IOWA HAS BEST TEAM IN EIGHTEEN YEARS

Walter Reckabull of Chicago Tribune Boys Promise Are Great For This Year

By President W. A. Jessup

In order that Iowa City may do her part in offering hospitality to her visitors, the War Camp Community Service will be conducted by nine committees, representing the students, instructors and help of the various departments of the University. These committees are: entertainers, church, commercial regulations, accommodations and hospitality; music, and publicity.

The various committees will endeavor to furnish entertainment for the students who are quartered here, in the class period you cover his nose and mouth when he coughs or sneezes. The backfield found plenty of holes in the scrub line and gave every indication of championship form.

Dear Old Bill:

"I have never had a policy. I have simply tried to do what seemed best at the time."

I was sent to Ft. Sill and pulled a boner yet. (I better knock out some of the teeth before I get back home.)

The last quote is from a letter to a friend who had gone to Ft. Sill. The friend had written that he had been to Ft. Sill and that the conditions there were terrible. The writer of the letter was trying to make...

Is your soldier boy a long way from home?

If he is, he will probably want to hear from all his old University friends. He will want to know the astonishing developments that are now taking place on the old campus. You can write him of course. But you are busy and can't remember to tell him everything when you write to him.

The Daily Iowan will solve your problem. This student owned University newspaper makes a specialty of gathering accurately and quickly all the news of the campus. Subscribe now and let your boy know that the University is a real military camp and is doing its share in the winning of the war.

For the period of the war published three times a week. Subscription $2.
