The Knights of Columbus Are Asking Money for Their War Relief Work

This work is identically the same as that done by the Army Y. M. C. A. at home and abroad. Of its absolute necessity there is not the slightest question. Many of you have donated to the Y. M. C. A. Give something to the Knights of Columbus also. The work of neither organization is sectarian in any sense. If you have not donated anything to war relief work as yet, do so now.

IOWA WOMEN HELP IN WINNING WAR

"How Much Can I Give?" Is Big Question Today Among Many War Funds.

Holding one-half of the campaign's funds for the Y. M. C. A. and sub-Scripts of the Liberty Loan by women of the University have been turned in this week. Yesterday morning the Sigma Alpha Society Kant's Miss Guri, and the Chi Omicron society on the women's part in the campaign. The question was not one of "Shall I give?" but entirely one of "How much can I give?"

Besides the personal subscriptions on the Y. M. C. A. fund, several organizations have found novel ways of earning additional money. Selling souvenirs to the members during the month. Besides making, not only the nine months of the new semester, but every day of the month. Besides making more souvenirs for "The Red Cross" the Alpha Xi Delta society yesterday secured a percentage of the admission to the Gamma chapter. The girls took tickets, acted as usher, and performed the duty of music. The other societies will do likewise in the coming week.

In the Liberty Loan the girls like the house and Chemistry also have set aside certain nights each week for the knitting of socks, sweaters, hats, and other items for the Red Cross. In fact "publishing," "marketing," and "making" of war stock in items to facilitate conversing.

Food conservation has also been urged by the women of the University. In some cases they have become a criminal offense to put two spoons of sugar in one's coffee, and the woman who does not follow those instructions is said to be the "good customer" of the "clumsy" housewife.

Taking everything into consideration the University girls and women have responded to the calls made upon them and have borne equally the men's part in this War and Iowans.

Berkman, Newt; Margaret Nelson, Irene Crawford of the Y. W. C. A.; Barbara Molluk, Ames.
