IOWA CITY FINE ARTS ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES EXHIBIT

Beginning Feb. 22, Student Body Will Have Opportunity to See Fine Paintings

The third annual exhibit of oil paintings by modern American artists will be presented in the Commercial club rooms from Feb. 22 until March 3, under the auspices of the Iowa City Fine Arts association. The exhibit will consist of forty-three canvases, assembled by the American Federation of Arts, Washington, D. C. Among these will be the work of eighteen well known New York artists and some from Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, and St. Louis, and other cities.

On the opening night, Feb. 22, besides showing these works of art, the association through Director Van Doren will present a concert by the university orchestra.

The collection of pictures which comes here was on exhibition in the Art Institute in Chicago, where several Iowa persons, including Professor Dodge, secretary of the association, saw it, and they speak highly of it. During the month of January it was on exhibition at the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. It comes here from Omaha, where it has been for the last two weeks.

Some artists whose pictures will be shown and who are well known in Iowa City are: Couse, the renowned artist of Indian life; Waugh, who is noted as a painter of marine life; Birge Harrison, painter of nature. One artist who has recently won renown by winning the grand prize at the Panama-Pacific exposition and who will have a picture here, is Frederick C. Frieseke. Last year Mr. Frieseke's picture of "Foxgloves" was in the exhibit here.

Miss Mary E. Moon, president of the association, has announced that the usual reduction in the price of tickets will be made to students and season tickets may be obtained by them for twenty-five cents. With a season ticket any one can go in and view the exhibit at any time.

NEW TEACHER SELECTED

Libbie George, at present principal of the primary department of the Aberdeen, So. Dak., schools, will take the place of Miss Georgia Brown in the university elementary school. Miss George is a graduate of the university.

KURTZ LECTURES TONIGHT

The first regular meeting of the Commerce club for the second semester will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Commercial club rooms. The lecture will be given by Mr. Charles F. Kurtz of the extension division, on the subject, "Retail Store Management."

Several other very interesting addresses have been arranged for, which will be given under the auspices of the Commercial club. The lecture this evening is given primarily for the members of the Commercial club and the Commerce club, but the public is invited to attend.

DIRECTOR KELLOGG LOSES A RACE

It's no use—age does slow the boys down.

Director N. A. Kellogg discovered this fact last night when he went out to show the distance runners how to hit the trail.

With Jack Hartmann setting the pace, Kellogg started manfully to demonstrate the speed that one time won him a reputation at Michigan. He tried to keep the Iowa man in sight. With magnificent stride he covered the ground and onlookers looked to see him win. But when the crucial time came, when he was called upon to spurt at the finish, the speed failed to come. His place went to another.

Hartmann would still have his position on the team even if Kellogg were eligible.

ENGINEERS GO TO DES MOINES

Dean W. G. Raymond, Prof. R. B. Klittrids, Prof. A. H. Dunlap, and Prof. R. E. Hutchins of the engineering department will leave today for Des Moines to attend the meeting of the Iowa Society of Engineers. They will also attend the Good Roads convention which will be held in connection with the engineering meeting Friday. Dean Raymond will deliver an address on "Where to Begin".

Zetathian-Hesperian: Try-outs for society play will be held Thursday at 7 p. m. in Zet hall. Plays may be read in Zet hall from 2:30 to 5 Wednesday and Thursday.

EMOTIONS CAUSED WITHOUT THOUGHT

This is View Taken by Dr. Starbuck in Paper Before Philosophical Club

The meeting of the Philosophical club was held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Knock, at 652 S. Governor street. The paper of the evening was read by Professor E. D. Starbuck on the subject of "A Re-Classification of Some of the Elements of Consciousness."

The point of departure for Prof. Starbuck's address was the recent researches that have been made in the physiological and psychological laboratories on the direct effect of glandular secretions and bodily reactions upon the emotions. His contention was that the mental processes are directly influenced by the organic changes without the necessity of getting through the mediation of the special senses and the cognitive processes. The outcome of the presentation was that the life of appreciation in art, literature, morality and religion is not altogether dependent upon the intellectual processes.

