RIFLE PRACTICE DELAYED
The following are the thirteen highest men and scores for the first week's practice of the rifle: eight, from position and out of a possible 297: C. J. Oehler 297, George Cudahy 297, P. G. Murray 296, Horace Indrucki 295, Donald Prince 294, Robert Hammer 293, Hickory Lewis 293, Ronald Gillis 293, B. M. Goodwin 293, Leonard House 293. Laverne Chapman 292; Max Kuhlmann 292; G. C. Hart 290.

It will be necessary for the team to hold a possible 297, 13, to hold its former place in the National Rifle Association matches. Repairs in the galleries have put the men one month behind their schedule. Installation of a new lighting system kept the club from practice yesterday.

WILL GIVE UK FOR VINTAGE
The Y. W. C. A. will give a tea in honor of Miss Addie Elliott, nation al students' secretary of this field, Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 in Clip Hall. All university women and friends of the association are cordially invited to this tea. Miss Elliott will be glad to make appointments with any girls wishing to talk with her during her stay here. She is the house guest of Dr. Bell White now.
