MAROONS DEFEAT HAWKEYES == 9 TO 6

STUDENT CAMPAIGN FOR MEMORIAL UNION IS UNDER WAY

Four Days Left in Which to Gain University's Quota of Union Building Fund

RESULTS KNOWN FRIDAY

Class Committees are Organized to Secure Pledges of Student Body—Memorial Workers Will Launch Homecoming Campaign at Friday's Luncheon.

Students, are you ready to make your pledge to the Memorial campaign?

Before Thursday of this week, every student in the University will be asked to do his part in helping Iowa gain her $1,000,000 Memorial building. Enthusiasm among the classes is keen, and every one is on edge to make the best possible showing. The committees in charge are greatly interested, and each will make every effort to gain for its own class the highest showing.

Students Make Pledges

All students have been asked to be prepared to make their pledges, so that when they are approached by the solicitor, they will know what they can give, without hesitation. This will be a great factor in speeding up the campaign, and since there are only four days of this week to work, speed is considered essential.

It is the hope of the committee in charge that every undergraduate will subscribe $50 to be paid within four years. Honorable mention will be given to all students who pledge more than this expected amount, it has been announced. Each student is being urged to do his best, to help put his class "over the top."

Campaign Workers Meet

At the meeting of campaign workers from all over the state, next Friday, the results of the student campaign will be given, together with the first alumni pledges.

In connection with homecoming, the board of trustees of the Union, the district chairmen and the county chairmen will meet at lunch at the Commercial club Friday noon. This will be the final "pep" meeting for the campaign workers, and last instructions will be delivered to them for the launching of the campaign. Among the speakers at the meeting will be Fred Sargent, chairman of the committee, John Grimm of Cedar Rapids, and other members of the committee.

"MORE FUN" SAY GIRLS

Four Hundred Attend Co-ed Hop in Woman's Gym

Better than Saturday afternoon varsity was the consensus of opinion of the four hundred enthusiastic upperclassmen and freshmen who attended the co-ed hop at the woman's gym yesterday afternoon.

"Let's have more of them. Refreshments, no blundering, no green dancers to mash your toes—we much prefer to dance with girls," the remarks continued.

The freshman whose name was not drawn, as well as the upperclassman without a guest, arrived along with the couples, got a partner and program and enjoyed themselves with the rest. "This," says Magdalene Grimm, chairman of the committee in charge, "is responsible for the huge success of the affair."

Whether or not these Saturday afternoon parties become a custom rests with the women of the University. Mary Anderson, president of Y. W. C. A., favors their continuance although the Y. W. has no present plans for keeping them up.

MEET THE TEAM

Meet the Team? I'll say so! Even the trees are loyal. They have changed to old gold. Don't let the score lessen your pep! Nebraska, South Dakota, Minnesota, North-western!!

Give our gridiron warriors the triumphal welcome they merit! Rock Island station this morning 7:45. There won't be 4000 without you. The train may be late and there is still time. Hurry!

LOWDEN BACKS S. U. I. MEMORIAL FUND DRIVE

Will Fill a Practical Place in University Life Says Iowa's Distinguished Alumnus

Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, who graduated from the University in 1885, has expressed in a letter to Fred W. Sargent, chairman of the Iowa Memorial union, his approval of the Memorial fund campaign for $1,000,000, and his opinion that the building should be a practical benefit to the University as well as a lasting memorial to her sons and daughters who fought in the Civil, the Spanish-American, and the World wars. He promised his full co-operation in the campaign which begins next month.

"The building should be of such a nature," said Governor Lowden in his letter, "that while always preserving its character as a memorial to the gallant sons of Iowa, it should fill a practical part in the scheme of University life. To my mind, the University needs a social center, a building with facilities for gatherings of students and faculty, both formal and informal; a place where the young men and young women may gather, learn to know each other, build up a strong, true University spirit."

MRS. A. STARR BEST GUEST AT RECEPTION

Drama League National Head is Full of Energy, Says Miss Hastings

"Full of enthusiasm and energy," is how Jessie P. Hastings, president of the local branch of the National Drama league and member of the extension division, characterizes Mrs. A. Starr Best, national president of the Drama league who is in Iowa City now, in whose honor a dinner and reception was given last night.

