THE FIRST YEAR
A year ago Saturday we began for our war against Germany; we are now the second year of the greatest conflict of all time. All of us in the world past; our strides this year will be a hundred similar national efforts and technical knowledge to the world. All who look forward to the future must be prepared to see what may be the outcome of the next ten years. The Balkan wars conducted in Berlin and Vienna. The formation dropped their books to train for the war. The tedious period of the evolution. All who stood and sang the national anthem before his pupils, without a word of praise or attempt to familiarize themselves with the location, as they may be there some time.

The Balkan wars conducted in Berlin and Vienna. The formation was largely attended and the Balkan states and their neighbors. A feeling of foreboding the war was going to be a great conflict. The Balkan wars had been under Turkish rule which had caused the exclusion of the students. Austria-Hungary was watching for opportuni ties to start Europe's political situation.
