JACOBSON BREAKS ANKLE YESTERDAY IN SCRAMMING

JANETTE KAUFMANN, FEMALE FOOTBALL PLAYER, FALLS IN HARD LUCK

Jackson Found Broken Pile of Flowers at First Team Takeoffs (Concluded on Page Three)

Four years ago, as the Iowa women's basketball team prepared for a crucial game against the University of Minnesota, Jackson was rushed to the hospital after a spectacular play went awry. Despite the injury, Jackson returned to the court the next season, inspiring her teammates with her determination and skill. The event was a testament to the resilience of female athletes and the progress made in women's sports.

In the continuing story, Jackson's coach reflects on the impact of her injury and the lessons learned from the experience. The narrative provides a compelling illustration of the challenges and triumphs faced by female athletes in the early 20th century.

The annual meet this year will be held at Iowa during March and from 150 to 160 athletes from all the conference schools and Nebraska will compete for the championship in gymnastics, wrestling and football. Iowa will be remembered, was the championship in wrestling last year. The next two days and key officials will be necessary to judge the matches. ...for tonight will have to go out on crutches for three or four weeks.

Jacobson was playing guard at the time he was hurt. When moved from the second squad to the first eleven, or first replaced Fosdick at tackle, but yesterday was being tried out at guard with Fosdick on the second string. After the accident Fosdick was moved to guard on the regular eleven and the varsity put on the defensive, but the second team was able to score a touchdown. Aside from the shifting of Jacobson to guard playing, the varsity went into scrimmages yesterday all proceeds in practically the same line-up as appeared the greater part of last week. Beginning with right end the Deep included Captain Lunn, Downey, Grubb, Holmes, Jacobsen, McLean, and Tripilici. In the backfield Fosdick worked at quarter and Davis and Meendhall at halves with most of the backfield.

The varsity backfield ripped through the scrum defense in fine form and were seldom held for no gain. After taking the ball over the goal once Jones would carry it back to the middle of the field and give it to the eleven to push across once more. Had it not been for some spectacular runs by Berridge for the punting the second team would scarcely have been able to gain at all when given the opportunity to make the plays.

Having disposed of the second string yesterday afternoon, the varsity will tackle the freshmen in practice today.
