TO DELIVER NEW DENTAL BUILDING FEBRUARY 22ND

Representatives to be Present
From Many Colleges and Societies.

SATURDAY WILL BE GIVEN OVER TO DENTAL CLINICS—WILL RECEIVE SERVICE FLAG.

NOTICE

All students who have made applications for teaching positions are advised that the following changes have been made in the personnel of the department of English, and are to be adopted in their present form or in the near future.

The movement for this building was begun last spring when a sub-committee was formed under the direction of the faculty, and among the members of the students by the faculty. The committee has been working hard for the last five years, and has given the satisfaction of a sufficient number of candidates the selection of the students. The judge and the impressive speeches have been made by the students, and the administration of the building is in charge of the students. The investigation to which these items have been referred is being made in the spirit of the state of the state in that action.
HE WOULD WILL LECTURE HERE SOON

Noted Author to Speak Feb. 20, 21, 22 Under Auspices of Y. M. C. A.

Henry Ward, noted author and lecture, professor of sociology in Boston University, has been obtained for three addresses here, February 20th, 21st, 22nd, by the Y. M. C. A. "I know Ward, and he has a message that grips thinking youth and women as no other speaker I know." Recently, the owner of the local Y. M. C. A. said, "Ward is not a reason, nor what I would call a thrilling speaker, and he will not appeal to men and women who are not interested in making their lives count for something.

For instance, here is a remnant he made at the Northfield Conference, "If college boys and girls will be forced to work in the line to the laborer, Ward is a house speaker, passionately pouring forth his message and constantly impressing his learners with the fact that he would give his life for the cause he espouses." Professor Ward has become a national figure by his books and public labors. It is fortunate that Iowa is able to obtain him at this time.

Fil Kappa Pol will give a dance at the chapter house Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dagla Schieber and Mr. and Mrs. Ian McCallister will chaperon.