KLINE ON FRESHMAN SQUAD

The freshman basketball squad received a valuable addition yesterday when Kline, former star center on the Clinton basketball team, and all-state man for three years, joined the yearlings. Kline is big, scrappy, and an excellent floor man.

Mrs. Benj. Kramer of Manville Heights returned yesterday from a two months' stay in New York City.

DR. COIT LECTURES ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE

GIRLS ABANDON THEIR MEETING TO HEAR BRITISH SPEAKER

"Vote the Only Weapon Against Unnumbered Enemies," He Tells Audience

At the meeting held yesterday afternoon in the liberal arts auditorium in the interest of woman suffrage, the intended programme was at the last moment changed because, as Miss Joy, chairman of the afternoon, put it, "Some of our outpost soldiers captured a big British gun who will have by far more power than a forty-two centimeter," and introduced Dr. Stanley Coit of London, as the speaker of the afternoon.

"Some people," said Dr. Coit, "say that there are already too many votes. Should this prejudice against votes spread America may become a czarism."

"The 'antis' declare that 'the vote for women is unwomanly, that the women who want it are hysterical', but I maintain that no one so much as the 'antis' themselves are in a pathological condition of hysteria."

Must Have Vote

"Any woman of a little more intelligence than a cow," declared the speaker, "realizes that she cannot preserve the sanctity of the home when she is deprived of the only weapon which is effective against the unnumbered enemies without."

"The vote," said he, "is the only womanly way in which woman as a spiritual being can give her seadying influence in the communities of the world. However, I am not one of those who think that votes for women will bring heaven upon earth. Men have had three hundred years of experience ahead of women and it will take her at least that long to acquire the necessary experience to equip her for her new responsibilities."

"I have never found a man who wished he were a woman," said Dr. Coit, "but I have found countless women who wished they were men. Men would rather die than be in the subordinate position of the slave wives of America."

Many Girls Attend

Dr. Coit's address abounded in keen arguments. He talked for over an hour to an audience of about two hundred and fifty persons, including many men. The personnel of the audience revealed one minister present, ten male members of the faculty and eight of the opposite sex. By far the largest number were university girls, a fact that caused expression of surprise from all sides. It had been said that the university girls at Iowa were indifferent to the question.

Lateness of the hour precluded any step toward organization, but a suffrage club will be organized immediately.

Dr. Coit delivered an address Monday evening in the natural science auditorium on the subject "The Morality of America."

Miss Clara Machlis of Madison, Wis., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Benj. Schlemovitz in Manville Heights.

IOWA MEN TO BACK PROHIBITION

Branch of Inter-Collegiate Association Will be Formed—To Train Leaders

The university will soon include among its organizations a branch of the Inter-Collegiate Prohibition association if the mission of H. J. Burgstahler, university secretary of the national organization, succeeds. Mr. Burgstahler spent yesterday interviewing Iowa men. He will be here today also, and will speak before several classes and before the Y. M. C. A. tonight.

"We shall form an organization here if the leading men respond to the idea as they have at other institutions," Mr. Burgstahler said yesterday. "At universities I have already visited there has been much enthusiasm over the project. Out at Nebraska recently some sixty men, including the captain of the football team, and other leaders came in."

"The aid of the association is to train leaders both for the work of law enforcement in local communities and for the national campaign against liquor. We organize the study class in each institution to make a scientific inquiry into the evils of the use of alcohol. In many institutions courses are included in the curriculum, and I have reason to believe that such a course will be installed by the the economics department here. It is evident that men who have made careful preparation can best be counted upon for leadership in the movement for prohibition."

ILLINOIS CLUB NEW ORGANIZATION

Graduates and Former Students Prepare to Entertain Speakers From Alma Mater

The latest organization of the university is the Illinois club, composed of all graduates and former students of the university of Illinois. The idea of the club is to permit closer association between the members, and to provide a committee for the entertainment of all Illinois speakers who may come to the university.

An executive committee has been appointed, consisting of Dr. Sudhindra Bose, secretary, Mr. S. D. Marquis, and Miss Margaret Sawyer. A business meeting will be called by the committee for some time at the end of the present month. All Illinois graduates and former students at present in the university are invited to communicate with the executive committee.

