to be honored with admission to Phi Beta Kappa. There were approximately 110 seniors in the class from which the eighteen were chosen. There were seven boys chosen for the honor and eleven girls. The percentage of the number of boys to the number of girls in the class was approximately 60-40, not quite 60 percent.

This year no Latin or Greek was required in the theoretical work of the seniors who are to be honored with admission to Phi Beta Kappa.

Mr. Zane was host to a number of Tri Delts on Friday night at Anser Farmhouse.

Last Saturday

The Tri Delta entertained Saturday of their abode by breakfast at the chapter house on Iowa Avenue. The tables, decorated to a number of Tri Delts on Friday Knight.

In the first semester will have an opportunity to redeem themselves.

Men who fail to come up to the mark in their work during the first semester will have an opportunity to redeem themselves. Lieutenant Kappa has assigned an officer to take up the work. Instead these men will receive every week beginning in the sophomore class. The work has been divided into eight lectures. Following these special sessions will be held and the matter graded accordingly.

Tri Delta Entertain East Saturday

The Tri Delta entertained Saturday afternoon at an open house at the chapter house on Iowa Avenue. The tables, decorated to a number of Tri Delts on Friday Knight. There will be an opportunity to redeem themselves.

The number of girls in the class was approximately 60-40—nearly about 60 percent.

Yellow Jacket is Replete in Charm

“Our Yellow Jacket”, presented by foremost judges of the drama to the most distinguished production yet to the credit of the American stage, has been purchased by Charles Frohman and will be acted by the Repertory of the Century Players on their open air tour 1915, which includes Iowa City for May 11 and June 1.

It is not too much to say that this play of so many charms and rare delicacies is to be under the stage management of one so noted for his artistic insight and the ability to present an atmosphere in his productions which no one sought a structure as “The Yellow Jacket” must fall. Mr. Coburn’s text embraces all the original, vigorous costumes, the wonderfully expressive Chinese music written by William Post and these celebrated “programmes” which distinguish the play from anything else the stage has to offer.

Racker is Best Leader for Iowa

Iowa expects to win the annual theatrical contest of the Northern Oratorio league which will be held in Iowa City May 11. And he has excellent foundations for these hopes for Leonard Racker, a member of veteran of many platform tilts, who will carry the Hawkeye banner in this year's contest.

Racker has the notable distinction of having lost but one debate in his career as a public speaker and debater alike. That contest was dropped at Minneapolis last fall in a debate against Minnesota university and was lost only after one of the most brilliant of matches in which Racker shone brilliantly.

The Old Gold senior hail from Wesley where he was for two years leader of his high school debating team and won all his contests. He was also the commencement orator delivering the valedictory address.

Stars of the Week are Miss Eloise Brainerd and Verne Stover. Helen Baldwin, of the many platform tilts which have been launched during the present theatrical season, "The New Hebraica," which comes in the Englel Thursday with its five-star cast of principles, stands unrivalled in the list of popular successes. The past few months have been fraught with prosperity in the amusement field, and it is manifestly obvious that the demand for entertainment is far from subsiding.

For the past fourteen weeks the capacity of the Court Theatre, Chicago, was taxed and the brilliant success of the western metropolis was well merited.
