If located in September, U1 3, the north end of Chicago. The posed magnificent group dedicated in 1912, by the artist who conceived the plan, is a sculptor and foremost of contemporary artists. His influence has been felt everywhere and is recognized as one of the most important in the art world. The group measures 21 feet in height, and is free to the public. It is located on a high bluff overlooking the Rock river near Galena, Illinois, and the Columbian Scenic Mountain at Washington, D.C., which was dedicated last summer.

"Among Mr. Taft's recent creations are the statue of Black Hawk, a national hero, and the statue of Rip Van Winkle, high, commemorating the American Indian, which stands on a high bluff overlooking the Black Hawk War between the Black Hawk and the Illinois Indians, and the Columbia Scenic Mountain at Washington, D.C., which was dedicated last summer."

Mr. Taft's lecture in Iowa City will be on the subject, "American Sculpture," and will be illustrated. It will be free to all.

For Sale - A Remington Typewriter, in good condition, has been used very little. $50.00 will buy it. Inquire at this office.

If you want stereographic work neatly and accurately, rapidly, and at a reasonable price, call on Mr. Taft, who has been working in the field for many years. WILLIAM IN DIALECT SOCIETY

Professor Charles Bundy Wilson has received supplemental as district
secretary of the American Dialect society, an organization composed of a select few of the literary and scholastic workers of the United States.
His purpose is to gather together examples of the different dialects and word uses of all over the country and to publish them in a magazine called, "Dialect Notes."

"It is a fascinating fact," says Professor Wilson, "that many of the tongue phrases used in this country today have originated from select word uses of a few years ago."

The price $2 can convey but a faint idea of how very pretty and thoroughly desirable these Blouses really are—

Were you to see these Blouses you'd not be informed as to the price—you would naturally think that they cost somewhat more than $2.00. The fact is, they are alike in many respects the Blouses one customarily sees at higher prices. They are bought favorably—and in accordance with our established policy—the benefit is passed on to our patrons. At this price—you can always feel sure of getting Blouses here that are very, very, unusual.

They are packed in Christmas boxes and will make ideal gifts.

The Welsummer Blouse at $2 sold here exclusively.
