ARRANGEMENTS READY FOR ALL-UNIVERSITY ELECTIONS WEDNESDAY

Polls Will be Opened in the Liberal Arts College From 9-12 and From 2-5

TO HAVE PRINTED BALLOTS

Professional Colleges Will Elect Delegates as Traditions Dictate—Fifty-four Petitions Turned in to Dean of Men Meet Requirements of Constitution

All-University day is tomorrow. Arrangements have been completed for the first All-University day elections, according to the executive committee in charge of the elections tomorrow. Polls will be opened in the liberal arts college for the liberal arts elections from 9 o'clock until 12 o'clock in the morning and from 2 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Professional colleges which have not held elections will conduct their elections at their traditional class meetings as circumstances and precedent may dictate, it is said. Professional colleges will send two delegates to the student council with the exception of the college of pharmacy, which will send one. The liberal arts college will elect nine representatives.

Four tables will be provided at the main entrance of the college of liberal arts, representing as many classes. Printed ballots will be provided by the clerks and judges of election at these tables. Each student may vote only in the election held by the class of which he is an accredited member. Students who are of junior or senior standing in the college of liberal arts and are registered for a degree in another college will vote in the college from which they are to receive their degree.

The results and ballots of the election will be turned in to the dean of men as soon as the election is over, according to a statement given out by the executive committee.

A. F. I. and Staff and Circle will provide judges of election.

Fifty-four petitions were turned in to the dean of men, all of which met the requirements set forth in the provisional constitution.

Classes will not be suspended. The sample ballots follow:

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONVENTION COMING

National Committees Expect Big Number at Des Moines—Eastern Schools Represented

Three delegates, Frank Shuttleworth '21, Lucille Benison '22, Gamma Phi Beta, and Gladys Haberly '20, have already been appointed by the convention committee to attend the Student Volunteer convention to be held in Des Moines from December 31 to January 4, 1920. The University of Iowa is allowed a quota of forty delegates at this convention, and the committee is hard at work selecting the number.

The local convention committee is composed of representatives from the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., and the Student Volunteer band. Paul B. Anderson, a senior in L. A., is chairman and has divided the committee proper into several sub-committees. These committees are: delegates, Ray Clearman, Gladys Haberly, and Amie Gourley; finance, Manly Swezey and Minnie Crooks; publicity, Thelma Graves and Lucille Benison; (Continued on page 4)

TO DEMONSTRATE SEASHORE TESTS

Dr. Esther Allen Gaw, of the department of music, will leave for Minneapolis Thursday where she will attend the convention of the Minnesota state educational association which will be held the latter part of this week.

Dr. Gaw will give a demonstration of the Seashore music tests with the aid of a group of school children at that place. She will also speak to the music department on "The Recognition of Musical Talent."

BUCHANAN DENIES BEING RINGLEADER OF STUDENT GANG

Says He Should Not be Held for Wrong-doing of the Entire Crowd

MAYOR'S REPORT DIFFERS

Says Buchanan May Not Have Been Ringleader, but Was Caught With Barber Pole—Was Student Himself Short Time Ago and Will be Lenient

When Stewart Buchanan, 314 Gilbert street, appeared before Mayor Ingalls Swisher Sunday morning to answer to charges preferred against him by W. M. McKenzie, he was told that he would not be detained provided he paid the damages claimed by Mr. McKenzie or made a satisfactory settlement, according to a statement from the mayor's office.

It is alleged that Buchanan was ringleader of the party that raided the Englert theatre Friday evening following the mass meeting. Buchanan, when interviewed, says that he was not the ringleader of the movie rushers. He says it is not right to blame one man for what a crowd did.

Denies Charges

His statement follows: "I wish to state that I was not the ringleader of the movie rushers Friday night. It is not just to blame one man for what a crowd did. There were no charges preferred against me and I did not do the damage that was charged against me. Damage was done when the crowd rushed out of the theatre the first time. In the confusion the display stand was knocked over and broken."

Caught With Barber Pole

Mayor Swisher thinks that Buchanan is slightly in error in his statements. The mayor declares he has no desire to do anything unjust to anyone. He says that Buchanan was charged with the destruction of the property, but that he was released shortly after his arrest. The mayor thinks that the matter will be settled to the satisfaction of Mr. McKenzie.

