Homecoming plans proceeding rapidly

INDICATIONS ARE THAT THE ATTENDANCE WILL BE LARGER THAN EVER

Plans for the homecoming of all alumni and former students of the univer will be announced by the homeecoming committee later. Some 300 are expected to be on hand for the eras. The alumni will have an coming banquet attended by all the ngs. The committee is said to be

IOWA CHAPTER ERECTING NEW HOME OF PHII KAPPA PSI STREET ABOVE AVE

Phi Kappa Psi is erecting a house on the upper side of Street above Avenue. The building is set on high on the circular road and will provide a beautiful view in the west, north, and southeast.

Great white columns on the river side of the building will support the architectural plan, and the horizontal window makes a pleasing feature.

Mr. Milosˇek and Mr.
Miloˇsek and Mr.
Architects were selected on the recommendation of the students.

The funeral of Curtis Barnes, uni-der who was drowned Sunday morning beneath an automobile at a point on the Iowa City bridge 1\.16 miles from Iowa City, will be held at 1:30 this afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. E. Barnes, 1022 E.

Indianola Ave. Rev. G. K. Eyer, pastor of the Baptist church, will officiate. The body is to be taken for burial at 2:15 to the Grinnell.

Mary E. Barnes, the eldest daughter of the late Charles Johnson, has been appointed to the position of secretary of the University to be held November 24 and

CAPTAIN MUNNA OUTLINES TRAINING PROGRAM FOR STUDENT CADETS

Cadets in the Army Ante Shire This week are to wear drill bell white hats next week.

The military department will make its distinction this year between the drill cadets, to be bargained with the drum and the army, and the other non-drill cadets.
The list of commission and their duty follows:

A called meeting taking place in the gymnasium Monday afternoon in the Natural Science Auditorium, Captain Muenza briefly outlined this year's work in the military department to all student officers. Uniforms will be the same as last year and the same as the fact that past was let be noted Captain Muenza spoke the head of the state.

PMG playing band with band inside finish will be in oak through-and both to the east and west.

Private four floors of the house that were shown to the guests were all considered the plan in the house.

The basement floor will be the kitchen and living quarters, servants' quarters and the meeting place. The kitchen and living room are the same place, with the dining rooms opening into a large hall.

The first floor with two ten-ton rooms, two ball rooms, and a living room is arranged so that the whole house throws onto a large space for dancing.

The man power at the right side will open both to the east and west. On the second floor will be study rooms and a large sleeping porch and bedrooms with porch windows will take up the entire third floor. This house provides all the comforts of home, for on each floor there will be Situation for showers.

Dentists nominate for yell leaders

LIVING up to their "prick" tradition, the dozen of the college organizations to hold a mass meeting this year.

They assembled in the dental building Monday night and praised the students for the success of the last mass meeting.

They decided to send three members to the committee for the mass meeting in Iowa field this afternoon.

At the regular meeting the week before, the committee faced, and the streets and the gave the opportunity to the students for the dance for the year.

The regular mid-week meeting of the T. W. C. A will be held this week. Professor F. W. Kremer will give the address. The topic of the night will be, "Moral and Physical Study of the Iowa home.

The subject this week will be,

Study of the Iowa home.

B RUCE PLAYS ON VARSITY TEAM

CENTER FROM WHICH TEAMIM- FEMINIZE YESTERDAY

The Iowa Daily Omen is announced there will be no military taxations.

No examinations will be given in the military department this year. The committee was appointed to announce the next mass meeting to be held.

Captain Muenza does not believe that the organization is any greater in the college. He believes that the episode of the evening is a be determined more accurately by observation than by any number of comments. The omission of this class in the student body is not fortuitous, however, means that the students will not have the opportunity

Complaints will be accepted on a basis of performance in practice.
No appointments have been made yet because the students have not yet to complete the suites.

Send the "Iowa" house.

St. John's Church, Indianapolis, will be closed at 6:30 this evening in order to the work.
