CONFERENCE FOR HOME SERVICE OF RED CROSS ENDS

Program Is Reorganized To Allow Delegates To Leave Friday Night If Necessary.

EXTENSION DIVISION CONDUCTS IT

Purpose of Conference To Prepare Leaders for Various Chapters Throughout State

The conference on home service in Illinois was held recently, an integral part of the educational division of the University of Illinois, its program was reorganized to enable delegates to leave on Friday night if necessary.

CHICAGO MEN SPEAK

Friday morning's program included a talk by W. B. Davis, director of the bureau of development of the central division of the Red Cross in request to discuss the relation of the state board to the chapter, and questions of finance and of organization. A round table discussion on the same subject was preceded by one hour of formal instruction on public relations for Illinois, who is associate director of the bureau of development of the central division of Chicago.

Dr. Edward F. Davis, who was to speak on "Defensive Preparedness," quite Friday morning instead on "[ILLEGAL]" and "[ILLEGAL]."

Handsome Talk on Health.

J. H. Hamilton, state epidemiologist, pointed out the importance of health in keeping up the morale of the men on the firing line and to keep people at home, in his talk Friday afternoon.

In charge to J. L. Glinn, W. B. Davis, and G. C. Grainger, was held in the evening at the law building. After this, the University women's club held open house for all visiting members in their club rooms over the Book andDrug shop.

ANNA MILLER DOING SEWING WORK

Prof. C. W. Wyman, with a group of about a hundred and fifty students and a number of nonseniors present, is holding a series of weekly women's classes in sewing.

This is a larger number than has ever been known before in the women's work. Allowing for the many who have been absent, the women who have been able to attend have made considerable progress.

In the evening the women were doing work for the government, the clothes having been ordered on a large scale. When ready they will be turned over to the biggest of the many defense organizations.
The Religious Crisis

How is the Great War modifying religion?
What will the religion of the future be?
How shall we prepare for it?

What are the fundamental principles of religions?

Every good citizen must answer these questions

SECOND TRIAL FOR JUNIOR PLAY

Another trial will be given Tuesday evening, in room 14, L. A., to fill a few remaining parts in the junior play. This will give those who were unable to attend the first meeting, an opportunity to try out for parts.

"It Pays to Advertise": the play which has been selected, is a new comedy which has been very successful in the short time it has been out. A copy of the play will be on the reserve desk at the library tomorrow morning. The time of the production will probably be May 14.
