by the old Iowa athletic rules. If you are in your top form and the team does not have a chance to win, you are expected to go out and compete in this meet. The main purpose of this meeting is to get all the men in every university in the conference to get out into the open air and do some exercise for a change. If the men don't take part then the Iowa men will be defeated. It is up to the men to do their part in this movement.

BEYOND OUR OWN! WOMEN!

Happily not all, but unfortunately many, Iowa girls are operating on the theory that it is their duty to attend athletic contests only when they have an invitation from a man. Indeed, the number of year tickets sold to women here is pitifully small. We are told by athletic authorities.

The students must sell their tickets, preferably through participation in the various branches.

The cost of admission will be 50 cents. The price of the tickets will be in the hands of the dormitory secretaries of the various dormitories.

"Why didn't members of the organization vote for their own cars when they realized they were miserably wrong?" Why did the leaders in certain social votes for themselves before they had time to remove their glasses select or witness any other act? Why did the spectators allow those emotions to be awed by children voices reported for the occasion and the play of patriots at an April Fool's Affair? Why don't the managers of the affair select some judges with a sense of humor and remove the decorations from the hands of some politicians? Why?

The Daily Iowan will carry a special number with a foreword by the President, on the occasion of the Fourth of July.

Of the games played to date, five were won on the northern trip. Milli-
