(14) Mason of Illinois stopped the chaseman 4:24, lowering the mark of 4:29 made by L. Campbell of Chicago a year ago. Not content with this achievement, Mason came back and won the two-mile, establishing a new record of 9:43 2/5, beating his own mark of 9:45 2/5, made to last year's meet.

These victories gave the Illini star his points, and he won the individual total of one of the greatest meets ever held in the Purple gymnasium. (Doc) Marks, the great ,individual man of the University of Illinois, then came along, and broke the 141 feet 7 1/2 inches barrier for the second time. The previous mark was 140 feet 1 1/2 inches and was held by Pickens of Northwesterns.
