IOWA LOSES FAST GAME TO SAILORS BY 10-0 SCORE

Heavy Great Lakes Team Meets Up With Stiff Resistance From Jones' Eleven

SLATER IS STAR IN HIS FIRST GAME

Entire Iowa Backfield Plays Star Game—Greenwood Almost Defeats Jackies Single-handed

Iowa's inexperienced but fighting moleskin men fought the husky sailor or eleven to a 10-0 score yesterday on Iowa Field. The visitors proved to be a fast eleven. The lighter Hawkeye squad put up a fight that has rarely been surpassed on Iowa field. Olcott's team was composed of nothing but stars from the universities of the west and eastern schools.

In the last quarter the Iowa team redeemed itself for the fumble made in the first quarter by carrying the ball to the visitor's 8 yard line on a series on long forward passes. Lohman Slater and Reed proved themselves artists in handling them. The entire Iowa team played a very creditable game. Jones' men were on an equal with the visiting team in almost every department, and it is doubted whether any team could have beaten the machine that Coach Olcott presented. Weeks of hard training put the men in tip-top form.

For the Great Lakes team, Eilson Driscoll, McClellan, and Bachman starred. The entire Iowa backfield men showed that their offense was one of the strongest ever presented by an Iowa team. Greenwood and Reed in the line time after time succeeded in breaking up the Lakes' formations. The game by quarters follows.

First Quarter

Eilson of the Sailors kicked to Kelly who returned 10 yards. After three downs Iowa punted and on a series of passes and plunges carried it on a fumble. Here the Jackies lost it on a fumble. Here the Jackies opened up with end runs and passes and worked the ball to the 18 yard line. McClellan made 9 yards around right end, and Mendenhall, the old Iowa man, went through the center for 5 more. McClellan added 3 yards through the center for a touchdown. The Lakes team punted out to the twenty yard line from where Eilson kicked a pretty goal.

Iowa kicked off 20 yards, Lohman recovering Kelly's fumble. Iowa carried the ball a short distance, but lost it on downs. The sailors tried a series of short plunges, but the Hawkeyes were more than their equal and held them for downs. It was Iowa's ball on her own 20 yard line. Lohman punted to the Lakes 40 yard line. Iowa again held the sailors for a down. Scott gained 30 yards around left end on an intercepted pass. The quarter ended with the ball in the Great Lakes team's possession on their own 35 yard line. Score 7-0

Second Quarter

Rich intercepted a forward pass from McClellan gaining 20 yards. Iowa kicked, and the Jackies carried the ball on short smashes to Iowa's 40 yard line. Eilson stepped back in an attempt for a placement goal but failed. Iowa got the ball on her 30 yard line. Slated was called for a foul, and the colored athlete went

AN OPEN LETTER

I advise students and instructors of the University to subscribe for The Daily Iowan. The Iowan is a University publication and in this critical year it not only will contain the news which every member of the University should know, but it will be made the regular medium for official notices.

W. A. JESSUP.

STUDENTS ARE STILL BUSY COMPLETING THEIR REGISTRATION

Regular Work to Begin According to Schedule—Opening Has Not Been Postponed

LINE OFFICERS COURSES OFFERED

Physical Examinations for All University Students Are Required This Year.

Preliminaries of room hunting, physical examinations, and matriculation have kept the freshmen busy for the last few days, and upper classmen have been in some confusion. Within two or three days, however, Iowa will have the situation completely in hand.

"Ask the students to have patience," H. C. Dorcas, registrar, said yesterday afternoon. "On account of the unusual circumstances of the time, the machinery of registration is moving slowly. We are handling students as quickly as we can."

Opens Tuesday

The University will open October 1 as scheduled and classes will begin at once, notwithstanding various rumors to the effect that the date of opening has been postponed.

University authorities refuse to estimate the number of men who will be in the S. A. T. C. It has been predicted, unofficially, that the number is sure to exceed two thousand. Most of these men are electing the line officers' courses which have been recommended by the government. The University has been exceedingly expeditious in the organization of these courses, which have meant virtually the transformation of the University inside a month.

Long lines of men crowded before the hospital yesterday for medical examination preliminary to induction into S. A. T. C. All University women will be required to take a physical examination.

