TICKET SALE EXPECTATIONS

Presidents and Mr. Evans, Class of 1920, and Miss Margaret Jones, Class of 1921.

The girls who are so inattentive as to wear flowers at the junior prom held at the armory Friday evening, March 18, is certainly going to be frowned on, a member of the junior prom committee declared yesterday.

"I can't understand how any girl can be so inconsiderate as to wear flowers in public," she said, "to make this one of the least attractive proms ever held in the history of junior proms, but it's going to be a wearing party and flowers are absolutely banned."

The rapid sale of tickets has been a source of great concern to the committee and they believe the maximum limit of 1500 will be reached within a short time. The tickets have been in the hands of the members of the committee so far and they will perhaps be placed on sale at Whistler's and other places because of the speed with which the desired number is being approached.

The decorations and programs will be of Japanese design. The latter will be an adaptation of Japanese design. The persons in charge of the decoration committee are planning to make the decorations as par with other years by making new ones as they are needed, thus eliminating the expense of hiring laborers to do the decoration.

The Schubert orchestra of Wash-ington, well known in midwestern Iowa, has been engaged to furnish the music. The musical organization which has the best programs of the newest pieces of any orchestras in the state is the Schubert orchestra.

The list of choruses as given by the committee yesterday is as follows: Miss Jane Jessica, Miss Joseph, H. B. Evans, Miss Evans, Miss Helen Jones.

All profits from the function, and it is anticipated that there will be a sum little less, will be turned over by the committee to the Red Cross. Persons who have not already pur- chased tickets are advised by the committee to come early and see the number of persons as possible for the maximum limit is likely to be reached within the week.

The committee as made up as follows: Everett Raymond, chairman, George Boulton, Wilfred Armstron. James M. Hamilton, Harold Thor- scott, Clifton Cooper (now in service), Herbert Brown, Guy Nelson, Charles Nelson, and Miss Helen Jones.

GIRLS SEND AFTERNOONS

WORKING FOR RED CROSS

Some girls, reported for Red Cross work at the home economics department, last Friday. Last week proved a surprising thing in the number of girls and number of dollars that the girls were able to sell for their friends in the Red Cross, and eight inches is all the money that they were able to sell for the last eight hours of the day.

The home economics department reports that the money has been taken charge and the girls are busy planning the work for the next day.

BRINGING IT HOME

The daily papers of Sunday carry articles and editorials, some which included among the dead the name of Donald H. Macrae.

It is of course too early yet to know the final outcome of the cause of Private Fred B. Sotier.
It seems that nearly all this morning the world has turned farmer
since the declaration of war.

The question has been asked about the identity of the Ronald H.
Macrae. It is known that several viewed sorority sisters of Mrs.
Macrae, who is in training, are related to Mrs. Donald H. Macrae.

Fred S. Don Mcrae has fallen or is believed to be missing. Any person having any information concerning the whereabouts of Donald H. Macrae should send it immediately.

Hawkeyes defeat Indiana but lose game with Purdue

Game With Indiana was hard fought contest—Final Score 13 to 11.

Purdue shows great improvement

Final Defeat Places Iowa at Ninth Place in the Big Ten Conference

Iowa's basketball five closed its season with the games at Indiana and Purdue last Friday and Saturday. Although the Hawkeyes were victorious in the first game, they were forced to take defeat the following night at the hands of Purdue.

The victory at Indiana was only after the hard fought kind of a fight. From the start of the game until the final whistle, the ball shifted from one end of the floor to the other, both teams showing good teamwork and clever guarding. The basket shooting was not so good as it usually seen in a conference game, but most of them were made from open spaces.

Five minutes after play had started, Indiana scored a field goal, and a minute later Cotton scored for Iowa with a free throw, an intersetion pass gave Indiana their second basket. A goal by Cotton, just before the close of the half, enabled the scoring for this period.

The second half began with Iowa showing a much improved quintet. Shots were scarce, but not quite so scarce as during the first half. Cotton, Ber and Brown all scored in turn, and cotton, not to be kept out of the scoring column, made good his one attempt at free throwing, making the score 19 to 4.

At this point, Indiana made two substitutions in order to stem the tide of defeat. Three bad passes by the Iowa team were intercepted, and goal resulted from each one, the last one putting the Hoosiers ahead in the lead 11 to 19, with five minutes left in the play.

With the next touch-up, the Iowa team showed new life, and Olson succeeded in making an easy goal. A free throw by Cotton ended the scoring, and with that Iowa was in the lead 11 to 15 in Iowa's favor.

The terrible pass of the Indiana man told on the Light Hawkeyes, and they succumbed to the attack of the Purdue five after a gallant struggle. Purdue showed a greatly improved quintet, and scored almost all during the first half. Their team work was superb, and their shooting accurate, while the Iowa team missed many chances to score through bad passes and inaccurate shooting. During this period, Markley and Willson, the Purdue forwards, each scored five baskets. Time was called with the Hawkeye leading 7.

Iowa swept the Purdue five off its feet for the first ten minutes of the second half, and scored 14 points to their opponents 4. Clever teamwork and drifting passed, the way for many near shots, and when guarded closely, the man would drop one in from the center of the floor. Ber, Cotton, Brown and Olson each scored two baskets from the field during this period, and two free throws brought the Iowa score up to 21, as against Purdue 22.

From this point on, Purdue gradually increased her lead. The Iowa five, tired from their game of the night before, could not stand the stiff pace set by the Hawkeyes, and had to submit to defeat, 46 to 32.

CHAMPIONSHIP SATURDAY NIGHT

Ivy and Philomathians will Stage Final Contest for Supremacy.

The final debate to decide the championship of the University will be held next Friday evening in the natural science auditorium at 8 o'clock.

In the preliminary debate, held in February, Bethanists, taking the affirmative of the question, met by Philomathians, taking the negative and was decided by the latter team, Ivy will meet Philomathians next Friday evening in the finals to decide the championship of the University.

The question to be debated is: Is it right to burn the present state of the country if the present state of the country should be burnt by current federalism? It is a fact that is being discussed nations wide at the present time and one in which interest of the students here are most interested.

Both teams have been working hard for several months on this question. Both Ivy and Philomathians face million of words every day, and will back their teams to the utmost. All interest in this debate will be heightened by the fact that it is the annual right for the championship honor.

Winifred Basner, Kaye Danna, is entertaining her brother from Iowa City.
