21 TO 0 IS IOWA'S VICTORY OVER AMES

HUTCHINS TO SPEAK AT FIRST VESPER OF PRESENT YEAR

War Chaplain Gives Address at Natural Science Hall This Afternoon

MISS COOPER IS SOLOIST

Rev. Ira P. Houston of the First Congregational Church to Give Invocation

William J. Hutchins, professor of homiletics in the graduate school of theology of Oberlin college, will give the first vesper address of the year today at 4 o'clock in natural science auditorium.

The following program will be given:

Invocation... Rev. Ira J. Houston
Hymn—"Love Divine, All Love Excelling."

Scripture Reading.
Soprano Solo, "Hear My Prayer," Mendelssohn—Miss Bertha Anne Cooper.

Vesper Sermon—Rev. William J. Hutchins.
Benediction.

The Reverend Mr. Hutchins graduated from Yale in '92 and from Union Theological seminary in '96. He spent eleven years in pastorate work in Brooklyn before going to his present position at Oberlin which he has held for nearly eleven years.

From August 1917 until January 1918, he was camp religious work director at Camp Sheridan, Ala. Then for a month, he visited nine other camps of the Southeastern department. At the present time, he is voluntary chaplain of the Oberlin S. A. T. C.

While in Iowa City, the Reverend Mr. Hutchins is the guest of Rev. W. C. Shafer, student pastor of the Congregational church, who was formerly a student of Mr. Hutchins. An informal gathering of Oberlin students will be held.

This vesper service, which is the first one of the monthly services, because the influenza epidemic prevented an October service, will be followed in December by a Christmas musical program.

VICTORY HAWKEYE FOR '20

Juniors Don't Show Proper Interest Only One Girl Applies

"Victory Hawkeye" has been suggested as the name for the annual to be published by the junior class. Members of the Hawkeye board consider this appropriate and timely.

Only one girl has applied for the editorship thus far, and there has been no application for the business management. Each of these positions offers a salary of $200. More interest and activity on the part of the junior class is essential, if this year's Hawkeye is to compare favorably with those of the past, members of the board declare.

INSTRUCTOR ELECTED EDITOR OF ALUMNUS

Mrs. Grace Partridge Smith Accepts Position As Head of Iowa Graduate Magazine

Mrs. Grace Partridge Smith of the class of 1891, instructor in Greek, has been chosen as editor of the Alumnus. Mrs. Smith is the widow of Prof. Arthur G. Smith, who was head of the department of mathematics and chairman of the Athletic board. She is an enthusiastic alumna. In addition to her many accomplishments she has contributed to several magazines. One contribution may be found in the current number of the Classical Journal entitled "Vitalizing Mythology."

Ruth Rogers has been elected business manager, a newly created office. Her duties will be to boost the circulation and secure advertisements. She has been connected with the Iowan for two years.

Many new features are to be added to the Alumnus this year. Formerly the Alumnus has reached only the alumni of the University but this year the magazine will be sold on the campus to the students for fifteen cents a copy.

To the alumni of the University the Alumnus serves a two-fold purpose. It gives them not only the news of the University but also news of each other. Because of unavoidable conditions the first number will not be published until the latter part of November. Nine issues, however, will be published because there will be a post-graduation number in July.

NO MORE INDUCTIONS

The following telegram was received by the commanding officer of the S. A. T. C. unit of Iowa in regard to the induction of more men.

"Owing to the order of the President suspending all induction, no more men will be taken into S. A. T. C. by induction until further notice. All institutions should be informed of this fact so that they will not encourage men to come to college with false expectations."

TRIANGLE CLUB RENEWS FUN

The Triangle club held a dance in the club rooms last Thursday evening. This faculty "cut up," which is the first one during the period of the war, was evidently a peace celebration. It is to be followed by other parties.

U. W. W. CAMPAIGN TO GO ON UNTIL QUOTA IS REACHED

No Report Can Be Made Yet as Different Groups Have Not Finished Soliciting

S. A. T. C. MEN ARE WORKING

$5,651 Has Been Received From 692 Women. $100 Largest Single Subscription

Reports on the United War Work campaign are slow but encouraging. The drive is still being carried on vigorously among all groups on the campus. Complete returns will not be available for several days. By Saturday morning 692 women of the University had pledged $5,651, an amount slightly below the individual quota of $10. Their goal was set at $10,000.

