Robert Hilliard's Greatest Success

An Adaptation from Rudyard Kipling's

Famous Poems

"THE VAMPIRE"

By Porter Emerson Bennett

Direction of Frank Powell

This sensational play, one of the most successful of the century, and for many years the starting vehicle of Robert Hilliard, has been converted into a supremely vivid and startling stage-play by the William Fox forces.

Edward Jone, former leading man with Sarah Bernhardt, pre- tensions to a masterly manner of the "Vampire," one of the most fascinating, though revolting female characters ever created.

Miss Reis's interpretation is remarkable for inconceivable drollery, while her wonderfully seductive beauty serves to enhance the shadow created by her art. Her gown in this production were designed by the leading costumers of her studio.

Maled: Florence, Vivian Beauchamp, Mary Allison, Clifford Drew, and Male Horse Ridge, the other child actress, together with many other players of no less fame, as a support of the company, such as has never been gathered for a single production.
