The Iowa Senate opens this afternoon with the usual roll call at 3:30. The game will then be played with Cornell, college of State Normal, the date having been changed from 1:30 to 3:30.

The game is not important from a standpoint of standing, regarding Cornell, but it is of the greatest importance to the B. S. A. Cornell is in the running for the championship of the Big Ten, while Iowa is not, and the game gives us an opportunity to beat one of the best teams in the country.

WELL WISHES--The junior and senior classes will give a signal at 4 o'clock, inspect the game, and present the signal for the signal for the senior class, and the junior class will present the signal for the junior class.

The ticket sale has been considerably less according to announcement of Manager W. A. Kelling and a big crowd is expected.

The probable line-up, however, as we understand it, is based on the game in: Captain Tuma, right end; L. T. Mengel, left guard; sophomore;back; C. D. Braken, DeDee; Yost, fullback; David and Mendler, half-backs.

Dana, Burton and Nagara are also listed in the game and if they go well, Coach Jones will use them for the greatest of Iowa's strength.

The signal for the game will be "The Iowa State Band Cannon" according to the announcement of the president of the Board of Trustees.

Beatrix Michena in
"The Unwritten Law"
by Edwin Milton Royle

"THE UNWRITTEN LAW" is a seven part photo-drama adapted from Edwin Milton Royle's stage version of the same title. In it, the California Motion Picture Corporation has achieved the masterpiece of its producing activity. The story is wholesome and bright and develops through beautiful settings in one of the most thrilling atmospheres ever attained on motion picture art. An element of mystery is here, and this, combined with the rich, close-knit story will bring to everyone a high degree of enjoyment. Miss Michena's impersonation of Kate Wilson in this picture is her greatest achievement since forming the screen. Younger girls, who have invested the film for Miss Michena's work in both power and finish. "The Unwritten Law," the story of her wonderful portrayal of the woman, will be published in the New York Times, New York Mail, Moving Picture World, Motion Picture News, Dramatic Mirror, Motion, New York Clipper, etc., and have been equally enthusiastic in their words of commendation.

COMMUNICATION

A consultation might be said to be the general character of the story. It has been in line with all previous "California" feature pictures. "The Unwritten Law" allows to its high moral tone. There is nothing in the entire production that is suggestive of one toward cheap or satisfaction. It concerns itself with powerful human emotions, which is the better sort of theme. There is plenty of good story, which to make life better, are here the final manifestation of the moral. It is a motion that has all had illustrated in one to save and shield her offspring in the entire production that is suggestive or leans toward cheap sentiment.

"The Unwritten Law" was produced by the Motion Picture Corporation and is a picture in its pictorial grace is well indicated by the following excerpt from the picture supplement of the New York Evening Mail:

"To sum up, this is a picture in which there are no flaws.

It is wonderful."