Expect 3000

Some difficulty in securing rooms for the present has been experienced by the men. Barrack room is provided for 3,000 students in the men's and women's gymnasiums, Close hall, the law building, and the hall of engineering, and these buildings would be ready for occupancy now were it not for a delay in the securing of cots and bedding.

Churches have offered their rooms also, and it is possible that the University will make use of them in order to accommodate all the members of the S. A. T. C. The situation at Iowa, however, is not at all serious, although it is rumored that some colleges throughout the state have been compelled to close their doors to students because they cannot accommodate them.

LIBERTY LOAN IS YET BELOW COUNTY QUOTA

"Johnson county is sure to go over the top," was the prediction of Chas. M. Dutcher, chairman of the Fourth Liberty Loan committee for this county, late last night.

With three townships to hear from, the county has subscribed $1,537,000. The quota for the county was $1,828,000. It had been the hope of the committee to go beyond the original quota the first day, and the committee is in hopes that the aim would be realized when final reports are made to headquarters the first of this week.

DELIVERIES

The Daily Iowan cannot be delivered to subscribers who have not paid for their subscription by October 1, 1918. Delivery of papers not already paid for constitutes a violation of a new order of the War Industries board. A large number of persons have ordered papers through solicitors, but have not paid for them. Such persons will receive the paper for Sunday, September 29, 1918, but unless the paper is paid for in advance, future delivery cannot be made.

Some S. A. T. C. men gave their addresses at University barracks. Inasmuch as some men are not yet living at University barracks, there may be some confusion in deliveries. Subscribers are asked to send in correct addresses on post cards to the manager of The Daily Iowan.

QUARTER MEN IN BARRACKS MONDAY SAYS ROBERTSON

Temporary Barracks For S. A. T. C. Men Are Ready—First Meals Tuesday

FEW FAIL PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

Twenty-one Officers Here For Student Army—No Quarantine

Every man who expects to be inducted into the S. A. T. C. is required by Capt. George W. Robertson to appear on the east side of the Physics building, Tuesday morning at 10:30 for the national exercises to be conducted in honor of the organization of the students' army. The program will begin at 11 o'clock. Appropriate exercises will accompany the flag raising, and speeches will follow.

Up until last night, no one had been inducted into the army section of the S. A. T. C. at the University. No forms have been received from the government. Between 500 and 600 men have had their physical examinations, and very few have been rejected. Limited service men will be kept here at regular work, but when these men leave for active service, they will be assigned to work for which they are physically fit.

On Monday the men of the S. A. T. C. will be assigned as follows: Women's gymnasium, 500 men; men's gymnasium, 440; dental building, 268; law building, 220; Close hall, 200; engineering hall, 300, and Welch building, 120. The first meal served will be Tuesday breakfast.

S. A. T. C. men will not be in quarantine, Adjutant LeRoy E. Cook declares in denial of the rumor of a three weeks' quarantine which has been circulating on the campus. Just what nights the men will be allowed their freedom cannot be decided until their schedules are arranged, the adjutant says. Saturday and Sunday nights are probably "off nights," but even then the men will be compelled to be in at 10 o'clock.

The war faculty of the University has grown to include the following officers:

Captain George W. Robertson First Lieut. Leroy E. Cook, adjutant Captain William S. Brownlee, medical corps; First Lieut. Dow A. Rice, dental corps; First Lieut. William H. DeButts; Clifford E. Caswell, Henry D. Barmore, John A. Warden, Robert T. Christy, Alexander W. Cavins, James K. Murphy, Rollin M. Perkins, personnel adjutant; Richard E. Chamberlain, Ephraim Clarke, Leroy A. Clarke, James M. Clarke, Basil T. Church, William R. Castle, Jr., Herbert F. Von Ewegen, First Sergeant Mark A. Kelly, Chief Trumpeter Jacob Maier.

MISS ANDERSEN ATTENDS ALLIED WAR MEETING

Miss Mary Andersen, former Y. W. secretary here, now located at Base Hospital No. 27 with the American Expeditionary Forces, has charge of the nurses' club work at the Y. W. hut at that place. Her work is that of planning entertainments for the nurses. She also takes care of the nurses' business affairs.