CALL FOR PLAYWRIGHTS

Grace George, the actress, has recently offered a prize of $1,000 and a Broadway production for the best play submitted to her by a college student before June.

Competition for the prize is open to graduate as well as undergraduate students. Other conditions announced are that the play must be original, the subject must be American and modern, there must be three acts to cover a full evening of entertainment, and contestants must get faculty approval of their competing.

Now—has Iowa anyone who will try for the prize?

IOWA DEFEATS DRAKE IN EXCITING GAME

SCORE 22 TO 14—BRILLIANT PASSING FEATURES

White and Blue Players Forced to Play Defensive Game to Hold Score Down

By Sec. Taylor
Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 15. Special: The Iowa quintette tonight defeated Drake university by the comfortable score of 22 to 14 in a game which was so exciting that it kept the five hundred spectators on their feet throughout the forty minutes of play.

The Hawkeyes flashed the most brilliant passing game seen on a local floor in two years but despite this fact the Bull Dogs held them almost even throughout the first half and during the early stages of the last period the local collegians played a purely defensive by keeping both their guards under the basket and forcing Iowa to make long shots for the basket.

Hawley furnished most of the Drake offensive strength and was responsible for twelve of the Bull Dog's fourteen points. His three baskets were made under difficulties as he was guarded closely and had no free shots. Bannick and H. Von Lackum played the best game for the visitors, both starting with spectacular passing and dribbling as well as goal shooting. The score at the end of the first half was 10 to 9, favoring Iowa.

There was no comparison in the team work or passing of the two teams but Drake had been properly coached to hold the score low and Warnock and Berringer played a fine guarding game. Dutton was forced out of the game late in the second period because of personal fouls.

The line-up:

| | | |
|--------------|------|-----------|
| Iowa | | Drake |
| H. VonLackum | i.f. | Hawley |
| Bannick | r.f. | Irwin |
| Dutton | c. | Smith |
| Schiff | l.g. | Warock |
| K. VonLackum | r.g. | Berringer |

Iowa 22, Drake 14.
Substitutions: Laun for Dutton, King for Berringer.

Field Goals: Bannick 4, H. Von Lackum 3, Dutton, Schiff, K. Von Lackum, Hawley 3, Irwin.

Free throws: H. VonLackum 2 out of 7 trials; Hawley 6 out of 12 trials.

Referee, Hyland of Iowa; Umpire, Carney of Grinnell.

CUMMING LECTURES TONIGHT

The second lecture in the series of evening lectures on the history of art is to be given this evening in the liberal arts assembly hall at 8 o'clock by Professor C. A. Cumming. The subject is "how to look at pictures." Particularly in connection with the exhibition of paintings to be made here the end of this month this lecture will be of interest. The lecture is open to the public without charge for admission. It is under the direction of the department of Greek and Archeology.

NEWMANS ANNOUNCE MEETING

The Newman club will meet in the K. C. hall Thursday evening at 7:15. The following programme has been arranged: reading by Anna Casey, vocal solo by Belle Kinney, paper, "Life of Newman", by Mr. McCarthy.

OUR OWN PREPAREDNESS

Preparedness is the watchword of the hour. A campaign has been launched with this as its main issue. Side by side with this campaign of mere political significance, which is immense and powerful in its proportions, flourishes another and infinitely greater call for preparedness for life training of mind and muscle. Are we as a nation or as individuals on this ground?

When the call to fight the world comes in the life of every person, he must put on the armor of good health and a keen intellect. He should be prepared with these essentials. If he is not, there is only defeat for him and the cause he represents. He cannot expect to put up a good fight if he lacks that attribute of warfare, a good physical condition. He cannot enlist in the ranks or if he does he must fight handicapped throughout all the struggle for supremacy. The policy of preparedness is the only one to adopt in such weakened conditions.

