COLLEGE IS PLACE TO LEARN BUSINESS

Thaw Thinks Dr. Brisco Who Has Just Published Article On Economic Education.

"The school and colleges are the logical phases for business training," states Dr. Nara A. Brisco in "Commencement in the College Curriculum," an article printed in the last efficiency Society Journal. "For the preparation of broad-minded men with keen powers of analysis, there is needed a more thorough and comprehensive training than can be given by the business colleges. The demand is for that training which will prepare young men to rise above the crowd."

Such training, according to Dr. Brisco, is not to be found in the business colleges which grade out men and women with rapidity to be mere machines in the performance of clerical work.

"I do not favor the offering of two-year college courses in business," Dr. Brisco concludes. "The time has come when it is necessary to have four years training to prepare for a business vocation. I do not favor the lowering of standards set for training."

The standards should be set high, if not higher, than that for the colleges of liberal arts. If we are to train young men to enter business, it is our duty to train them properly so that they will be able to do their work efficiently."

WOMEN'S SPORTING WEEK

In February 1913 the athletic committee of the University of Wisconsin will hold the second Women's Sports Meet ever held at Iowa for women who will take place. The contests will be Intercollegiate affair. There will be no speed swimming, anambling under water, stunts for distance, blind and fancy diving. Many other universities have those contests and establish records which they keep from year to year. There are none of these contests in Wisconsin and there is no reason why we should not set records and establish new ones in our college. We have one of the best of swimming pools, and those interested in the meet should be practicing now.

MRS. MCCOWELL TO BE GUEST

Miss Mary McCowell of the University of Chicago athletic council, who is to be the speaker at the University Woman's Student League, will be the guest of the University club on Sat-day evening at 8 o'clock at an informal "Kololy." Miss McCowell has promised to speak informally to the members of the club.

The weekly regular meeting will be held again this afternoon at 2:30 in the parcel at Close hall. Any girl who wishes to learn how to knit or any one wanting to begin Tuesday afternoon should be present.

Complete transilation of the Iowa eleven as the following report conclusively proves:

1917 — Iowa 15 Northwestern 0
1919 — Iowa 5 Northwestern 1
1916 — Iowa 4 Northwestern 2
1913 — Iowa 19 Northwestern 1
1914 — Iowa 27 Northwestern 0
1915 — Iowa 9 Northwestern 0
1916 — Iowa 15 Northwestern 1
1917 — Iowa 5 Northwestern 0.

If there is one thing more than any other which raises the spirits of the Yahoo in the first attack of the hardline games of the season, it was the knowledge that the band was to accompany them to Evanston. How quick strikes the alumni before an impending struggle is not exactly tangible. It possesses the same effect on the martial strains to the soldier. It inspires him, enflames his heart and muscles to abnormal powers, and it can truly be said, that if Iowa players.
