OF INTEREST TO SENIORS

Second, let us find the two dollars asked for by the memorial committee: just a bi-tender. The President of the Alumni "Weeky for March 15 a bit linger.

After the dedication of the class of 1906 appears the follow-

"A high record was noted by the class under the direction of the chairmen of the Memorial Fund. A Hues-

Ward, is the subscription for the year 1913. The sum of $1,493.51 was collected at the time.

The previous high figure is the total collected at the beginning of the year $1,165.99.

This is, it is believed, a record among classes of recent years. With the subscribers to be received before the December 15 is expected that the full amount of the class' respective fund, $16,000, will be paid in.

In the graduating class of 1906 at Princeton, there were probably less than 200. On the average, this year, these are the students of the class of 1906 is not quite as many as we have done for the past four years of the century. The gift of the former body is made in each, while the contributors are still in the interest. As Princeton extends for the year 1906, it is likely that the actual cash contribution before graduation, or immediately following commencement, will not be greater than the amount which the class of 1906 memorial committee will collect.

It is a hackneyed task to demand that senior, among the other numerous demands of his meat-ing member, make a generous donation to the class memorial fund. We do not mean by that that it is unreasonable to expect seniors to pay the two dollars asked by the committee. But it would be unreasonable to expect a mere larger contribution; and a larger gift is necessary from each class if the goal set by the class of 1914 is reached within the lifetime of the university. As the great set of classes presided over by the classes of 1914 and respectively, may add their submissions to the ebullition of champio-ships of the distant future.

"There is nothing in the work more important than prayer," Miss Hofl declared. "That kind of bravery that makes us willing to help the other girl is what it means. Don't think for a minute that the missionary life is number. I get tired hearing people talk about sacrifice. Why there isn't any such thing as a missionary. It's the happiest life in the world. I think the people who really serve are those who love hard, not talk hard.
