Plans of Civil Self-Defense

Mr. Who Were to Volunteer for Government Work May Chose Draft

A telegram received Friday by Prof. R. J. Lighthart from Dean W. W. Belcher, advising all engineers to await the word of the government for entry when the item concerning civil self-defense, has caused more distraction in the minds of the student civil engineers than any other item entertained by the students, the past week for the purpose of

RIG: SCHOOL AT ENGINEERING SHOP

Course Given For All Interested In Mechanical Repair Work.

Night school has been opened at no charge for the benefit of men who are interested in mechanical repair work. The school is open to students as well as non-registered individuals.

The registration is open to fifteen students. There is room for several more. The instructors are.

Miss Ethel Litch, secretary to the head engineer, and Alice Harmon, to the guests of friends at Capitol Cinema today.

The school was expected to be a great success, but the students are so interested in the work that they are not able to attend.

Enroll now at the Engineering School, 300 W. Water Street, and be prepared for the next class.

AVIATOR TO TALK AT LOCAL THEATRE

Lieutenant Hall, Winner of Many Medals, Will Talk Tuesday on "Fighting for France."

University men will have opportunity to hear the well-known aviator, Lt. Bert Hall, member of the Lafayette Committee, who is to speak on "Fighting for France" at the Masonic Theatre Tuesday night.

Lieutenant Hall has fought on all of the major fronts of the great war and has the commendations in the credit. He wears the military decorations of four of the allied powers.

Among these medals is the coveted Distinguished Service Medal of France. This is the highest military decoration of the French government and was bestowed by the head of the American force by Marshal Joffre. Other medals were by the fighting air man: the Croix de Guerre and the Cross of the Legion of Honour, of France, the British distinguished service medal, the Cross of St. George, and Cross of St. Stephen and the Russian decorations. The Cross of St. George is the highest military decoration of Russia and was the last one granted by Czar Nicholas he has been dear to us in friendship.

Lieutenant Hall has hoped to serve in country, but air has been limited to a berth in the American flying corps on account of his various wounds. He will return to France when the present leave of absence expires.

At the close of his address Lieut. Hall requests the audience to ask any questions regarding the war. He is remarkably well posted on all phases of the conflict as he has fought both in the infantry and in the air and has seen service in all fronts.

Irene Barrett of Logan, who attended school here last year, and who is teaching at Cambridge, is spending the week end here.

WILL SING IOWA SONG AT MASS MEETING

song from a large field, has written a University official to learn how their chorus has been received. The answer to their query will be withheld until this meeting has been held.

"Where the song has been sung frequently, there is a genuine liking for it," said a University music critic yesterday. "It is a little difficult to master at the first singing, but the ending of it makes you long when you hear it several times. I predict that it will be very successful in the end. This plan of holding annual meeting is very wise, I believe."

W. E. Keister of Cono's Rapids center I. A. will report this evening at army headquarters, Des Moines, where he has been accepted in the aviation department. He will be sent to Port Logan, Montana.
