JOHNSON URGES MORE PATRIOTICISM

Missoula, Montana (AP) - There's a movement afoot in Missoula to mobilize the loyalty of the people of the University of Montana in a general campaign of loyalty to their country rather than go outside the campus to compete before Saturday.

The recent meeting of faculty and students of the University of Montana, conducted by R. O. Johnston, chairman of the loyalty committee, has resulted in a plan for the week's activities which will be carried out by the students, faculty members, and members of the community.

The loyalty committee has planned a series of meetings and activities to mobilize the loyalty of the people of the University of Montana. The first meeting was held on Monday evening, and the next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday evening.

The loyalty committee has asked for the support of all members of the University community in its efforts to mobilize the loyalty of the people of the University of Montana.

MEN FROM IOWA STATE PREP FORTABLES

ARGONNE, Ill. (AP) - An American field fort called Argonne Argonne will be set up for men from Iowas State Prep Fortable.

The fort will be set up for men from Iowas State Prep Fortable, a private school located in the heart of Chicago. The fort will be used as a temporary base for the men until they can return to their home state.

The fort will be equipped with a kitchen, a dining hall, and a library. The men will be able to use the facilities while they are in Chicago.

IOWA CITY GIRL WEDS RANCHMAN

Miss Bertha Myers Goes West To Take Up Claim and Meets the Man

Not all the romance in the world is done, nor do you have to go to California to find it. Sometimes it really happens.

Here is a story of an Iowa girl, who tired of the simple life as a nurse in the university hospital and longed for the bounding west with her big red heart. She went, took a claim in Montana, married the man who held the claim next to her, subtended the two claims into a single land of that is now known as the Y. ranch, where the happy couple will be at home to their friends after June.

The young lady was Miss Bertha Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
E. B. Myers of Iowa City. She was born and educated here. She stud-ted to be a trained nurse, which position she held for some time working at the university hospital here. She went west in July, and there decided to stake a claim.

On the header claim, site being bought and the acquaintance of the gallant young man in the adjoining claim, was not sprayed.
The friendship went on, the header claim, ripened into something strong and March 14 the wedding took place.

To carry the romance to its fullness, the young woman kept her secret from her parents and other intention of marriage an entire secret from her parents and others.

Miss Bertha E. Sparks, office secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has recently received a letter from Fred.
C. Trowbridge, head of the educational division of the Camp Dodge Y.
M. C. A., in which he asks for at least five copies of "Daughters Armer" for the use of the boys in camp.

"If some of the students here who have this book and are through with it, will bring them here to the Y. M. C.
A.," Miss Sparks said yesterday, "we will be glad to pay for them and send them on to Camp Dodge, or course if the students wish to de-nate them, as much the better. Professor Trowbridge desires these books so sincerely. They must be brought in at once or not at all.

LIFE IS ONE THING AFTER ANOTHER
No sympathy shown to Codders who cause me A few moments later.
I'm all on account of that time in the express Capitol Wright offers for life insurance at the first on the telephone wire yesterday morning. The gullery one really should be from home seeing how he has to work and ready and allowing seven miles to get down in them—and—ah! Did you ever know it? Full many the captain's dignifying didn't make him very sympathetic with "the poor nobles" who had "rile early to greet the dawn." Blarney, too, for maybe you know how light is at 61 A.M. Four of the men danced down, without mudskin and their late命名为, he is seen back up the hill—Mary's forgot their drill suits, whether this was an account of their speed or the bolt of light is at yet unknown. They might have tried mudskinings as adapted to daily life. Also, I kiss two of them didn't notice their clicks ahead as yet for they seemed to be at ten minutes of seven and such is the life of a soldier?