"Buchanan may not have been the ringleader of the crowd," says Mayor Swisher, "but he was caught with the barber pole. I told Mr. Buchanan to go home when he appeared before me Sunday morning and told him that nothing more would come of the matter provided he made a satisfactory settlement with Mr. McKenzie who preferred the charges against him. He must make good the damage caused."

ROSENBAUGH PAINTS HAWKEYE POSTER

Juniors in the several colleges on the campus are urged to arrange for their Hawkeye picture early, according to the large sign at the campus entrance. Details have been decided and instructions have been given each of the local photographers and everything is ready for the Junior rush, according to a member of the staff.

The large poster, which is painted in oils, was prepared for the Hawkeye staff by Arthur Rosenbaugh, a junior in the liberal arts college and member of the present Hawkeye staff.

VIRGIL M. HANCHER

VIRGIL M. HANCHER WINS SCHOLARSHIP TO OXFORD UNIVERSITY

Committee of Selection Names Two to Attend Famous British School

TWENTY-THREE APPLICANT

Hancher is Third Iowa Man to Win Scholarship Made Possible by Will of Late Cecil Rhodes—Was Active in University—Now a Member of Freshman Law Class

Virgil M. Hancher, a freshman in the college of law, and Maxwell H. Herriott, of Grinnell, son of Prof. M. J. Herriott of Drake University, were named as the winners of the 1920 Rhodes scholarships to Oxford University, England, by the committee of selection at their final meeting Sunday morning, November 1. Twenty-three candidates, eight of whom were students at Iowa, were examined.

Hancher is the third Iowa man to win the Rhodes scholarship. J. I. Van der Zee having been selected in 1907 and J. A. Larson in 1911. The latter was a graduate of Luther college and was taking graduate work at the University at the time of his appointment. Mr. Van der Zee is a member of the present faculty.

Consider Four Points

Professor Van der Zee, who is a member of the committee which appointed Hancher, in an interview regarding the method of selection as set down in the Rhodes will, made the following statement:

"The qualifying examination which has been required of all candidates for Rhodes scholarships in the past was abandoned and in the present instance it was only necessary for candidates to make formal application, endorsed by the authorities of (Continued on page 3)

SOLICITORS TO ASK FOR FUNDS TO SEND BAND TO CHICAGO

In order that it may be possible for the University band to make the trip to Chicago for the Iowa-Chicago game it will be necessary for the students and faculty of the University and the citizens of Iowa City to subscribe to a fund which is now being solicited for that purpose. There are sixty members of the band, which is probably the best band in the history of the University.

In order that subscribers may be certain that their subscriptions reach the proper place and in order that the funds subscribed may be returned in case the trip should be abandoned only certain members of the band have been authorized to solicit. Each solicitor is provided with a sheet upon which his name appears and blank space for writing down the name of the subscriber and the amount subscribed. Subscribers are requested to see to it that this is not neglected as in no other way would it be possible to make return of funds.

Chairman Band Com.

PROFESSOR B. SHIMEK RETURNS FROM TRIP

Professor Bohumil Shimek, of the department of botany, has returned from Des Moines where he presided at a convention of the grand chapter of Eastern Star, of which he is worthy grand patron.

Professor Shimek did some field work while on this trip. He has been doing extensive field study on parasitic fungi this fall in the vicinities of Waverly, Muscatine and Clinton counties and in the Okoboji region.

ACROBATIC STUNTS OF PORPOISES WILL FEATURE LECTURE

Prof. C. C. Nutting to Give Illustrated Lecture on Barbados-Antigua Trip

FIRST LECTURE TOMORROW

Accounts of Expedition Will be Running Comment on Pictures Presented and Will be Cream of Six Lectures on Same Subject Given by Professor Nutting a Year Ago.

Acrobatic performances by a school of porpoises are among the interesting scenes presented in the first illustrated lecture on the Barbados-Antigua expedition which will be given on Wednesday evening in the natural science auditorium by Prof. C. C. Nutting. Moving pictures of the expedition taken by the University's own photographer will illustrate the lecture.

The first lecture on Wednesday evening will be followed by a second, a week later, the one being devoted to the island of Barbados and the other to Antigua. These accounts of the expedition will be largely a running comment on the pictures presented and will be the cream of six lectures on the same subject given by Professor Nutting a year ago and illustrated by lantern slides. This year the moving pictures are presented for the first time.