An increase in physical supplies must be counterbalanced by an addition to the supply of knowledge. When, after graduation, the student is plunged into the real fighting of life, his supply of knowledge must be the largest available. It must be of the latest make and highly specialized for the particular function it is to perform. In the struggle between forces in the world of business the opponent has made use of all the modern methods and it is with these the young soldier must compete. His mere physical ability has won him a place in the trenches. If he is to advance in rank, it will be through his use of the ammunition he has collected, his ability to reach the mark at which he takes aim, and a knowledge of the rules of warfare to make the line of his endeavor impregnable.

Not only must he be prepared for defense but for aggressive fighting. With his supplies of knowledge, he must not be content to stay within the narrow bounds of his first position but full of the glory of conquest, he must advance into wider fields and rout the enemy. Whether it be a nation or an individual, as long as other nations or other individuals arm themselves for war, it behooves them also to be ready so that when the bugles blow for battle, they will be waiting to defend their own name and ideals and bring home the palms of victory. Success in life as in battle requires preparedness.

SPEAKING IN BILLIONS

A billion units are believed to be beyond the capacity of any human mind to grasp. But we are becoming accustomed to speaking of money in terms of the billion, with billion-dollar congresses, exports of a billion and the immensity of war finance.

A French newspaper, the better to impress its readers with the magnitude of the "loan of victory," exceeding 14,000,000,000 francs—in our money $2,800,000,000—reminds them that "only 1,007,212,000 minutes have elapsed since the death of Christ." That is certainly a striking allusion. Even counted in our money, the aggregate of dollars poured out of the "woolen stocking" of France is more than twice the number of minutes in the centuries since the dawn of the Christian era.

next year, you can secure a position through the Midland Schools Teachers' Agency, of Des Moines, Iowa. It places more teachers west of the Mississippi each year than any other agency and its terms are the most liberal offered. It covers the entire territory west of the Mississippi river, except California, Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas.

For one dollar you receive an enrollment, a year's subscription to the Midland Schools and an Iowa high school teachers' directory, showing the names of all Iowa high school teachers with subjects taught and salaries received. Any one of these is well worth the price.

Arrangements have been made with Mr. Baldwin, publisher of the Daily Iowan, by which you can secure blanks and enroll directly through him. This will save you some trouble and expense.

Read his announcement in this issue or write directly to C. R. Scroggie, Des Moines, Iowa.

ural science auditorium, for the purpose of selecting a cast for its presentation of "The Merchant of Venice" which will take place sometime during the week of Shakespeare's tri-centennial celebration, probably the latter part of April.

Miss Geyer, Mr Hunt and Mr. Merry will act as judges for the tryouts. as the club realizes the prodigiousness of its undertaking and expects to do everything within its power to make this presentation a creditable one.

WILL TALK ABOUT COLOR

Professor L. G. Grieg will give an illustrated lecture on the "Physics of Color" before the students of psychology today. There will be two divisions, one at 11 a. m. and the other at 7 p. m. The lecture, which will be held in the physics lecture room, is open to visitors as well as the regular classes.

WATCH MEETINGS POPULAR

The morning watch meetings in connection with the Y. W. C. A. jubilee celebration are proving popular with the members who gather at 7:45 for a circle prayer and inspiration service. All girls are invited to attend. The meetings close in time for eight o'clock classes.

Mary E. Aldrich spent the weekend at her home in Des Moines.

