Y. M. C. A. to Sell Christmas Cards

Views of University Campus Featured on Cards for Sale Dec. 19 and 21.

New views of the University buildings by a local artist will be sold by the Y. M. C. A. this year instead of the calendars which have been sold in previous years. These views will be printed on postal cards and sold at five cents a place.

"How many people are giving up Christmas this year that cards will probably be used more than ever," said Miss Minerva, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. posterist. "These views," she said, "are different from the regular campus pictures. They are new designs of University buildings and bear a Christmas message beside them."

There will be two kinds of cards, one bearing a picture of the old entrance and the other a view of the natural science building. They will be put on sale December 19 and 21 in the different buildings on the campus.

The local artist's name has not been announced yet.

IOWA MEN RECEIVE COMMISSIONS AT THE FT. SNELLING CAMP

Iowa University is Well Represented at Fort Snelling

Forty-six Commissioned Officers Granted to Former University Men at Port Sailing.

Forty-six University of Iowa men received appointments in the United States Army was announced Saturday from Port Sailing, where the second training school for officers has been in session since the last week in August. Thirty-one received commissions, captain-ferry being commissioned first lieutenant, and five second lieutenant. No one received a ship's warrant, another former University student residing in the state.

Following is a list of University of Iowa appointments:

Our ears are attuned to catch the holy words, the perpetual notes of the grace.

In this autumn's hour, our hearts turn in gratitude to the all-wise and bountiful Founder of the Universe, for through his divine agency our ears are attuned to catch the deeper notes hidden in the world conflict that is now being waged; our visions are illumined to see the opportunity to be helpful everywhere; our steps are hurried to perform errands of mercy; our hearts are made tender and filled with compassion for those who suffer; our spiritual insight is quickened that we may see the holy passions of the hour; and our courage is steeled so that we will falter not, but fight manfully and humbly.

Therefore, deeply conscious of the inspiration and blessings vouchsafed to us, we acknowledge the guiding hand of Him who doth all things well, and in this spirit of deep reverence, and in perpetuation of a beautiful custom which has added significance this year, W. L. Harding, Governor of Iowa, do hereby designate and set apart to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving, and urge that the people assemble on that date in services of prayer and gratitude to the Deity. In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State, at Des Moines, this 16th day of November, 1917.

Thursday, November 29, 1917

WARI DEMANDS PATRIOTIC SPEAKERS

Professor Slatzer Says War Brings

Political and Economic Results.

Professor Donald Slatzer, head of the department of botany, states that there is a continued demand for patriots.

He has received far more invitations, from all over the state, to give patriotic addresses than his time will permit.

People are taking a different attitude toward the war now than they did at the beginning of the war. Parts of the war situation are wanted rather than désirè.

In his recent lecture at Mason City before the St.

phounes the city Professor Slatzer brought out clearly that, while the war is horrible it produces many politically and economically desirable results. Never before in history has such a spirit of sacrifice and unity been shown across the whole nation.

People are more patriotic.

A leveling of society is taking place.

The rich man would substitute to take his place in the trades. The capitalist is coming to the fore, and the individual who has not done enough to support himself is going out.

The war is a purifier and from which a nation derives unity, strength, and political achievement.
