GLUE CLUB SCORES HIT TO THOUSAND

CONCERT OF TUESDAY NIGHT PLAYSBIG CROWD OF PATRONS.

Current was in the Nature of a Scratch for Big Trip over State.

Nearly a thousand persons enjoyed the programme given by the Men's Glee Club Monday night. The admission fee was fixed at one dollar.

The club is composed of twenty-some members of ability, who under the conductorship of Professor P. J. F. Heiden, have become a unit in harmony. The programme was as follows: the old English songs, "The Wreath" and "O Fair Day," the Irish air, "As love and friendship," and a number of songs, which, perhaps, pleased the most. The specialties supplementing the programme were as follows: Arthur J. Oehler sang "Blow, Thou Trumpet Blow," and "Let the old ship go," and W. W. De Weer was forced to respond to two encore.

Professor Goodwin in his recital solo played the theme from Beethoven's Piano Sonata. There were strong applause for his well performed air.

The concert was given by Messrs. Martin, Rand, Short, and Decker, and were strongly applauded for their numbers.

"I Lay There" were W. S. P. S. Fraternity, which had an excellent programme and a good impression.

At the conclusion of the concert, Messrs. Martin, Rand, Short, and Decker were enthusiastically received by the students.

GRASSFIELD ACCEPTS POSITION AT NEWTON.

FORMER STUDENT OF UNIVERSITY WILL GO INTO FIELD OF WORK.

Former student of the University, Ruph Grunfield, has accepted a position as secretary of the commission of streets and alleys of the city of Newton. He will take up his work there next Monday. Mr. Grunfield was in the University from the fall of 1882 to the fall of 1886.

At Cedar Rapids Mr. Grunfield began his newspaper career as a student on the Iowan. For three years he held a position, besides an assistant telegraph editor. Then for three years he was editor and publisher of the Newton Daily Mail. It has recently been managing editor of the Iowa City Daily Iowan. He is a very able editor and a man of the first order.

Mr. Grunfield is enthusiastic over the opportunity in newspaper work. He has specialized in political science, economics, and recent years has been a little obscure as to his future. The last paper in which he has been mentioned was the Newton Daily News, which published a call for a man to fill the place.