Sub-Titles are Interesting

Some of the sub-titles of the film are of interest and show the trend of the subject matter. The pictures open with views of the party and the vessel on which they made the trip. Scenes from the bridge of the ship show the various ports at which the ship touched and there is a picture of Mt. Pelee, the famous volcano which destroyed 40,000 people in two minutes.

The acrobatic performance of the porpoises is of interest and the arrival at Pelican island shows a survey of the landing and buildings. Views of the streets of Bridgetown, Barbados, give an idea of the density of the population on the island and there is a short picture of the only railway train in the British West Indies.

Scientists Have Race

Methods of fishing which the natives employ are of interest. They are shown looking for their fish pots with the water glass, raising the pots to the boat, and getting the fishes out. The audience is introduced to the United States consul and his family. On the bathing beach at the island the party of University scientists puts on a race in their beach costumes for the enjoyment of future generations.

The reel of Antigua shows the English harbor at the island and scenes in the villages. Some of the views in this reel are the prettiest in the collection. About 3,500 feet of film will be shown at each of the two lectures by Professor Nutting.

No admission will be charged for this lecture, but children under twelve will not be admitted unless accompanied by their parents.

K. O. THE PURPLE

"Knock out the Purple" is the slogan of the engineers for the game with Northwestern Saturday. Iowa may do it but it can't be said that Michigan did for they won from the Purple 16 to 13 only in the last few minutes of play.

JONES DRIVES MEN HARD IN PREPARING FOR PURPLE BATTLE

Realizes That Northwestern Eleven is Strong After its Showing Against Wolverines

FANS BUSY FIGURING DOPE

Upsets in Conference on Saturday Set Comparative Score Hounds at Work Doping Out Who's Who in Race for Title—Iowa Ranks over Badgers, Maroons and Michigan

Realizing since Northwestern's brilliant showing against Michigan that they will have a tough foe in the Purple, Coach Jones' Hawkeyes began preparations last night for the Evanston game. Assistant Coach Ashmore has returned from Ann Arbor where he witnessed the play of Iowa's next conference opponent and he brings disquieting reports of the prowess of Bachman's warriors. Stiff work will be dished out to the Old Gold this week. The South Dakota tussle hardly taxed the regulars more than a lively scrimmage and as a result every man is in splendid condition to go after more conference scalps.

As a result of the many upsets in Big Ten circles Iowa looms as one of the giants of the conference. Illinois drubbed Chicago; Wisconsin has defeated Illinois; Minnesota licked the Badgers, and Iowa holds a 9 to 7 decision over the Gophers. Wherefore it may be reasoned by the comparative score hound that Iowa ranks ahead of Wisconsin, Chicago, and Illinois, although the Old Gold lost to the latter eleven by a two-point margin. With this jumble of statistics it is possible to prove almost anything and with Ohio State, the only Big Ten crew undefeated, the title seems to be anybody's at the present time.

Many close followers of the grid game on the campus here are beginning to believe that the strength of Ohio State and Michigan have been overrated. It is certain that poor generalship and the breaks of the game lost for Northwestern Saturday and not the superior playing of the Wolverines. Ohio State's ten point margin over Michigan a week ago would indicate that the three teams were about on a par. Iowa will make a determined effort to give the Purple its fourth Big Ten lacing of the season. The Hawkeyes are going in tip-top form now and with a new backfield combination materially strengthening their offense, it is safe to say that Northwestern is in for a gruelling battle. The Old Gold is equipped to play either an open game or a hard driving brand of straight football. Thanks to Trainer Jack Watson, no regular member of the varsity has sustained any disabling injuries and every man should be in trim Saturday.

MAKE RESERVATIONS FOR HOMECOMING

Seat Sale Will be Thrown Open to Public After I-Ticket Holders Make Reservations

Holdings of I tickets have until November 8 to make their reservations for the Ames-Iowa game, November 22.

The applications for reservations will be taken at Whetstone's, and when all applications are in, a drawing will be made for seats. After November 8, the seat sale will be thrown open to all. Tickets are to be $2.50, and $2.00 on the bleachers.

As soon as I ticket reservations are made, mail orders will be taken care of, Coach Jones said yesterday. Out of town fans may mail their applications to Whetstone's drug store or to the athletic department.

