HAWKEYES TO MEET COE IN CLASH ON CINDERS SATURDAY

Darla, Star Quarter-Miler, May Be Absent From Fray on Account of Illness

IOWA WILL BE STRONG IN BASSEES

MacDowell, Justin, Greenwood, and Weller, Expected to Win at Sports

One club party artists will invade Iowa next Saturday afternoon to oppo· nent the Hawkeyes to the Bassees of St. Cloud, Minn. The meet has been held on Iowa field in two years.

The improvement has been noted in the works of the Iowas shown when they were defeated by the Bassees last Saturday. The weather has prevented the rapid improvement that is always to be de· but they are unusually represented by a good array of masts and spars, and miss the attic because the varsity squad has been completing.

Darla is ill.

Darla, one of the best of the quarter-milers and a member of the Iowa team which ran at Drakes last week, is ill at his home with grripps, and there is little chance that he will be able to com·

Peterson. Darla’s absence will probably mean the loss of several points in Iowa’s total.

One of the surprises of the Fresh· man varsity meet last Saturday was the running of Richard Young in the two-mile run. Young has not lost out on track in his time, but he usually prevented the loss of several points in Iowa’s total.

The fourth and final meet of the season was held at the Iowa field on Saturday afternoon. The meet was taken by

McDowell, Justin, Greenwood, Candidates for the Iowa headlines of the day, and more recognition may be attributed to the same cause.

The explanation of all this is that the nre the two sophomores who have quarter- Weller, fake pictures illustrating the process though the frosh found him on sev· and completely

WOMAN'S COUNCIL OF WAR ORGANIZED HERE

Women's League Reorganized To Council to Aid Red Cross and Belgian Relief

The Women's League composed of all University women has been reorganized into the Woman's War Council, an arm of the Belgian Red Cross. This step was taken at the meeting held Thursday of the representatives from the various women's organizations on the campus.

The first big news of the new war council will be to disseminate information concerning civil service on other governmental work for women, to get pledges made from all University women telling what they will do for their country this summer, and to support two French girls in the University next year. A fee of twenty-five cents charged for membership in the War Council will help in this fund. Another organization will pay for the travelling and incidental expenses of the girls until they reach Iowa City, the state will pay tuition and fees, and the Woman's war council will pay the girls' room, rent, and insurance.\n
The War Council will endeavor, also, to interest girls who are not yet in college in the making of clothes for the Belgians. Unless or small crafts for this work will be spread to meet on Saturday of term.\n
A big mass meeting of all University women will be held in the coming week in which details will be told before the women. Every woman in the University is urged to be a member of Woman's War Council.

Mr. V. Aldrich, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A. is in town for the winter.\n
The regular meeting of Kappa Phi was held at the old entrance home on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

A meeting of the Iowa Library association is being held today at Mankato. Miss Roberts, University librarian, went to attend this meeting.

Mr. Kappes will give a party at the Barker Friday evening.

One hall girls had a hard time party in the nearby Sunday. The price for the most fittingly dressed person was awarded to Miss Carrie Ring Irk.

Margaret Whittick, student at the University, has been teaching French at Mildred Tillmond, Delta Delta Delta, at Currier hall.

Loretta Wicks, Alpha Xi Delta, secretary of the University, April 15, who has been teaching English, spent last week in Iowa City. While here she attended the Founders' day banquet of the Alpha Xi Delta.\n Mildred Adams, Bath Bower, and Alice McMillan spent Sunday at their home in West Liberty.

Theresa Brown of Clinton, student here two years ago is visiting friends.

Ralph Cockshott is here from the third officers training camp at Camp Dodge.

Mr. Doubtfult: "I don't see how I can buy any more Liberty Bonds. I bought all I could last fall. I'm not a rich man and I don't think it's fair or just to expect me to do anything more than I have done."\n
Mr. Right: "Let's see—your next-door neighbor's boy enlisted, didn't he?"\n
Mr. Doubtfult: "Yes, he's over in France now. Mighty fine, stalwart boy, that!"\n
Mr. Right: "Exactly, and some day that splendid boy, the pride of his parents' hearts, may go 'over the top' in a gal-lant charge, stop a German bullet, and fall in the mud and debris of No Man's Land. Isn't that asking too much of him, and of his family? Is that 'fair'? Is that 'just'?"\n
Mr. Doubtfult: "Why, it's awful, of course, but it can't be helped. This is war, and men have to be killed in it."\n
Mr. Right: "You've said it—that is war! To win the war it might be neces-sary for the government to take your family from you, and ruin your business. It might be necessary to take your house and turn you out in the street. What of that? Is that as great a sacrifice as your neighbor makes, or stands ready to make, when he gives his boy to his country? You don't think it's your duty to pin and save, and borrow if need be, in order to buy Liberty Bonds, and thus help shorten the period of vic-tory certain, and save the lives of thou-sands of American boys who will other-wise be needlessly sacrificed."\n
Mr. Doubtfult: "I guess that's true, Mr. Right, I have been thoughtless. I'll stop complaining and criticizing, and put up my last dollar if need be, to help win this war."
The Third Liberty Loan is our share in the winning of this war. Upon it depends the safety and success of five hundred thousand American soldiers in France.

The army is doing its part. Five hundred thousand American soldiers are in France today. There will be more tomorrow. And more the day after. We are going to send an army large enough so that when we strike, with our Allies, we can drive the German horde back across the Rhine—so that we can win the decisive VICTORY that will make American freedom safe, and establish a just and lasting peace.

But the whole nation must take part. Our armies in France are looking to us to furnish them in ever greater abundance, the ordnance, the munitions, the supplies that will make their VICTORY possible. We must not fail them.

FEW MEN WILL LEAVE IN DRAFT ON FRIDAY Five students will be obliged to annex their registration in the University April 26, to make up the draft quota to be sent to Camp
Dodge, according to the registrar.
This is due to the fact that approximately one half the students ensert in military service are already in some reserve branch of the army or navy.

If at present impossible to es-cure accurate figures on the number of students who have that the received notice to report to their county board, but an estimate would show the total at not more than ten.
This number may be increased by rejection when the men receive their physical examinations at Camp Dodge.

CHERKIES WRITES FOR ROMANTIC REVIEW
Joseph L. Cherhies, instructor of the Romantic language department, has written an article, called "Ladino Holier and Almanac," which was published in the January-March numer of the Romantic Review maganize.

The article discusses the derivation of the word, "Holier," which originally meant, "to resist or stop a prayer." The word is French, but has been claimed to come from the German word, "milden." Mr.
Cheek shows that this derivation is impossible, because the meaning of the German word, is "mild." He believes that it is probably from the Latin word " pelos." "Almanac," a French verb, meaning "to mine," is also discussed in
Mr. Cheek's article.

Lena George is in Iowa Hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis. Her mother from Des-ear and Pauline Horwalt from West Liberty are visiting her.

GAME NOT PLAYED
Because some of the players on the junior team failed to appear, the third baseball game between the sophomores and junior girls was not played yesterday afternoon as scheduled.

With the aid of two sophomores
in their places, however, the junctions played a practice game with the sophomores. Two touchdowns were scored at each end, and the final score was 9 to 8 in favor of the sophomores.
