DIK. KING TO DISCUSS "COLLEGE PERIOD"
The Philosophical club will be entertained by Dr. and Mrs. H. J. King on the last evening of the semester, January 29 at 8 o'clock. Dr. King will present a paper on "The Magnitude and Role of the University in Adolescence."

Professor King has recently completed an investigation of changes during the period of adolescence using as subjects 400 persons mostly university students. An open discussion will follow the talk. All students are asked to be present.

WEARING ENTERS AVIATION SERVICE

Kinesiologist Professor Will Leave at End of This Semester.

H. H. Whiling, associate professor of the engineering college will leave the University at the end of the semester. He will go to a training camp for aviation. His work there, however, will be of a descriptive and instructive aviation and experimental equipment. The work will take him to France almost immediately.

Now man has not been appointed to take Professor Whiling’s place and will not be at least for this semester. His class is in its early stages of instruction and transportation will now be taken over by the next class. The class is in courses in aviation scheduled for 9 in the morning will be given at 2. In 2 years will be made in his class in principles of economics.

We have been with us but a short time his work has been of much importance in that he will be missed by both student and faculty members. He was called here this year from the University of North Dakota.

PARKER SPEAKS AGAIN
Professor Parker will give the next lecture in the "Strange View of Robert Browning" series Monday morning at 9:30 in the Park classroom. The subject will be "Sacrifice and Slavery." The Douglas Athletic conference houses at green room for the discussion of morning topics. Visitors are welcome to the discussion.

OUR INVITATION

Can you write a clear and concise style of English?
Do you want to receive instructions?
Are you the faculty of disbelief in journalism?
Are you willing to receive instruction in journalism?
Is it necessary that you be a great newspaperman?
Do you desire to enter or to learn something of one of the most fascinating of all types of work—journalism?
If you can answer these four interrogations in the affirmative, your services are wanted on The Daily Iowan.

Work on The Daily Iowan yields regular credit in English and is a part of the University's training in journalism. The writing, ordinary reports, and assignment for your English class, may be supplemented by lectures on newspaper profession.

The Daily Iowan is a weekly paper, published in a wide latitude.

Perhaps it is a nattah motive which makes this paper commend these courses to students who are in a position to enter the work the second semester. There is already assurance that the staff will be considered augmented with the registration next week, but the sky is the limit as regards the size of our staff. News is a plentiful and per-

Do not be afraid to make your reports and copy enter our every credit they get. There is nothing of the "pulp tea" element in their efforts on this paper. The leader is discovered early in his journalistic life, and he who has the spirit of the paper...

NO INCOME TAX ON PROF'S SALARIES

Informant at Court House Says Faculty Don't Have to Report to Him.

Professors and other persons employed on the University faculty will owe thirteen (13) cents worth each of tobacco to the income tax law. The parents who receive such salaries are not required to report, unless they have additional income from enterprises other than the one mentioned. Faculty members who own gold medals and trophies will take notice of this provision.

Unmarried students with an annual income of over $1,000, and who report there are not a multitude of these. They have their report made. In the hands of the income tax collector's office in Dubuque by March 1.

All of this information was handed out yesterday by W. A. Feeley, who is the Johnson county court house collecting the intricacies of the new law to the citizens of this community. He reports that many University faculty men have called on him and he wishes to forestall further useless visits by explaining the operation of the law.

Louise Peak of Waterloo is a guest of Corinne Hawley at the Alph Chi Omegas house. Helen and Gladis (Moorehead) Alph, Delta PT, have gone to West Liberty for the week end. Mrs. W. Manfield of Clinton is the guest of her daughter Mildred, Delta Gamma. Norna Allison and Alma Forbes of the Alpha Chi Omegas house are spending the week end in Grinnel. Mrs. J. N. Carter of Cedar Rapids is visiting her niece Phoebe Satter at the Delta Gamma house.