USE THE BALLOT

The AN-University election should be attended by a greater interest on the part of the student body than any election in recent years. In any self-governing body, voting is one of the most important duties, and here is a responsibility which should be taken seriously by the students of the University.

College politics are not trivial in themselves. The power of the vote, which each student has, should be used to decide some phases of college life in which he or she is interested. Then, too, college politics form a foundation for judging national politics, and students who take an interest in the best of college politics are forming ideals for bigger elections later in life.

The election tomorrow has some points of even more than ordinary interest and importance. In the first place, it will select the first student-elected members of the student council. Some of the most worth-while men and women in the University have announced their candidacy for this body. It is up to the students to vote carefully and wisely, for it is this first student council which will draw up the constitution for succeeding years, and which will take the first step toward student government. All of these candidates cannot be elected, but it is to be hoped that the junior and senior voters will choose from the number, the ones best fitted to serve on a student-governing body.

Tomorrow will be the first time that the new plan of an All-University election day is tried, and the students should get behind the project to make it a success. The election is a student election, held by, and for the students, to choose those who will help to make rules for their own government. By taking part in the elections, they are helping to make student government more stable and effective tomorrow.

Use the ballot tomorrow.

THE CONFERENCE MUDDLE

With Ohio State as the one remaining undefeated eleven in the Big Ten and with the season only half over, conference football fans are predicting a muddled championship when the final curtain rings down on the present season of surprises. That Ohio State may fall in one of its future combats is admitted, for Saturday's upsets are proof that no team is unbeatable. Walter Eckersall of the Chicago Tribune, after telling of the downfall of Chicago and Wisconsin adds, "one may almost expect to see Purdue defeat Ohio State on Saturday and put the Buckeyes in a complicated tie for the Big Ten championship."

It is not probable that Purdue can accomplish such a task but it would not be a total surprise to see such a result. Few followers of football, except their own backers, gave Minnesota a chance to win over Wisconsin, and fewer still believed that Illinois could down the machine representing Chicago, which looked like a powerful aggregation in its opening games. But the Illini and Gophers won in spite of advance predictions.

What the future holds the dopsters have not yet made known. If Chicago can come back and win its remaining games, if Illinois and Minnesota can do the same, and if Ohio State bows in defeat, then it will be a muddled championship indeed.

Here at home the Hawkeye backers are beginning to "figure" how Iowa can win the championship. If Iowa can defeat Northwestern and Chicago, and Chicago in turn can beat Michigan and Ohio State, while Minnesota trounces Illinois, would it not be fair for the Old Gold to boast of the Big Ten title?

If Ohio State is defeated, several elevens can, by a process of elimination and comparative scores, claim the championship, and they will even though their records be tarnished by unreasonable defeats.

A HIGH HONOR

A high honor has just come to one of the students of the college of law. Virgil Hancher has won the distinction of being appointed to the Rhodes scholarship. Incidentally, the honor also reflects upon the University as a whole.

Hancher is one of those rare students who seem able to combine interest in various activities with high scholastic standing. President of his class during his senior year in liberal arts, member of A. F. I., honorary organization of senior men, Phi Alpha Delta, law fraternity, and Sigma Nu, social fraternity, and of various other University organizations, he found time to become prominent in debating and oratory and at the same time to keep his grades up to the high record required for Phi Beta Kappa. He was elected to this latter organization with the highest honors, making a record of superior work in over half of his subjects during his entire college course.

The University should be gratified to have one of its candidates chosen for the scholarship; it should be

Forbes-Hartinger

The engagement of Miss Ida Forbes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Forbes of Jefferson, Ia., and Mr. Richard Hartinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hartinger of Iowa Falls, formerly of Des Moines, was formally announced Thursday at a dinner given by the mother of the bride-to-be.

The initials of the young people and the wedding date were written on tiny cards concealed in the hearts of Russell roses.

Miss Forbes attended the State University of Iowa where she affiliated with the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Mr. Hartinger was a member of the Tau Psi fraternity at Drake and later attended the State University of Iowa where he received his degree from the law department in 1918. While in school in Iowa City he affiliated with the Phi Kappa Psi and the Phi Delta Phi fraternities.

