OLD CLOTHES FOR REFUGEE WORK IS ASKED OF STUDENTS

Women are Especially Desired—Must be Clean and Durable and Dark Colored

H. HEARD CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE

Red Cross Expects to Open Shop on Washington Street for Refugee Garments

If you have old clothing which you can't use but which is good to sell to the rag man, there is a place where it can be sold to advantage and where it will also be useful. This place is the Red Cross, and the girl or woman who does not wish to sell her clothing can donate it to the cause.

There are three qualifications for clothing that can be sold:

1. It must be clean.
2. It must be durable.
3. It must be dark colored.

Local Chapter Busy Now.

At present the local Red Cross is working on the sale of old clothes while waiting for a shipment of new. The Red Cross paid $1,500 bonus to the United States government for about 40,000 compressions to be used for military purposes.

Professor Schofield, whose visit was announced in the Iowa State Register, is now in the United States doing research work on the making of clothing.

The children from the Polaroid valley to the hospital to attend free of charge. The children's eyesight was improved because the whole world was under correction.

Mr. Evertt says that these are the most successful group of any kind that he has ever had in every matter for the Red Cross in this way.

SENIOR ORATORS TRYOUT MONDAY

Four Have Already Entered Field and Oaths Pronounced

Trials for the selection of the senior orator will be held March afternoon in the natural science building. The contest will be judged by Prof. G. N. Meyers, head of the public speaking department. Each of the competitors will be allowed only five minutes for his talk or selection.

The president stated that this arrangement had been made to provide an exhibit of the best that the college has to offer in the art of oratory.

SENIOR PARTY POSTPONED

The date set for the all-senior party to be given Sunday night has been postponed for at least two weeks.

The announcement of the West Side football game against the Iowa High School was also announced.

KLINEHOFER I ADDRESSES PHILOSOPHICAL CLUB

The last meeting for the year of the philosophical club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Day, North Clinton street last night. A paper entitled, "Internationalism," was read by Mrs. Klinehoffer. The paper gave evidence of extensive research and broad knowledge of history. It was emphatic in tone, and concluded with the thought that the outlook for international understanding and cooperation was bright inasmuch as a large number of the brightest men and women were earnestly engaged in formulating a program of agreement, and unity among nations after the close of the war. The paper was delightfully frank, intensely suggestive, and manifestly fair and clear in statement.

After a brief discussion, Lieutenant Colonel H. E. Everhart, recently returned from Ft. Oglethorpe, gave some interesting experiences that came under his direction as a psychologist. Mrs. Edwin Diller Sturman, and Mrs. Walter Allen gave entertained the company with some musical entertainment.

A large number were present to enjoy the paper as well as the splendid hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Day.

Mr. Right's Answer

Mr. Right: "You've said it—this is war! To win the war it might be necessary for the government to take your factory away from you, and ruin your business. It might be necessary to take your house and turn you out in the street. What of that? Is that so great a sacrifice as your neighbor makes, or stands ready to make, when he gives his boy to his country? Yet you don't think it's your duty to finish and save, and borrow if need be, in order to buy Liberty Bonds, and thus help shorten the war, make victory certain, and save the lives of thousands of American boys who will otherwise be uselessly sacrificed.

Mr. Doubtful: "I guess that's true, Mr. Right; I have been thoughtful, I'll stop complaining and criticizing, and put up my last dollar if need be, to help win this war."

The Third Liberty Loan is our share in the winning of this war. Upon it depends the safety and success of five hundred thousand American soldiers in France.

The army is doing its part. Five hundred thousand American soldiers are in France today. There will be more tomorrow. And more the day after.

But the whole nation must take part. Our armies in France are looking to us to furnish them in ever greater abundance, the ordnance, the munitions, the supplies that will make their VICTORY possible. We must not fail them.