Arrived Yesterday

Mrs. Best arrived yesterday afternoon from Cedar Rapids where she helped organize a drama league center and was entertained at a luncheon at the Montrose hotel. Last night she was entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner at the Burkley Imperial hotel by the local officers and committee members. At 7:30 she addressed the Junior Drama league at the Iowa City high school. At 8:00 a reception was held in her honor in the Commercial club rooms. The reception was well attended by members of the league, their friends, and others interested in dramatics.

Well Represented

Iowa City and Waterloo are the only cities in the state that have branches of the national organization. Many University persons are members of the league. Prof. Glenn N. Merry of the department of public speaking is chairman of the education committee; Jessie Arms of the University library staff is chairman of publicity; Mrs. R. L. Parsons of Iowa City is chairman of the social committee; Mrs. F. O. Huebner of the plays committee, Mrs. M. J. Wade of membership, and Mrs. Will Hart of the Children's drama work.

PUSHBALL CONTEST INTEREST LAGGING SAYS EHRSMAN

Annual Freshman and Sophomore Scrap to be Held at Homecoming

WILL GET TEAMS THIS WEEK

Two Teams of Twenty-one Men Each to Open Battle—Third Period is Open to Everyone—Sophomore Meeting at 4 o'clock Tuesday, in L. A. Auditorium

Men of the two lower classes are showing only mild interest in the annual pushball contest to be staged at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Nov. 22 at Iowa field, according to reports from freshman and sophomore headquarters.

Alvin H. Ehrnsman, sophomore president intimated yesterday that the second year men will have their hands full in the coming scrap, and that the class as a whole was displaying very little enthusiasm over the event. "They seem to think that now they are sophomores, the thing is below their dignity," he said.

Van Epps to Talk

The freshman president, James B. Van Epps, will address the class at Freshman lecture, Monday, in an effort to rouse up all of the yearling men for Saturday's contest.

Two teams of twenty-one men each will open the hostilities and hold the center of the arena for two successive periods. The third period will be thrown open to the entire male contingent of the lower classes. It is this third phase of the contest which is worrying the second year men. Ehrnsman has called a meeting of the men of the sophomore class for Tuesday at 4 o'clock in the liberal arts auditorium to put the matter up to them.

Halbach Captains Sophs

Two captains will direct the affairs from the freshman angle, leading the teams which compete in the first two periods. Van Epps expressed himself as being in doubt as to who could be counted on to serve in these positions and withheld any announcement of names until Monday. The sophomore team will be under the direction of one captain Edward C. Halbach.

Personnel of the teams proper has not been selected in either of the classes. Freshman candidates will be directed to report to one of the captains at the meeting Monday, was the announcement of Van Epps while the sophomore president asserted that no organization would be attempted before the meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Pushball Bladder Here

Arrival of a new bladder for the immense pushball has left no doubt as to the ability of the athletic management to stage the affair. "We have made every arrangement possible," said E. G. Schroeder, director of physical education. "It is now up to the men of the two classes to get together and organize their teams."

STAGG'S MEN STAGE COMEBACK AFTER OLD GOLD MAKES INITIAL SCORE, AND MAKE TOUCHDOWN AND DROP KICK

Coach Jones' Men Go into Lead in First Quarter When Pass, Aubrey Devine to Glen Devine, Counts Touchdown—Iowa Carries Ball to One Yard Line in Last Moments of Play and Threatens to Score

(By Leon H. Brigham, Sports Editor of The Daily Iowan, over direct wire leased by the Board in Control of Athletics.)

Stagg Field, Chicago, Ill., Nov. 15.—Special: In one of the hardest fought and most exciting games ever seen on Stagg Field, Chicago defeated the Hawkeyes this afternoon by a score of 9 to 6. Victory was in the balance until the final whistle, for Iowa threatened the Chicago goal so seriously in the last few moments of play, that defeat might have as easily nosed out victory. When the game ended, Iowa was in possession of the ball on Chicago's one yard line.