Sorority and freshmen house averages will be made out and published at the close of the campaign. Competition among these groupings is very keen just at present. Women members of the faculty have either included their pledges among those of the women students, or subscribed through the Loyalty league.

All pledges made to student solicitors are payable at the office of the University secretary. The largest single subscription was $100, and the smallest, 50 cents.

Members of the S. A. T. C. and other men students of the University are carrying on active campaigns among themselves. Results will be known early in the week.

The Iowa State college at Ames and Grinnell college have both set splendid examples for other institutions in the state. Men and women of Ames went over the top by giving $25,000 instead of the $23,500 asked. The women averaged $12 each. Grinnell oversubscribed its quota 50 per cent, pledging $10,761.

FROHLING-PRUYN

Ruel E. Pruy of Sanborn, a freshman in the S. A. T. C. and Ida Ruth Frohling of Belmont were married at 3:30 Thursday, Nov. 14, in the hostess room of the Y. M. C. A. hut. The Rev. Walter Schafer of the Congregational church performed the ceremony. The bridal couple were attended by J. Ross Spaulding and Ann Marie Glasgow. About thirty members of the groom's company, A engineers, and immediate friends were present. Mrs. Pruy returned to Belmont Friday.

FORD AT BACONIAN

Prof. A. H. Ford of the college of applied science gave a lecture on the subject, "The training of telephone electricians for the army" before the Baconian club in the physics lecture room Friday night. After discussing the work of the signal corps, Professor Ford emphasized the necessity of trained telephone electricians and said that there should be at least ten thousand of them for every million people.

The Political Science club will hold its first business meeting Monday evening in the liberal arts drawing room.

OPEN HOUSE TODAY AT Y

S. A. T. C. Men May Enjoy Free Movies Three Nights a Week

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will hold their first open house of the year at the "Y" hut this afternoon from 2:30 to 4:15. Those in charge say that all S. A. T. C. men and University girls are welcome. There will be a social hour, music and refreshments.

Through the courtesy of the community motion picture bureau and the extension department at Ames, a number of films have been secured, which will be shown on Monday, Tuesday, and Friday nights, for the benefit of the S. A. T. C. men.

The Y. M. C. A. bible class meets at 9 o'clock each Sunday morning.

FRASER IMPRESSED WITH UNITY OF U. S. A.

Lecturer Thinks Russia the Most Democratic Nation in World. Jews Much Feared

"The unity of this country, not the army, nor the immense production of munitions, is what impresses me most," stated Sir John Foster Fraser, in his lecture on "The Checkered board of Europe" Thursday night. "Where England and others, even our own citizens, expected marked differences to arise, the Americans have proved themselves a nation, not a race."

It was this unanimous backing of a great country, as well as our two million soldiers, that kept up the morale of the allied armies, the speaker said.

Speaking of Russia, he declared, "It is the most democratic country in the world. They are big, indolent, good-natured children. They have more holy days than any other nation and they never work on a holy day. The Jews were the chief instigators of the revolution. One-sixth of the Jews of the world live in Russia, and the Russians fear their shrewdness and government has forbidden them educational and social privileges."

The chief cause of the Russian revolution, however, according to Sir John Foster Fraser, was the Baltic provinces, which are German in population and sentiment. The Czar was not pro-German, but was ruled by the political leaders from these provinces. Russia will never again be a unified nation. The problems of the other countries were touched upon.

MISS AGNEW'S FAMILY HERE

James Agnew and daughters Sade and Jean of Walker were in the city Friday to care for the personal effects of Dr. Marie Agnew, instructor in mathematics and commerce, whose death occurred as the result of an automobile accident on Sunday, Nov. 10. The father and sisters of Miss Agnew have repeatedly expressed their sincere appreciation of the thoughtfulness and sympathy extended them by her friends in both the University and city circles.

Sergeant Irving Knudson of Camp Dodge visited here yesterday.

