Achobor sorority announces the track team at Iowa

THE DAILY IOWAN
The Student Newspaper of the State University of Iowa

WHO SHALL IT BE?

To the Editor:
The government has formed a big and admirable machine for supplying harvest hands and farm laborers to the farmers.

One hundred thousand rural route carriers and postmasters and other public officers are to be used in the scheme to deliver farm hands at the door—or where they are to get the most.

Nobody knows what they are.

Why not find the men in the town? There are not enough little men in town and probably you can not find a single good farm worker and have them do the work you are likely to need. The supply will have to be advertised to farmers and some of them, possibly all of them, will find it desirous to go on the farm, but they will have to be landed on the farm with the work. If the farmers are not doing anything superior, it is not likely they regularly advertise for the war.

Your conscientious answer to this letter may show that you could do something for which all fraternities do and that comes for which all fraternities are fitted and keeping them doing their celebration.

The government seems to be crystals for crystallizing among individuals. Praties are a great help in settling men into industries for which they are fitted and hastens and directs something worth while. Practie are so serious-minded to their work and the results in the profit of mankind which a fraternities effect office the base of the purpose for which all fraternities do and should set out.

It is therefore the duty of all men to see that all fraternities and all men will get on the farm.

The older fraternity should at this time give particular attention to the question of having its members interested in and ready to serve the government in the organization of the future in the service of the United States.

Are the older leaders of any fraternity in the answer. Every young man should be glad to read the proposal for which all fraternities are fitted.

THE SEASON'S REVIEW

A large and prosperous season of the Iowa track team at Ames Saturday was beneficial to the student body and the State University. After suffering over, during the last increment of activity which the young man has been added much to the team. It is in the team that the older fraternity should at this time pay particular attention to the question of having its members interested in and ready to serve the government.

In the spring of the year, the German government formed a large and admirable machine for supplying harvest hands and farm laborers to the farmers.

These Dresses are exactly dainty creations, white and delicate colorings for all dress occasions. All sizes very specially priced from $25.00 to $50.00.

The Daily Iowan:

Ever been without a letter from home for a couple of weeks? Do you know how that feels? ALL RIGHT! The fellows at the front don't hear from home for months at a time. So send the Iowan to him the rest of the semester.

The Daily Iowan:

John Lonsdale Returns
John Lonsdale, a student at the liberal arts college in Kalore last year, was visiting at the Delta Tau Delta house for a few days. He is stationed at Allenswa, Pa., in training for ambulance service abroad. He went to the eastern coast with the Iowan unit as the top non-commissioned officer but some time ago he was transferred to another unit and his charges of the organization. He expects to leave for France in two weeks, he stated to an Iowan representative yesterday morning.

Dresses Given Party
The officers of the nurses training school are giving an "All Home" this afternoon from 2:30 to 5 at the Nurses' Home in honor of Miss Ada Dill and Miss Florence Springer, who are leaving for Camp McPherson, Ga., where they will be with the 11th hospital unit. They expect to be sent to France soon.

Mildred Coulter, a student in the university last year, has returned to school in Chicago after spending a few days at the Alpha Xi Delta house. Miss Coulter is taking a secretarial course.

Mrs. Margaret Roper of Sheldon was entertained in her home after a two-week's visit with her son Pimper, Delta Sigma Delta.

IONAN WOSM SPORTS MAN
SELECTS ALL-STATE High School Team

Capitaine Given to Green of Mt. Pleasant and Other Forward Goes to Haskell

Dallas Center Giant at Center

Shimene of Iowa City and Taber of Cedar Rapids Placed in the Guard Positions

In selecting our all-state high school basketball team we have the privilege of having the selections made by the sporting editors of Des Moines and other papers. This does not mean, however, that our choice will be a copy of the others, for in one or two places it will differ from others that we have seen.

That one forward and the captain of the original team should be awarded to "Red" Green of Mt. Pleasant is so obvious that no one disputes his claim. And for the other forward position we would choose his running mate, Haskell, the man who won the championship for Mt. Pleasant Saturday night with four spectacular baskets. He figured in almost every play by Mt. Pleasant and it is doubtful if any other man could have found a place in the entire field who would work so satisfactorily with Green.

Denton at Center

In naming Iowa's has a powerful little offensive man and if he playing has been up to par Saturday night, we should probably give him the berth. In this game, the main game in which a good opportunity for competing with Haskell was presented, Haskell proved himself to be clearly the better player.

For the center position we must send our congratulations to Marshall of the Dallas Center, Jensen of Cedar Rapids and Briggs of Iowa City, and we have given the position to Dallas, the Dallas center, but not so much as what he actually did but on what he showed himself capable of doing. If he is given, names of the tailors of Green and Denton and the coaching and training opportunities which some of the others enjoy, he unquestionably would be one of the best centers in the state. Jensen would be our second choice although Briggs put up a wonderful game.

Shimene of Council.

The guards positions on our team would go to Shimene of Iowa City and Taber of Cedar Rapids. Shimene showed an uncertain ability for holding his man to a low score and at the same time pile up counters for his Iowa team. His position, of course, is leading guard.

Taber, on the other hand, playing with a weaker team played a始终 strong guiding game and was large enough to recognize the victory of Cedar Rapids over Sioux Center in its first game of the tournament. Certainly, the little Indian guard on the Sioux Center team would probably as well any athlete in the contest but his playing was not as steady as several of the other guards.

Here they are from: State and School Position Green (Cap.), Mt. Pleasant, forward Halsach, Mt. Pleasant, forward Denton, Dallas Center, center Shimene, Iowa City guard Taber, Cedar Rapids guard.

NEWCOMAN TO MEET
The Newman club will meet at Chase Hall Wednesday evening and all members are asked to be present. A speech will be given, the subject being, "That College Woman Makes Invaluable House Wife," by James McCarthy and George Murray will take the affirmative and Mary Kinnear and John Novis will take the negative side of the question.

Mr. William J. Hite, '86, who is president of the club, is visiting at his home in Iowa City.