Chicago Scores Drop Kick

A drop kick by Graham in the fourth quarter gave Chicago the game, and administered to Iowa its second defeat of the season. Iowa displayed an offense that sparkled at times while the Chicago fans witnessed an excellent precision from the Maroons. At times both defenses seemed to crumble before the driving offenses of either team, but when within the twenty yard line, several exceptions noted, both forward walls seemed impregnable.

A. Devine as Star

A. Devine was Iowa's greatest luminary. Time and again he carried the ball for good gains. In the last three minutes of play, by a series of end runs, from punt formations, he was responsible for carrying the oval from Iowa's 43 yard line to Chicago's 10 yard line, where Captain Lohman in a line plunge placed the ball on the 2 yard line. Two successive plunges advanced the ball one yard, but a possible victory was denied the Hawkeyes when time was called, before the last attempt at Chicago's stone wall could be completed.

Iowa Scores

Iowa showed a superior attack in the first quarter. Securing the ball on a Chicago fumble, the Iowa team marched from the middle of the field to a touchdown. A. Devine used his forward pass to a good advantage and made first down several times in this way when his backs failed to gain through the Maroon line. When Devine received the pass from his brother Aubrey and scored the first Hawkeye tally A. Devine punted out perfectly but missed the goal on the kick.

Chicago Makes Count

Stagg's men opened up in the second quarter with a hard driving tack, aimed at the left side of the Iowa line. A fumble by Parker gave the Maroons a chance to score. Taking the ball on about the 30 yard line Stagg's men marched steadily through the left side of the Hawkeye line to a touchdown. Quarterback Red Graham made the count. Captain Higgins failed to kick goal. For the remainder of the quarter Chicago Continued the smashing play.

Captain Lohman played a remarkable game, tearing through the Chicago wall for many gains and was in a large part responsible for Iowa's score. Belding, at right end, was responsible for a number of long gains by the aerial route. Slater played his usual strong defensive game. Elton and Graham starred for Chicago. Both men played consistently and when called on for several yards made good.

Fully 18,000 people saw the contest.

The game by plays follows:

Stagg Field, Chicago, Ill., Nov. 15.—A perfect day, clear sky with slight wind blowing from the south. The field is in fine condition. A mammoth crowd has gathered to witness the game

Belding and Parker and A. Devine practice kicking on field. Chicago team comes on field at 1:55 p. m. and runs signals. Chicago bands plays, "Maroon War Song," and Iowa band responds with "Ramble."

Higgins wins toss and Iowa is defending north goal. Iowa will kick. Hutchinson playing instead of Annan for Chicago. A. Devine kicking off for Iowa.

First Quarter

A. Devine kicks off to Chicago's 27-yard line. Graham returns to Chicago's 35 yard line. Chicago makes three yards through center. Graham makes 3 yards on a fake punt. Chicago makes one yard through Hunzleman, Hutchinson fumbles ball. Iowa's ball on Chicago's 43-yard line. Belding recovers Chicago's fumble.

Lohman smashes through center for 4 yards. Lohman makes first down through center. Lohman makes 1 yard through center, ball on Chicago's 30-yard line. Lohman thrown for 3-yard loss. Time out for Lohman. Forward pass. A. Devine to Belding gains 3 yards. A pass, A. Devine to Belding, makes first down. Ball on Chicago's 20-yard line. Lohman goes 3 yards through center. Lohman adds 3 more through center. Lohman makes 1 yard off tackle. A forward pass, A. Devine to Belding makes first down. Ball on Chicago's 10 yard line. Parker makes 1 yard through center. A. Devine goes to Chicago's 5 yard line. Lohman makes 2 yards through center. A forward pass, A. Devine to G. Devine goes over for Iowa's first touchdown. Score, Iowa 6; Chicago 0. A. Devine fails to kick goal.

A. Devine kicks off to Chicago's 25 yard line. Chicago returns 12 yards. Chicago's ball on their own 37-yard line. Chicago gains 2 yards through Block. Forward pass, Graham to Crisler carries ball to Iowa's 42-yard line.