The wedding will take place November 20.—Des Moines Sunday

Phi Delta Chi, pharmacy fraternity, had a banquet and "smoker" at the Jefferson hotel Monday evening, November 3. This was an annual affair of the fraternity in honor of their founder's day November 2, 1913. Only members and pledges attended the celebration. Following the dinner, Dr. C. S. Chase acted as toast master. Dean W. Teeters, Professor R. A. Kuever, John L. Clark, Frank Glodfeldt, Allan S. Vestindahl, and Ben C. Rogers responded with toasts.

Margaret Clapper, who is attending business college in Cedar Rapids, is visiting her sister Sadie, at the Chi Omega house.

their college or university. However, the present selection did not differ from those of other years in regard to the contestant's record in school and college. The four points outlined in the Rhodes will be scholarship, character, interest in outdoor sports and interest in one's fellows and instincts for leadership.

Is Native Iowan

Hancher is altogether an Iowa man. His father is V. F. Hancher, a farmer living at Rolfe, in Pocahontas county. He was valedictorian of the Rolfe high school class in 1914 and while in high school distinguished himself both in the class room and on the athletic field.

He enrolled at the University in the college of liberal arts in 1914 and in his sophomore year captained the debating team which won from Northwestern. The following year he was made captain of the team which defeated Minnesota in debate. During his junior year he also represented the University in the Hamilton club oratorical contest in Chicago. He was elected president of the senior class in 1917 and at the close of the school year was elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa fraternity with highest honors, having 64 hours of A-grade work out of a total of 120 hours.

Served With Colors

After he was graduated in June of 1918, Hancher enlisted in the navy. He was released from active service in January of the present year, and returned to the University where he did graduate work. At the beginning of the present school year, he registered in the law college.

Hancher is president of Sigma Nu fraternity, is president of the interfraternity council, and is a member of Phi Alpha Delta fraternity and Zetagathian literary society.

D. H. Scott spent the week end with his son John Scott, who is a freshman in the University.

Ethel Harbert, Alpha Xi Delta pledge, has gone to her home in Cedar Rapids. She and her mother will spend the winter in California.

Quarton-Nugent.

A wedding of interest to State University circles took place Wednesday, October 29, in Algona, when Miss Florence Quarton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Quarton, was united in marriage to Dr. Lee Christopher Nugent, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Nugent of Algona.

Simplicity characterized the wedding, which was held at the home of the bride's parents with only the immediate families as witnesses. A reception was held following the ceremony, after which the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Minneapolis. On their return they will be at home in Algona, where Dr. Nugent is now practicing.

Mrs. Nugent attended the State University of Iowa, where she affiliated with the Delta Gamma sorority. Dr. Nugent is a graduate of the college of dentistry at the State University, where he was a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity.—Des Moines Sunday Register.

Miss Mary Bash, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., and Kathryn Dayton, Pi Beta Phi, left Monday night for St. Paul, Minn., where they will attend a conference of the North Central Field of the Y. W. C. A. Kathryn Dayton will return Thursday and Miss Bash will remain in St. Paul one week.

Clara Hamilton of Lyons visited at the Gamma Phi Beta house over the week end.

Announce Pledges

Alpha Delta Pi announces the pledging of Marion Davis of Scranton and Marlon Adolph of Dixon, Ill.

Wayne McMillan, graduate of the college of liberal arts in 1917, now living in Des Moines, visited at the Sigma Nu house Sunday.

Dorothy Stong, a former student here, is visiting at the Delta Delta Delta house for a few days. Miss Stong is now attending school in Chicago.

conservation, Vilda Barker and Allen Felder. Prof. E. H. Lauer of the German department is the faculty representative. The student pastors of the city churches, and Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. secretaries complete the committee.

This is the first convention of its kind to be held since the one in Kansas City, Mo., in 1914, when 5031 delegates attended. The national committees are expecting 7000 people at the Coliseum in Des Moines. Already the eastern schools, including Yale, Princeton, Cornell, Bryn Mawr, Randolph-Macon, and many state schools have completed their quotas. Representatives from all American and Canadian colleges and universities as well as invited speakers and delegates from European, South American, and Asiatic countries will be at the convention.

The convention will have as its purpose not only the discussion of religious movements in foreign missionary countries, but also the consideration of vital economic problems and problems relating to national and international friendships. The committee has set November 15 as the date to complete the quota of 40.
