IOWA CITY, IOWA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1918

Iowa Squad Defeats Huskers For First Time in Years. Tied in 1906.

HAWKESLEY RETURNS ALL LIT UP OVER NEBRASKA VICTORY

Iowa native, who hit the Husker wall for a touchdown last Saturday, may be answered by one word—"Holds Like Stone." Score 12 to 0.

VARSITY IN LIGHT WORKOUT AFTER CORNISHKUR GAME

The Hawkeyes made 19 first downs in the third quarter that Iowa scored. In comparing the two teams, Iowa outdistanced Nebraska 24 tries an average of 4 yards each through for a total of 92 yards, in no small way for the big fellow successive plucks.

Merry of the department of public utility spoke. He states further that the Y. W. C. A. has planned a hike for freshman girls, to take place next Saturday afternoon at five o'clock. After coming to Iowa City he spent two weeks at the state normal at Burlington, B. E. M. State of Illinois. In keeping with his wishes, the college appointed him on October 3 at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, with clocklike precision and accuracy which has been sweeping over the country, and gave them a few simple talks to them about the epidemic which has been raging over the country, and gave them a few simple precautions to follow.

BERNARD WALLACE, FRESHMAN, DIES

Bernal Wallace was born on February 1, 1918, in Belmond, Iowa. He was the son of John and Margaret Wallace. He attended the University of Iowa and was a member of the freshman class of 1937. He was also a member of the football team. He passed away on October 8, 1937, at the age of 19 years old.

RESERVE CORPS GO IN ACTIVE SERVICE

The University of Iowa has sent a group of reserve corps members to active service in the United States. The group includes men from the engineering, dental, medical, and agricultural schools. The men were chosen because of their experience and their willingness to serve.

Is Your Soldier Boy a long way from Home?

If so he, will probably want to hear from all his old University friends. He will want to know the astonishing developments that are now taking place on the old campus. You can write him of course. But you are busy and can't remember to tell him everything when you write. He will want to know the astonishing developments that are now taking place on the old campus. You can write him of course. Holt wins recognition in army

A. H. Holt, Instructor at University

Now a Captain

Although ten years under age, A. H. Holt, head of the college of applied sciences at the University of Iowa, is a captain in the engineering corps of the army. He is also adjutant of his regiment, an unusual attainment for a recruit after the first armistice and earned from other than regular army men.

Capt. Holt is stationed at Camp

Lee, Virginia, with the 79th engineer corps. Holt, who was under age, when he was commissioned, was ordered to the engineering corps in 1917 by Capt. Holt was instructor in steel engineering at the University for three years and is on home of absence for the period of the war.

He is a graduate of Vermont

University.

Fourth Quarter

Greenfield passed 5 yds. Habke returned for 15 yds. The Nebraska pilot, seeing his chances failing, sent

Habke, the big one through for three consecutive gains totaling 41 yds. Nebraska ran in several new men at this point of the game as the starters were excused from them. All
