RIOU COEDS FURNISH MOST EVERY ITEM FOR IOWA TODAY — V. W. PAGEANT PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED — EXPERIMENTAL DOMESTIC SCIENCE, AND OTHER GIRL ACTIVITIES

PAGEANT PLAN FOR TODAY

With waving plumes and glittering costume in the making, the highly popular and presentation: "The Circle of Yesterday and Today," to be given by the Young Women's Christian association at the natural science auditorium Friday evening, promises to be the most exciting event of the entire fall term. The purpose of the entertainment is to fight a better country that they had known.

Pageant patrons Dolores Read and "Honey Clay" are at the forefront of the pageant.

HOBART FOR GEORGE

"I wasn't Saturday and it wasn't the usual Hobart for George. At least, there was no throng of students at the residence hall, and no hordes in the streets. It was only a few students and a few faculty members who were present at the residence hall.

The reason for this was that the Hobart for George was cancelled due to bad weather. Instead, the students and faculty members met in the Hobart大厅 for a special meeting to discuss the cancellation of the event.

PORTRAIT OF A FRIEND

Life Size Carvings
By Edie Dufresne

The life-size portrait of a young woman, with its satin drapery beautifully polished, is one of the highlights of the display in the exhibition. The play of reflected light adds to the beauty of the face, and drapery of the woman is especially lovely when viewed from the back of an artist.

CLEAN UP DAY IN "ECONOMICS"

Instead of the usual sweeping games of destruction caused a war, but an unfamiliar smell was wafted out of the home economics building yesterday and to the nostrils of astonished students perusing their books in the library.

What childhood associations the familiar fragrance raised up! What familiar memories of spring house-cleaning, when mother wished the scrubbing brush with a delight which struck terror into the hearts of those who dared within its range.

It was a warm day for the students of home economics. Instead of doing the regular work, the cooking class was required to prepare and polish each dish until it shone like a mirror.

DATE OF READING CONTENT SET

The date of the woman's artistic reading contest has been set for March 1. It will be held in the natural science auditorium at eight o'clock.

"A sensational film. 'A Submarine Pirate' is the chief attraction at the Webster Theatre this week."—N. Y. Daily Post.

It promises to contain form both the representative works of all the great musicians but presents a critical study of each author as well.

The Barrett Memorial Library has also an unbound collection of one hundred and fifty autographed autographs, sold, “Old Interiors in Holland,” which was published as The Brass in Every Limited edition.