VARSITY WALLOPS VISITING AGGIES IN LAST HALF OF GAME

First Half Ends in Scoreless Tie Iowa Gets Big Points in The Third Period

LOHMAN RUNS 85 YARDS

Kelley's Interference and Kicks Are Feature—Belding and Scott Show up, Well

Going into the second half with the score a scoreless tie the Hawkeyes came back and scored a touchdown and a victory over Ames for the state title.

The Hawkeye attack fairly took Maysers' team off their feet, for the Iowa backs tore through the Ames line for repeated gains. For the entire first half the Aggies played the Iowa team an almost even game; they put up a stubborn defense and their offense was good at times.

The Iowa marker came in the third quarter after the Hawks had carried the oval to their 20 yard line. Hibbs intercepted an Iowa pass and Vanderloo kicked to Kelley. Kelley faked a run round right end for 20 yards to the 15 line. Scott hit the line for 5, Lohman added 5; Donnelly made 3 going to Ames 1 yard line where Scott went to the 1 foot line, Kelley scored through center and kicked goal.

Late in the third quarter the Hawkeyes scored again when Lohman took Vanderloo's punt on his own 10 yard line and sidestepped the entire Ames team going to the 5 yard line before he was tackled from the rear by Capt. Heater of Ames. Scott went over for a touchdown. Shortly after the start of the last quarter Captain Reed hauled down an Ames pass. Iowa's ball was on Ames' 35 yard line when a pass from Scott to Donnelly, one of the prettiest of the game, took the ball to their 10 yard line. Lohman was taken out here and Belding put in his place. Belding hit the line for 4 yards and Parker 3 more. Belding then smashed over for the last marker. Kelley booted his third goal making the total score 21 for Iowa.

For the entire first half the Ames team put up a classy brand of football, but fumbles on the part of the Iowa backs kept the Hawks from going over. The play was in the Ames territory most of the first quarter. The Iowa team started a drive for the Farmer goal by a series of plunges and went to the 15 yard line only to have Hibbs intercept a pass giving Ames the ball on her own 10 yard line.

The Hawks outclassed their rivals in aerial play line smashing and every other part of the game. Donnelly played a good defensive battle and his receiving of passes was sensational. Lohman ran through the whole Ames team for 85 yards and his passing was the best of the season. He hit the line for telling gains going as high as 8 and 10 at a clip. Scott showed up as the back who was good for 3 and 4 yards each time he carried the ball and his

"FIRST THE BLADE"

Out of the bloodshed of Europe is found to grow a democracy of nations, such as the world has been seeking for centuries, a democracy that means rule for the people of Europe and of the entire world.

The war is practically over, although our boys cannot come home for some months, but the new era of things brings its new and perplexing problems. For months the allied world has been training itself to hate all that is German.

Now there is a change. Germany has given up the struggle. She has asked the aid of the Allies and the United States in her dire distress. A German republic has been formed.

If this republic is successful and there is no successful counter revolution to restore the military party to power, the aim of President Wilson will have been accomplished. The junker class will be powerless.

And if this republic of German states comes into being, the humanitarian policy will be to recognize without hatred this new governmental endeavor. The blade of democracy is beginning to appear in a country once ruled by the kaiser and his crowd.

In the fertile corn fields of the West we have "first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear."

If we the American people distinguish between our hatred of military Germany and the democratic inspiration of the German people, we will be letting the new republic bud into full strength and become a neighbor republic of the all democracies.

CZECHO-SLOVAK VS. RING LARDNER

"Is Flanders a town, a country, or a meadow?" inquired a "co-ed" after hearing McRae's poem.

"No," replied her companion, "as I understand it, it is a bay in the north of France. Didn't you ever hear of a Flander's fish wife?"

Such deplorable ignorance may seem amusing; in fact, it merits a prominent place in B. L. T. But, to regard the situation in its true light, it is evident that our University women need to broaden their minds, to study current events, and to learn just exactly what is going on in the world today.

We have all rejoiced at the news of the armistice. How many know the terms of this great move? We talk flippantly about the Czecho-Slovaks, but do we understand the basic principles of this party?

The basis of this ignorance may be found in the reading matter.

