Wrestling fans will get their first opportunity to see the Iowa wrestling squad in action Monday night, when the Indiana team comes here for a dual meet. The meet will not be dole one of the most interesting that has been held here in recent years. Indiana has an established reputation for competition, and this year’s squad is said to be no exception. Indiana has had dual meets before here, and this one will be in a set for so this year, so no actual bouts for comparison exists. Recently won the Kansas City meet this year is stronger than last year’s squad, which finished fourth in the openers, and declare that Iowa can even come through with the Wildcats.

WELLER GIVES ART LECTURE TUESDAY

Will Speak on "Jomas Leu and His Time" at Opening of Fine Arts Exhibits.

Prof. C. H. Weller will give a gallery talk on "Jomas Leu and His Time" the evening of Tuesday, March 5, in the Commercial club room. This is the opening night of the 8th annual exhibition of oil paintings by the Iowa City Fine Arts association. The talk was originally scheduled for March 6, but has been advanced to the opening night in order to give visitors a basis for judging the pictures as early as possible. Professor Weller is in the University library on art and the history of art and has made a special study of modern American artists. His talk will be of great value in a proper appreciation of the pictures.

The gallery talks which are to be given this year during the progress of the exhibit are especially important because of the fact that the printed program is so very simple. No elaborate descriptions and out of place will be included. The display is a Red Cross benefit and the expenses are being taken care of. The other gallery talks in the series are by Prof. S. D. Harberk and Prof. Elsworth Parks. Professor Starbuck will give an informal talk on the paintings and Professor Parks will talk on "The Dignities of Fine Arts."

The thirty-seven paintings of Jomas Leu which are to make up the exhibit will come from Des Moines today or tomorrow. They will be unpacked March 2 and 3, and hung in the gallery. A reception and a dance at the Moline hotel on March 2nd. The gallery talks will be given early in the week.

MEN NOT SEEKING PLACES

Registration cards show that an average of one man in fifteen women have registered for positions this coming year. The department of education is finding it especially difficult to meet the demand for men teachers. Positions for which men are particularly preferred are the Cotter-Hopkins and small superintendencies, and because the younger men or of draft age have been taken into army service, the department is unable to send out men teachers.

Delta Gamma pledges will entertain the upper classmen of the university with a dance at the Jefferson hotel on Saturday evening. Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Irwin will chaperone. The Apollo club will give a dance at the Barker hotel on Saturday evening. Professor and Mrs. Winkham will chaperone.

THAT THRILLS.

ADMISSION 5c & 10c

A WEEKLY BEVERAGE WITH HOT OR COLD DISHES.

Lobster Squurce Pickles Sausage Caviar Spaghetti Swiss Cheese Oatmeal Barbecue Chile-Corn Cakes

These make up the usual Dutch lunch—but what will you serve to drink?

For years the host and hostess have been asking themselves that same question—what should be one of these party little appetizers or "in-between-time" parties. Now, there is a ready answer——Bevo——the all-year-round soft drink.

Bevo——a beverage

This distinctly new creation in soft drinks is sparkling—sassy—delicious. It is blended with the whiteness of milk and the wholesomeness of hops, and is available in any form you choose. It is just what the diet doctor ordered. It is an old-time "lift the spirit" sure to encounter no prejudices. Bevo—the all-year-round soft drink.

GUARD AGAINST SUBSTITUTES

Have the bottle opened by your operator, the only one authorized to do so. The bottle—label—cork—is your security. If your Bevo is not in bottle and in bottle only——it is a substitute.

BALLOON IN DES MOINES

Prof. B. T. Baldwin, director of the Iowa Child Welfare Station, will address the Des Moines Women's club on Tuesday and Wednesday af- ternoon of this week on the subjects of the normal and delinquent child. On Tuesday morning Dr. Baldwin will give a special lecture at Des Moines college and on Wednesday morning an address to the delegates of the woman's committee of the council of national defense.

DRAMATIC CLUB MEETS.

At a meeting of the Dramatic club Tuesday night, a job was definitely decided upon. It is in the form of the letter "T" on the upper bar of which is the word "university" and on the lower one the word "play- ers," while on the perennial bar is a mask, the sign of the drama. This is the first time that the Drama- tic club has had a job.

Plans were made for the pro- duction of "The Wishing Hour" either the latter part of March or the first of April.

The Hoosiers will probably give way but a letup will come over the meet as they are being worked hard of Harbison, who has been on schedule for the past week, and Winzelman, 175-lb. clas.

The name in the state has a dense claim to the title for every fire has refused defeat, but if Iowa announces the game next Saturday she must be given the advantage over Amell and Simpson. Iowa was defeated early in the season but improved as time went by and has a clear title during the past month. Simpson on the other hand has put one out of the running and the double defeat of Colfax at the hands of the Cyclones eliminates the other proposed con- tender in the title.

MANAGER OF POLLIES

HAS HIS TROUBLES

Star Actors Find That Feminine Grooves Are Hard to Acquire But They Have Hopes.

"It's no soft job to make a man act like a woman," said J. L. Moll, manager of the "Hawkeye Pollies," the leading production which is to take place March 19. "You should see Joe O'Donnell, Ray Justin, and Shirley Fager taking the parts of Women whenever they have to act.

According to manager Moll the would-be feminine trio is about as handy with dresses and powder puff as the proverbial cub bear. However, they are being worked hard and five rehearsals a week from now until the time of the show, they will no doubt develop into three of the most graceful young ladies that ever walked the stage.

From all indications the 'Pollies' will be a continuous round of songs and laughter from the time Joe Car- son steps from the interurban. In the first scene until the curtain falls after the home-coming ball in the "Jell." More than twenty song num- bers have been written by Mr. Moll, and the plot, staging, and in fact the whole production show marked pro- duction that is bound to "pay sericsp.