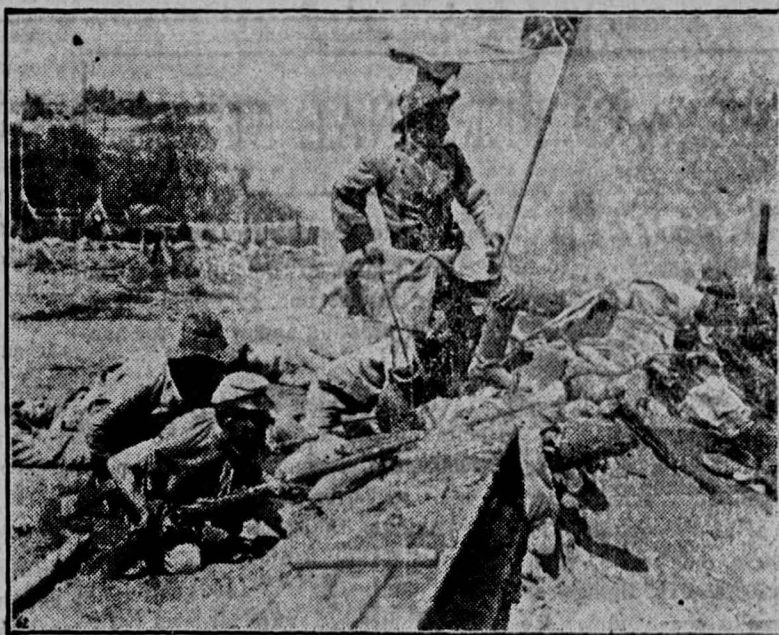

Beulah Joehnk of Clinton spent Sunday with friends in Iowa City.

Elizabeth Spies was the guest of friends in Mount Vernon Sunday.

Making Plans For Pageant

A meeting of the pageant committee was held at Close hall Tuesday evening with Lydia Elcher in charge. Interesting plans are being made for the entertainment to be held by the Y. W. C. Miss Ethel Newcomb, an Iowa City girl who is a graduate of Wellesley, has offered her services to further the success of the historical representation of "The Girls of Yesterday and Today."

The Battle of Petersburg;
A Scene in "Birth of a Nation"

D. W. Griffith, perhaps a thousand-fold more effectively than he realized while he was making it, has proved that war is actually hell, made and fed by man—in his spectacle of spectacles, The Birth of a Nation, which is the extraordinary dramatic and musical announcement for the Englert theatre for seven days starting Monday matinee, Feb. 21, and that hatreds and spites that are bred from it between peoples who participated therein are eternal damnation here on earth.

After witnessing Mr. Griffith's most glorious and exhaustive treatise on the subject, we more than ever pray for an everlasting peace and a settlement by arbitration rather than further armed conflict—and we would some day like to see the photoplay his limitless imagination could devise out of the possibilities this would afford.

Widows, orphans, wrecked homes and hearts everywhere—the aged parents and weeping little son and daughter, brother and sister all over the throbbing world, are the ones who will heartily say "Amen" to this everlasting lesson of war.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL NOTES

Mrs. O. T. Plum and Mrs. J. L. Plum were hostesses to the members of the Benevolent association Tuesday afternoon at their home on Iowa avenue.

Octaves Entertain

Octave Thanet society entertained their friends Saturday evening at a valentine social at Close hall. The decorations were red hearts, valentines, and cupids, and the lights were enclosed in red tissue shades. Refreshments were served.

The members of the N. N. club were guests of Mrs. J. N. Pearce Tuesday afternoon. The club is studying the novel. Mrs. E. W. Rockwood led the discussion with an explanation of "Vanity Fair."

That loyalty forms no small part of the Iowa girl's education is greatly evidenced by the number of letters that have been received at the home of the Young Women's Christian association from former officers and cabinet members complimenting the Iowa girls on their plans for the coming jubilee and containing messages of greeting and wishes for success.

Among the names of former presidents of the association who have greeted the present members in person or by letter are found Adelaide Joy Rogers, 1888; Salome Dugan Cannon, 1890; Frances L. Rogers, 1893; Ruth Paxton, 1898; Mildred Myers Fellows, 1899; Margaret Safely Echlin, 1900; Augusta Brown Moore, 1906; Dora Holman, 1909; Marie Ramsey Nelson, 1910; Ruth Magowan, 1911; Eloise Brainerd, 1912; Macetta Browning, 1913; Harriet Koch, 1914.

Names of former council members and secretaries, many of whom are now in active association work elsewhere, who have sent greetings are Mrs. C. H. Stevens, Etta Hunter, May Lees, Gertrude Gittens Albert, Ann Gittens, Ora King, Ina Scherrebeck, Louise Barr Anderson, Elizabeth Nutting, Bertha Reichert, Alice Bothell, Florence Magowan, Elizabeth Bennett, Vera Barnes, Mattie Nelson, Emma Blythe, and Nancy Carroll.

