ELECTIONS UP ON CALIBER

The elections for the next academic year have been held on campus.

The candidates were divided into three groups: freshmen, sophomores, and juniors.

The results will be announced next week.

The candidates are: freshmen, John Smith; sophomores, Jane Doe; juniors, Richard Red.

The election committee is: John Smith, Jane Doe, Richard Red.

The election day was marked by a high level of voter turnout.

The candidates debated the issues of the day, with John Smith advocating for a new campus building, Jane Doe supporting the current facility, and Richard Red arguing for a smaller, more efficient building.

The election was conducted fairly and without incident.

The results will be announced in the next issue of the campus newspaper.
