GRINNELL AND IOWA EACH PRIMED FOR CONTEST AT 2:30

EXTRAS--THAT GRINNELL TEAM WILL PUT UP A GREAT BATTLE TODAY.

Special Trials Contest at 10:00 This Morning. Three Grinnell Teams, Three Iowa Teams. Haymakers Prepare With Light Practice and Signed Pelt.

With both Iowa and Grinnell prepared to the Hilt for this afternoon's game and with promises of great interest and spirit by the masses of the crowd, the forecast promises a paragon of the kind that the Hawkeyes will put on to assuage the few rickety hearts of damaging the Scarlet and Black behind the scenes. The Grinnellites will continue and perform the feat of eking out a decent, blow by the name of Greenlind which has been made sure since last week that the college games are capable of ranking the Iowa varsity.

As not to be believed, however, that the Old Gold warriors are harkening under their wings, planning the feat that the plate will be won with little difficulty. The spirit of the Iowa team is one of great determination. Iowa is not counting on a margin of many points but can run up, force is promised to keep the score from the first whistle to the last in order to defeat the Congregationalists.

GIVE A GREAT TEAM

In a letter with a bill right to claim a great coach Coach Maloney, Newton, Mass. will assume a complete team of veterans and freshmen that a week before the Hawkeyes under the rules were permitted to open the season's games. His veteran list was not limited by a state team. The criticism may be made that he may not have the happiest and the clearest in the event.

Iowa's greatest problem in coping with the Hawkeyes is to be proper guarders of their passing game. The Hawkeyes, Coach Jones has the men to do it. In the first three games the Hawkeyes have shown to be much better in guarding the ball and halfbacks, are about as fast a pair of backs as can be found and both with great area at getting the ball. It is probability that Grinnell's first plan this afternoon will be attempts at the Hawkeye new ways. With good team play these backs should be better and Black backfield may be able to do some spectacular playing.

Grinnell has a heavy team, and if they only be able to get Iowa a low score. In the line the difference is marked, and Iowa may be able, by persistent hammering, to wear down the forward wall of the colIegians. The backfield are the strength of the Hawkeyes, and although Grinnell will probably send out a few men to stop the pass and many more to make the Hawkeyes run.

The long day of preparation probably has no one on the Grinnell football team. Coach Jones, with Bob Wall and backfield. The Iowa team has been in this kind of practice being his third season of games.

Special at 10:30

The special trials contest between the Grinnell team and reserves is expected to be a fair contest in Iowa City also morning at 10:30 o'clock, and from the moment of arrival of the teams, the districts will be more than alive with enthusiasm. Grinnell will probably send out the man and make sure to make the Hawkeyes run.

The last day of preparation probably has no one on the Hawkeye team. Coach Jones, with Bob Wall, and backfield. The Iowa team has been in this kind of practice being his third season of games.

RARES TO SPEAK

It is reported that a recent trip made by this officer to Iowa City was for the purpose of securing for the Nebraska-Oklahoma game but this cannot be affirmed. The report is not a true one as it is believed that Purple have said nothing as to whether he brought information of value or not.

CROSS COUNTRY TRY-OUTS

OUT THIS MORNING

Twenty-five men will leave the area at 10 o'clock this morning in the first preliminary attempt to pick a team which will represent the University this fall and spring. The men most likely to place are Shell, Heiser, and Wencil, but they will be hard pressed so there is a wealth of new material that may spring some surprises.

(Tune—If I’d kneed the "L. out of Kelly"
They aren’t still yellow to us,
Get it double L. as an L single.
In all just the same to the bunch from Cornell.
If we don’t take the "Grin" out of Grinnell
What will all other teams think of us?
But we’re not going to try to be
Out of Iowa."

Miss Robinson tells Y. C. A. girls of deprivation of conditions of women.

Some amazing facts were presented concerning the poverty and squalor among the people of India by Miss Flora L. Robinson of Lockport, Illinois, in her lecture before the Y. C. A. Thursday.

"The female inhabitants of India occupy a position that is deplorable," she said. "They are held, for no reason whatever, in ignorance. Education is exorbitantly not meant for women and the servant only in a household should upon whom such restrictions are placed, when a situation sets itself up in the public eye.

Upon a rough estimate, it was pointed out, of 5,650 girls born each year, only 400 live to the age of twenty-five years who have no fiction or illusion. Of this only 17 are literate and as a rule, are domestics.

Miss Robinson appealed to the American girls to help her, should they find the subject at all interesting.

"Only Christian ideals and morals can bring peace and happiness to those unfortunate and miserable girls of India," she concluded.