Girls at Oakdale

Mary Gustafson, Angie and Ada Maxson were sent by the Congregational Oakdale committee Sunday evening to hold a devotional service at the sanitarium. "Consecrated Influence" was the subject of the lesson, which was led by Miss Gustafson. Two enjoyable musical numbers were contributed by the Misses Maxson.

The Gamma Phi Beta sorority entertained their friends at a party at their home on Clinton street Monday evening. A valentine luncheon was enjoyed.

Dr. Gilbert G. Benjamin of the history department will talk on equal suffrage Thursday afternoon at a meeting of the teachers of Cedar Rapids.

A banquet is being planned by the university alumni living in Davenport, to be held in the spring. H. C. Blackwell is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Clara M. Daley gave the address at the Lincoln programme held Monday afternoon by the Pilgrim chapter of the local D. A. R. society at the home of Mrs. A. E. Chesley. Mrs. H. H. Wilson and Miss Gertrude Benson assisted as hostesses.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church entertained their friends at a valentine party in the church parlors Saturday evening.

The members of the Erodelpian literary society were guests Saturday evening of the Irving society at a dancing party.

Edda society enjoyed a valentine social at Close hall Saturday evening.

The Epworth league of the Methodist church entertained their friends at a valentine social in the church parlors Monday evening. Fifty young people enjoyed the party.

Bessie McClenahan is spending the week in Cedar Rapids where she expects to complete the social survey that has been under way there for the last three weeks. Miss McClenahan will spend the coming week-end at her home in Des Moines.

Companies D, E, F, G, and H, will report at the armory in uniform this afternoon at the usual time. Separately.

TO DISCUSS "CLAY PRODUCTS"

Arrangements are being made for a lecture to the engineers to be given by Benjamin Brooks of the International Clay Products bureau. The subject will be "The Application of Clay Products in Sanitary Work." It will be given in about two weeks. President Macbride left yesterday for Des Moines where he will attend a meeting of the board of education.

BURGSTAHLER IN FINAL ADDRESS

PROHIBITION WORKER
PLETES SERIES OF TALKS
AT IOWA

Meets Students of Various Colleges and Urges Fight
Liquor

H. J. Burgstahler, university secretary of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association closed his week-long series of lectures here yesterday evening with a talk before the Y. M. C. A. at Close Hall, after having spent two days here in the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association.

Yesterday morning he addressed the students of the department of economics of the liberal arts in the liberal arts auditorium on the prohibition question. The remainder of the day was spent at Close Hall interviewing the college men.

STUDY PROHIBITION
The formation of classes for the study of the prohibition question was taken up and if a sufficient number of students desire to engage in the work, a class will be formed with H. H. H. as the economics department instructor.

Last evening Mr. Burgstahler addressed the Y. M. C. A. taking as his subject: "Twentieth Century Prohibition", dealing with the need of a better man to undertake the work of the prohibition association.

URGES GREAT FIGHT
"It is my problem to interest students of the different universities in the liquor problem" said Mr. Burgstahler in an interview yesterday. He considered that we are engaged in the greatest fight of the present time. Mr. Burgstahler will leave for the university of Wisconsin tomorrow where he will conduct a similar campaign in the interests of his association.

MERRY GOES TO LAWRENCE

Prof. Glen N. Merry of the speaking department will leave tomorrow evening for Lawrence, Kansas, where he will assist the literary societies of Kansas in putting on an oratorical and dramatic reading contest.

Professor Merry will help to arrange literary societies there and will later act as one of the five judges for the contest. He acted in the same capacity last year.

SUFFRAGISTS MEET TODAY

A meeting will be held this afternoon at 4:30 in the liberal arts assembly room for the purpose of organizing a permanent suffrage club. This meeting was to have been held Tuesday but was postponed over to the lecture by Dr. S. C. Coit. Miss Joy will preside as chairman. All university girls are invited to attend.

JOURNALISTS MEET TONIGHT

Sigma Delta Chi, the journalism fraternity, will hold a meeting at 7:30 this evening in the Hawkeye room. Arrangements for initiation will be made and officers for the year elected.
