TAF Lectures Tonight

Noted Chicago Scientist Will Tell Iowa City about Persian Literature

Dr. Leopold Tall, the scientist, will deliver his lecture on the ancient literature of Persia, which is of great importance in the history of civilization. The lecture will be held in the University Auditorium at 8 p.m. tonight.

UWA ISSUES PROSPECTUS GOOD

Dean Joseph Jones Probability of Record Breaking Among those of Three Hundred

Advance registration for the conference on social betterment will end next Wednesday, Jan. 15, as well as all tickets for the luncheon to be held the same day. We are certain of attendance of three hundred, as the proceeds from all parts of Iowa and I expect a good deluge of interest from the last day.

Bassleer will tell the visitors will total in the neighborhood of three hundred, as they are prepared to discuss the problems of social betterment.

Many cities which were not represented last year will have delegates in attendance this season, while many which have been successful before will be assembled and the respective states will be represented.

The plots are simple, the continuous change makes the pictures more effective. Those pictures were introduced in the lecture on the history of science.

The story of the persecution of Galen in the Middle Ages was vividly described by Lady Edith Hyde, assistant reference librarian.

The military affairs, which have been the subjects of many lectures on the subject of war, will be discussed.

The December issue of the Iowa Almanac is featured with a detailed account of the annual homecoming and the numerous meetings and banquets connected with that event. The list of names of alumni who registered at the event at that time covers three full pages.

As a frontispiece a full-page cut of the university hospital is provided, showing the new additions and improvements. A full description of the new ward house, accompanied by a picture, occupies one page of the issue. The programme of events for the school superintendents' meeting, held under the auspices of the college of education, which opens tomorrow, is also given on one page.

The new Burlington street bridge, which was designed by Prof. W. J. Lambert of the engineering college, is described fully and a view of it is shown.

The essence of the committee on the centennial of the Athletic Union of the University of North Dakota has made a ruling that any member of a band, unless on any account in which he is to play shall be automatically dropped from the list of eligible candidates for that band for one year. The University of Oregon has dropped the former written question. The Stanford (Calif.) school is supposed to be grooming the girls.

Every man should be trained in the art of counterparry speech in the opinion of Dr. John M. Martz-thur, associate professor of the English language in the Kansas state agricultural college. The opinion of two rosin-first Yule stars, as regards the predestination of finding the bhanciers of playee compulsory; point almost uncanniness to the adoption of this rule. The list of players questioned contains these 15 and the Heart captors and only two of these are opposed to the measure.