Hearst's, Smith's and Ring Lardner "stuff" in the Saturday Evening Post may do well for the "tired business man," but the average student is not worn out so mentally but that she can not employ her spare time improving her mind.

In the University library are shelves of books on current topics. They are put there for the benefit of the students. And in them may be found knowledge about every branch of the war, about the various countries, and about the probable results of peace. The advantage you take of this opportunity will determine your fitness to fill the position to which you aspire.

In fact, the question is: do you get your information from a highly colored, improbable "thrill" story, or do you seek for it from an authentic volume by a world authority?

UNAPPRECEIATED AMATEURS

The world is inclined to look with awe upon the distinguished man or woman who has made a marked success in any business, art, or profession, but is inclined to scorn the work of one who makes a mere avocation of a task he loves. "Amateur" has become almost a term of reproach. "Oh, I'm only an amateur," the tennis player apologizes when he has won a match game and wishes to appear as modest as possible. "You know I'm only an amateur," remarks the daughter of the house as she sits down to the piano, "And you mustn't expect much." (But she sits down, just the same). Of course they are only amateurs. If they weren't their friends would be paying to see or hear them, and would watch or listen without the least personal interest in the performer.

One thing too often forgotten is the undeniable fact that every professional was once an amateur, and the equally interesting one that every amateur is a potential professional. Why does a two-dollar ticket make a song more beautiful, or a price tag increase the pleasure from a picture? Part of the answer is only too easy. The ticket or tag gives confidence to the uncertain critic, and he is not afraid to admire. "I never heard of him" we say, and pass an author or a speaker by. No one ever heard of us, but we should seriously resent being classed among the "non-essential citizens."

Gone are the days of the good old singing schools, where those with voices and those without joined together in melodies that were for the joy of the singers and not for the edification of a nervous audience. Going all too swiftly are the genuine literary societies, in which boys and girls and men and women practised at things they could not do, but wished to learn, and never thought they were furnishing a free entertainment for their friends. The great men of all ages have been men with avocations, and surely if such as these can profit by their amateur interests, the humble citizen cannot afford to let his field grow narrow.

The fifty S. A. T. C. men in the infantry, who had planned to leave here Wednesday night, for the officers' training school at Camp Pike, were ordered at the last moment to remain in Iowa City. The men were at the station, arguing over the position of their berths, preparatory to leaving at 8 o'clock, when a telegram came from headquarters stating that all orders sending men to officers' training schools were revoked.

work on passes was excellent. Kelley ran the team in his best style; his plays were well selected and his own runs were a feature. He kicked all 3 goals. It was his effective interference which made possible Lohman's sensational run.

Captain Reed stood out among the linemen for his tackling and interception of passes marked him as a star performer in his last game against Ames. Belding kicked for good distances each time and his defense was beyond average playing by far. For Ames Captain Heater, Vanderloo and Hibbs in the backfield and Schalk and Breeden in the line were the luminaries.

HAZLETT TO SPEAK AT Y. W.

"What is my part in the world peace?" will be discussed by Edith M. Hazlett of New York City at the regular Y. W. C. A. meeting Wednesday at 4:30. Alice Hoffman's to have charge of the meeting, and Vivian Cody will furnish special music. #### S. A. T. C. MEN INOCULATED

Twelve hundred men of the S. A. T. C. were inoculated Saturday morning. The number includes all the men with the exception of the football men and members of two companies who were previously inoculated. There will be no quarantine.

Prof. N. A. Brisco gave a talk on "Efficiency Principles of Banking" to the stockholders of the Ulch Brothers bank at Solon this week.

HOLIDAY ANNOUNCED

All classes will be dismissed on Thanksgiving day. The War department advises the University, however, to run classes as scheduled for all other days, because of the great amount of time lost in academic studies during the late epidemic. This means that there will be classes on the Friday following Thanksgiving day.

HOCKEY BEGINS

Hockey will begin Monday for classes in physical education, and will continue as long as good weather lasts. On days when the weather does not permit of the girls being out, lessons in first aid are to be given indoors.

The dental clinic is now open for the reception of patients every afternoon from 1:30 to 4:30, and Wednesday Thursday, and Friday at 10:30 and Saturday at 9:30.
