SPEAKERS TO APPEAR AT VESPER SUNDAY AFTERNOON

THE HUMAN QUEST

IN SEARCH OF THE THOUGHTLESS

BY REY. MELISH

Former Cincinnati University Chaplin opposed to the Prohibition Movement of H.R. Pomeroy.

The Reverend John Howell Mel­­ish, D. D., rector of the Holy Trinity Church, will speak at the vesper services next Sunday at 4 o'clock in the natural science auditorium. His teachings have been recognized as a notable contribution to the study of the social side of religion. Mr. Melish was a Valedictorian of the University of Cincinnati for five years previous to his going to Broad­­way Church, Cincinnati. In this position he has become thoroughly acquainted with student life. There is no question and much sought for speaker.

The reason that we were able to secure the services of O. T. Thoms, as the geology department and the department of sociology are in charge of the departments, was the fact that he is an excellent and richly endowed speaker. Mr. Thoms will be quoted in the Chicago Sunday Chronicle.

Dr. Petersen reports that invitations have been sent in previously and that arrangements are now in order for a number of others to attend the mass meeting in Chicago Saturday.

COMMERCIAL CLUB SECRETARIES ARE MEETING AT IOWA

SEMINAL ANNUAL CONVENTION, MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY

President J. E. Demerson, in the absence of the president, made the call of the meeting. The Roll of the Club for the past year was read. Members in arrear were reported by the Secretary. The treasurer reported the financial condition of the Club.

The combined annual sessions of the commercial club secretaries will be held in Iowa City on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Mr. E. H. Kinship of the extension department of the State University in the presence of the secretary, presented the resolution of the Commercial Club. Mr. H. B. Sutherland is named as the successor of the late Mr. J. P. Stewart.

AN INDEPENDENT THINKER

Dr. E. D. Bryant of the University of Iowa, a member of the Board of Education, a member of the faculty of the University, is to become a permanent feature at the University of Iowa this year.

Dr. Bryant is in the process of writing a book on the nature of the human mind and its relation to the social conditions of today. His work will be published in the near future.

The weekly meeting of the Club will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

SECOND MASS MEETING TODAY FOR THE PURDUE GAME

amongst the study of modern society.

"The noblest modern Statesman, Prime Minister of Great Britain, has described the idea that the State has a right to enforce its vengeance on a criminal;

in instances of the old theory that the man must be punished, 'as one for an other,' has now the core new the theory

that the State, through the separation of anti-social moral, and that enforcement ever must be used

that will help in the reform of the criminal. Not vengeance on,

but transformation of the offender

is the modern principle, too
