LORDADO TAFT WILL VISIT UNIVERSITY

Lectures December 6 on "AMERICAN SCULPTURE"

Noted Chicago Artist Accepts Invitation of Department of History of Art

Lorado Taft, of Chicago, will lecture Dec. 6, in the natural science auditorium on, "American Sculpture." The lecture, which has been arranged under the auspices of the department of history of art, will begin at 8:15, and will be free to students and the general public.

Mr. Taft is one of the best sculptors in the United States. He has lived in Chicago for many years and has had a great deal to do with the beautifying of that city. Among his best works is the "Bridges of the Iowa," a magnificent piece of the node art. The one which has drawn the most recent attention is, "The Revolt of the Haitian Slaves," which takes the forms of a large bronze hous- e. This colonial work was but recently set up in the south end of the Art Institute, in Chicago. In addition to his work in sculptur- ing, Mr. Taft is an author of num- erous literary ability. His book, "The History of American Sculpture," is a standard work upon that subject. Mr. Taft holds a very suc- cessful public speaking.

EPLLE CLUB HAS MEMBERS

Thirty-five men have joined the Eplle club. Last year the membership reached eighty. It is expected that the number this year will be greater than ever before the season opened.
