Iowa Boosts Sports By Getting in Touch With Athletic Experience

MISTAKE INEXCUSABLE

Some very unfortunate criticism was hurled at Dr. Jessup, president of the University of Iowa, Monday when he said that the war will lift the lid on military training in the colleges.

The Delphic's account of the speech shows that such a conclusion was based on Doctor Jessup's fallacy, that because there is military training being used in the case of the German public, with which American correspondents are not mentioned in any connection.

UNIVERSITY MEN GIVEN BREAK

Poor short courses for business men will be given for the extension division this year. There are five of such courses at Charles City, Independence, Belle Plaine, and New Hampton.

The courses will be presented at six o'clock, which has been under the auspices of the commercial clubs of the different towns, and will last from six to nine o'clock. In the University Building, the courses were given the athletic board a brief but syste- matic report of the entire year's work, and the board was not disturbed by the refusal to request the formation of a new athletic team.

Dr. Alvarez declared that unless America takes note of these conditions essential to successful commerce with South America, Germany will after the war soon regain her hold on the trade of Latin America.

This morning at 10:40 o'clock, Dr. Alvarez will speak in room 295, Hall of Liberal Arts, on "The Necessity of Americanizing the Political and Social Sciences, and the Necessity of Establishing the Anglo-American and Latin American Schools of International Law and of Creating a Pan-American School.

(Verse: Sweet and Low)

Sweet, sweet, balmy breeze

Light and peace, light and peace

Lie on the hills by the river;

Plays on the bosom of the bower;

Out to the west, in golden flames,

Singers the sun on his way to the sea.

Pastoral birds in a queue

Sing so merrily, answer cheerily, sing.

Peace and rest, peace and rest

Over the landscape is falling; asleep, sleep, drowsy priest;

Birds to their nests has been calling;

Still o'er the water, caresses for their nest.

Lovers are resting so happily and bliss;

Standing a song in their darling, lying on merrily, answer cheerily, sing.

Light and bright, light and bright;

Luminous rays are glowing, bright, bright, shining light.

From the Old Capital streaming;

While all the campus rosps of sleep;

Pastoral then watches from yonder old height,

Leaving the rest to their dreaming,

While so merrily, all so pleasantly sleep.
