Students have said that in order to save a certain amount of money, it is good to be derived from such work, and you know that if you were to be just a little bit more systematic and earn some money, you would not need to buy that extra pair of shoes or that extra dress. It is not necessary to spend more money than you can afford, but it is important to be aware of your spending habits and to budget your money wisely.

To the Editor:

There has been much discussion of the old method of "cramping" in high school and college. Many students have complained about the pressure to perform well in exams and to achieve high grades. However, it is important to note that "cramping" is not the only effective way to prepare for exams. There are other strategies that can be employed to improve study habits and performance.

YOU CAN'T KEEP UP WITH the University unless you read THE DAILY IOWAN. The Iowaon reporters tell you about all that is going on. No one person can get all the news.

YOU OUGHT to have your own copy every morning. Then after you read it, send it to your friend in the army—or still better, do the job up right and subscribe for an extra copy for him.

It's Easy and cheap to subscribe for the rest of the year. The second semester costs only half the full year, and from now to the end of this semester free. You cannot spend money more profitably than to subscribe for the Daily Iowan.

FOR ONLY $1.50

What Others Think

The Daily Iowan will gladly pay you $1.50 for your Daily Iowan subscription in a new subscription. To do this, send to us the coupon below with the coupon here. If you have any questions, please contact us. We will print if the order is designated.

LITTLE HAWKS LOSE HARD GAME

Parlor City Quartzite Defeats Locals by a Close Score; Kloos and Stinson Star.

As was anticipated, the Cedar Rapids local was one of the most exciting and interesting basketball contests ever witnessed on the Con Colam floor, Iowa City high being beaten by their old rival, Cedar Rapids, by the narrow margin of four points, 12 to 15 last Saturday evening.

Both Teams Excellent. It has been rumored in sporting circles that both the Little Hawks and the Tigers wore the "claws" of this section. It only remained for the two favorites to clash to prove this statement. The more war, "claws" does not describe the ability of both teams. In the recent contest, Stinson, Kloos and Durrant played a stellar game for the locals, while Harvick and Taib starred for the Parc City.

A Close Contest. To say that either team deserved the victory would be impossible, or nearly matched were the quintets. Both teams practically alternated in the scoring. As quickly as Iowa

City was crested with a basket, Cedar Rapids followed with another, and thus the see-saw scoring progressed. A couple of more minutes of play before the termination of the game might have given the Hawks the most-decisive victory. The first half ended 10 to 9 in favor of the Tigers.

ANNOUNCEMENT LEADER

Captain Wright has announced lectures to be given to all cadets Thursday, Jan. 21, at the normal science auditorium by Prof. Elsworthy Paris on "The Psychology of War and Kindred Subjects."

He has also announced a written submission which will be given Wednesday morning by one of the cadets.

LETTERS FROM OUR SOLDIERS

The Daily Iowan will welcome all our boys' war correspondence that it can obtain. If our readers who are in some branch of service, we ask you to write to us so our readers on the campus, we ask you in turn to write us so letters or parts of letters may be published.

Dec. 16, 1917

Dear Hall:

Some time ago I wrote to Jack English asking him if he would put me on the Daily Iowan subscription list and also send me a file of all the old Iowans for this year or as many as were obtainable. For fear that my letter may never reach Jack I am writing this letter to you to ask whether or not you will be so kind as to inquire of Honor if he has received my letter and if he has not to do so mentioned things for me.

If you will send me the amount of whatever charges are attached to the same I will immediately forward the same.

I take the Iowan with its news very much every hour and often wonder just how the people are receiving the paper with the paper and also with the Old Iowan.

If you have time a line telling me just how things are going with your outfit would be greatly appreciated.

Thanking you for the favor I am

Sincerely yours.

Conducted by Professor Horn

Employed Iowa Graduates

Miss Dorothy A. Dondore, instructor in mathematics at the Scarborough Experimental School, leaves the beginning of the second quarter, to teach in Scarborough on Madison,

New York, where she will teach English to Dr. Ernest Horn's experimental school. Miss Dondore's special field will be English composition.

She will also have charge of the library. In addition to this work Miss Dondore will go to Columbia University.

Miss Beryl Hart, formerly instructor in English at the University, who has been taking graduate work at Bryn Mawr, will return to take the place left vacant by Miss Dondore.

Florence McVicker, who took her B. A. degree at the University last year, is now teaching English at the Scarborough school. In addition she has charge of dramatics and literature in order to build up a community drama.

Frank Satter, another University graduate, is instructor in Industrial arts at the same school.

The Scarborough school, of which Professor Horn, principal of the University elementary school, is the director, was founded in 1913 by Dr. and Mrs. Frank A. Vanderbilt.

The school is in all children's hands. The neighborhood, the heirs of insti-

CAPTAIN WEIGHT HEARS FROM FmrER STUDENTS

Captain Wright has received letters from the officers' training camp at Camp Ridge from Paul Lackum, formerly cadet colonel, Paul deuchar, cadet captain, L. F. Roberts, cadet lieutenant, and H. E. Winter, cadet lieutenant. The letters are all enthusiastic in their praise of the camp and camp life, and express well satisfied men.

Vernon Mayers has also written to Captain Wright from Austin, Texas where he is attending an aviation school. He tells of the system of co-ed training.

TEMPERANCE CONTEST IN APRIL

The annual temperance oratorical contest will be held April 23. Orations must be on some phase of the temperance question, and limited to 1000 words. No cash prizes will be given, but medals are to be awarded by the temperance board of the Presbyterian church. All students in the University, both men and women, are eligible to the contest.

"SUR" WARFARE ON THE CAMPUS

Have You Done Your Bit in Making The Massachusetts E. Bowman?

Yesterday afternoon the carry-on ship UBALMACHBER made its appearance on the campus, to the great excitement of the student body, last night it was still evincing the spirit of the outfit in cozy Jones' Locker.

All of which is to say that the Hawkins' subscription campaign is in full blast, and that orders are coming in by the score. Work on the book is progressing rapidly, and the military section has just been enhanced by the addition of some real overseas photographs. Fast wait until the "Shrap-net" begins, YOU are pretty sure to be hit by at least one splinter, and the future staff has placed a crash for helped to wear when the counter-attack begins.

The freshman Hodads have made a wonderful response to the subscription campaign, according to loyal Higher managers. Of the 124 in this class, 68 already ordered books, and who knows what the other three will succumb in the like spirit of "Faction"?

Are you wasting your "service tag"? It's the only sure way to make the HAWKESYD campaign, because every building is going to be picked this week. There's only one good consolation—I HAVE BOUGHT A HAWKESYD.

Brown received a blow in the head in the last few minutes of play which necessitated his removal from the contest. He sufficiently recuperated to enter the first at Madison on Monday, however.

The Badgers secured a big lead in the first few minutes of play at Madison, Monday, which they maintained throughout the game regardless of the comeback which the Badgers were rumoured and represent well satisfied men.