Miss Andersen was one of the ushers at the meeting of Allied women war workers held in Paris recently.

DEAN KAY COMMENDS SPIRIT OF S. A. T. C.

University Women Are Urged to Select Courses Training For War Service

"The young man of the S. A. T. C. is not thinking in terms of relation to graduation. He is thinking of the University in relation to the war," was the declaration of Dean George F. Kay yesterday, as he briefly outlined special war courses which have just been brought into the curriculum.

Students will find themselves in a wholly different situation from other years, he said, and their very presence at the University is a challenge to them to be of maximum service to the nation. Every man on the faculty who is essential to the war courses proposed by the government, is not released to go into drafted service.

Dean Kay in his address to the women of the University, appealed to them to train themselves for war service and sketched courses in education, chemistry, and secretarial work designed to meet war needs.

"We have got to have the finest morale," he told the young women "and I hope that you will meet every one of these new situations in the same spirit that the young men are meeting them."

IOWA GETS NEW CHINESE STUDENT

Chiang Liu, a graduate of Tsing Hau College in Peking, has arrived at the University of Iowa and has obtained quarters with Tsz Lee, Pang Kong Lum, Pei-Hsin Penn, Chu Tien and several other Chinese students at the University. Mr. Liu has been sent by the Chinese government to this country and he will specialize in education.

Seven Filipinos, two Japs, a Porto Rican, a Hindu and a South African give the University a cosmopolitan air. English composition is found to be one of the most difficult subjects these foreigners encounter at the institution. It also taxes their mind when in a French class, for instance, they must translate one strange tongue into another, equally unknown.

FRED H. BECKER

The death of Fred H. Becker, Iowa's great gridiron star and member of the all-American eleven in 1916, is brought again to the minds of the University students by a letter received at the office of The Daily Iowan yesterday. The letter is published in full:

"55th Co., 5Bn Marines.
A. E. F., Sept. 11, 1918.

Editor, Daily Iowan,
University of Iowa,
Iowa City, Iowa.

Dear Sir:

"Perhaps you would be interested in knowing the circumstances of the death of Lt. Fred H. Becker.

"Beck," as we all knew him was instantly killed the evening of the 18th of July. Our battalion had attacked in the morning and that evening we went over again. It was during this second attack that Beck was hit by a shell fragment. At the time we were advancing across a wheat field north of Vierzy—near Soissons. At the time we could not stop, but one of my sergeants was hit by Beck when he was hit and says that Beck did not move after falling (His jugular vein was cut). The next morning I sent a party to bury him but they could not find him. Evidently the stretcher bearers had taken the body in. He is buried, probably, near _____.

"Beck was with us for about ten months—so long we considered him a marine officer. To say he was liked hardly expresses it. He was loved by every officer and man in the battalion. The men would go anywhere with him.

"He was wounded in the shoulder the third of June when we stopped the Boche at Vieully Wood and though his wound had not completely healed he came back so he could "be with the boys" as he expressed it.

"It is hard for us to realize that he has gone forever, but still, we all hope to have a reunion later on "up yonder" so after all he is gone for just a time.

"I wish you would see that the contents of this letter reaches his mother. I never could find his home address and right now I am in no position to hunt it up. His personal effects will be sent to the Effects Depot.

"In conclusion let me say that Beck's sacrifice should serve as an ideal for every man. He was a real soldier and officer from the ground up.

Very respectfully,
1st Lieut. Wm. R. Matthews."

This letter written by one of Becker's fellow officers is evidence of the spirit and sacrifice of one of the University's greatest athletes. It shows that the casualties are daily coming nearer home and that it is the bounden duty of us all to accept silently the heavy tasks of war and victory.

Irene Stabb, sophomore liberal arts last year, is running her brother's hardware business in Lake View while he is in the service.

CHURCHES OFFER BARRACKS

Churches in Iowa City have offered their Sunday school rooms to the University for barracks for the Student Army Training Corps. The Methodist church was the first to do this, and other churches of the town have made similar arrangements. The University has ample barrack room for 3,000 students, but the churches' offers will probably be accepted if the number of students far exceeds this estimate.

