At a recent meeting of the city and university suffrage associations at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon at four o’clock, the Reverend Elia McCormick Jones of Waterloo will speak on suffrage. Mrs. Jones, who is now pastor of the Universalist church of Waterloo, is considered one of the finest speakers in the state. Following her husband’s death she took up the pastorate which she now holds, and in addition to this, she superintends the work of the county chapter of Black Hawk County. She takes an active part in municipal and civic improvements in Waterloo and has become one of the best known and most beloved citizens of her community. Next year Mrs. Jones will give up her pastorate to become dean of women at Lombard college in Illinois.

Mrs. Jones will be remembered here for a Sunday evening address during commencement a year ago. In that talk she spoke before it was common meeting under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.

During her stay in Iowa City, Mrs. Jones will be entertained in the home of President and Mrs. Hawk. Monday evening she will deliver an address at North Liberty under the auspices of the King’s Daughters there.

Glen Club Concert Soon

The Glen Club of the university will give a concert in Iowa City Thursday evening, April 5. This announcement was made on Wednesday by Prof. W. B., then director of the school of music. Only a limited number of the club tick will appear before Vinton and Cedar Rapids audiences in the short time to be made Friday and Saturday of this week, and the same number will make the spring tour, but a special treat awaits the home folks when the full membership of twenty-eight will star in the concert to be given in Iowa City.