Jules LaDieu is the new museum assistant at the University. Before coming here this month, he was technician at Tulane University. Prof. Homer Dill, head of museum work, expects a large registration of women in anatomical modelling and museum methods.

GIRLS LIKE TO LIVE AT FRATERNITY HOMES

"Say, isn't our room great?"

This is a composite of the remarks made by the freshman girls who have been assigned to former fraternity houses.

Four houses are now ready, Sigma Chi, Phi Psi, Psi Omega and Theta Xi. The Sigma Nu and Phi Delta Theta houses will be ready Monday.

Table service has been arranged at the Sigma Nu house for the girls there and at the Psi Omega house. Meals will be served at the Theta Xi house for freshmen residents there and at the Psi Omega house. Girls at the Sigma Chi and Phi Psi houses will take their meals at Currier hall.

Three chaperons which have been obtained are Eva Campbell, Beryl Hart, and Mame Prosser.

The Methodist work among the students this year will be in charge of the Rev. L. G. Rohrbaugh, new student pastor. The pastor will have his office at his home, 406 S. Clinton St. He and his wife have declared themselves anxious to meet the students of their constituency. The Rev. Mr. Rohrbaugh succeeds the Rev. L. F. Townsend who has gone to Omaha to take charge of the McCabe church there.

Congregational students desiring to join Bible classes, are requested to meet Rev. Mr. Schafer at 9:30 in the church auditorium Sunday morning.

through for a 20 yard gain. Lohman made 7 around right end. Rich added 7 on a short pass from eral linemen a tthis time. Iowa Lohman. Kelly added 15 on a Slater pass. Lakes was penalized 5 yards. Slater again made 5 yards through center to the Lakes three yard line. The Iowa quarterback called Slater back for a final trial at the goal, but the poor pass caused a fumble, which Bachman the big Notre Dame tackle recovered. Eilsen then punted to midfield as the quarter closed. Score 7 to 0.

Paddy Driscoll, the all American half, went in for Eilson at left half back. Iowa kicked off to the sailors who soon punted back to Kelly on his 15 yard line. After three downs Iowa punted and Olcott's men carried the ball through Iowa's 25 yard line, Driscoll taking the oval on nearly every play. He stepped back on his 35 yard line and placed a drop kick between the bars for 3 points. On a number of short plays Iowa carried the ball to the enemy's 30 yard line where the quarter ended, Rich, Kelley, Scott, and Slater doing most of the offensive work.

The Jackies began the last quarter with the ball in their possession on their 30 yard line. Driscoll made 15 yards on several short plunges but was soon stopped, mostly by Greenwood, who took a good sound punch at the fighting halfback from Northwestern. Driscoll evidently found it out that he could not hold Greenwood while making a tackle, and Dobson took Driscoll's place at this point. McClellan made several short gains. Olcott substituted several linemen at this time. Iowa started the last part of the quarter with the ball on her own 30 yard line, and the pass, Kelly to Lohman, gained 30 yards. Slater was sent through for 8 more. Lohman passed to Reed for a 10 yard gain. Scott made 4 through center on a smash. Slater's short pass to Rich was complete. With the ball on the sailor's 8 yard line, Kelly called Slater back in an attempt to carry the ball over the goal, but he was down on the line of scrimmage by Rees. On the last down Slater's short pass to Rich was intercepted, Great Lakes taking the ball. Dobson punted to Kelly on the 50 yard line. After one down, time was called, ending the game. Score 10-0.

THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES

CO-OPERATION—SERVICE—SELF-SACRIFICE

Through the request of the government the banks of the country are refusing to make certain classes of loans, for by so doing it would retard our efforts in this world war; these banks are making a sacrifice of business and profits.

In order to increase the purchasing power of the money in the U. S., the government wishes to keep it at work all the time, and to accomplish this result recommends that settlement on open accounts be made in full every 30 days.

Beginning September 1, the members of the Iowa City Credit Bureau placed their business on a 30 days basis, and feel assured that our customers will approve of our action in this matter, and will co-operate with us to the full extent of their ability, that the wishes of our government for conservation of our resources may be fully met in the spirit of patriotism and self-sacrifice that the times justify. Help win the war by paying your accounts in full every thirty days.