Graham makes 4 yards around Belding. Hanisch makes one yard through Heldt. Forward pass incomplete. Graham kicks over Iowa goal line. Iowa's ball on its own 20 yard line. Parker makes 3 yards off tackle. Lohman makes one yard through center. A. Devine makes 1 yard through center. A. Devine kicks to Graham on Chicago's 35-yard line. Graham returns 7 yards. Chicago's forward pass incomplete. Another forward pass incomplete. Parker nalls Graham for a loss. Graham kicks to Parker. No return of ball. Iowa's ball on Iowa's 26 yard line. Belding hurt.

End of first quarter; score, Iowa 6; Chicago 0.

DISHONESTY

It is a matter of deep regret to many that there has been a spirit of dishonesty prevalent in the University this year. For a time, the property of various students was reported missing and the losers have tried to think that their property was either lost or "had strayed" hesitating to condemn anyone as a thief. However, the continuous disappearance of various articles has seemed to verify the suspicion that there are some within the University who belittle themselves to the extent of appropriating another's property.

It is difficult to explain just why any individual should pick up a note book and appropriate it for his own use. Class notes as a rule are of priceless value only to the party who took them. In one instance, the notes were returned without the cover. Appropriating another's notebook is one of the lowest form of kleptomani.

Several students have reported the loss of overcoats, declaring that the coats had been lifted from the hangers at the library. Others have lost pocket books, containing a name and address, yet no responses have been received in answer to advertisements. In short enough articles have been advertised under the head of "lost" to clothe and feed many a Belgium orphan. In all instances it seems that everything is "lost" and nothing "found."

Sorority houses have complained of the disappearance of silver, decorations, pictures, and clothing following an afternoon at which they presided at open house. Such customs practised under the cloak of "just fun" and in the thoughtlessness of obtaining a souvenir, is never the less plain and outright stealing. It is appropriating valuable property belonging to another party.

The ethical standards of the student body of a University should be on a higher level and the few who stoop to such degradation should be ridiculed out of the University. It is deplorable that the moral code of a few in attendance at a higher institution of learning should be so low. Surely it is our Universities and colleges which must establish our codes of morals, ideals, and ethics. If our American educational institutions are not the source of integrity and upright living, to what institutions may civilization look to maintain righteousness?

It was a Stag party that had a kick in it.

Better to have scored and lost than not to have scored at all.

Now that Governor Lowden is in favor of the Iowa Memorial Union, that makes it unanimous.

If a few students would raid their books with the same diligence that they do a theatre, the duties of citizenship would be so apparent that raids would subside.

The miners have quit the strike but have not gone back to work. In other words the miners are on an indefinite vacation.

DEAN KAY TO BE FACULTY DELEGATE

Twenty-eight Others Elected to Student Volunteer Convention

Dr. George F. Kay, dean of the college of liberal arts, will be the faculty delegate to the student volunteer convention to be held in Des Moines from December 31 to January 4, according to the report of the convention committee that met Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. The committee hopes to have another faculty representative at the convention.

The list of student delegates and University representatives will be completed Wednesday noon, November 19, at a luncheon which will be held at the Burkley hotel. "There are many more who want to go than the University quota allows," stated Gladys Haberly, of the delegates committee. The quota of the University is forty-five, one delegate for every one hundred students enrolled. Because of the enthusiasm of the students, the committee has applied to the convention headquarters in New York to be allowed an overflow delegation of at least thirty. This list is already large, says the committee.

Twenty-eight students were voted upon and elected as delegates at the last meeting of the committee. They are Ruth Rider '23, Ruth Van Law '23, Gamma Phi Beta; Katherine Miles '23, Katherine Hamilton '23, Alpha Rho '23, Helen Hays '22, Mary McCord '22, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Leon Barngrover '21, Delta Zeta; Essie Atwood '21, Chi Omega; Lucile Sawyer '20, Chi Omega; Florence Strub '20, Pi Beta Phi; Thelma Graves '21, Beulah Wheeler '22, Pauline Dodge '22, Hattie Colony '22, James Van Law, Delta Chi; Roy Eddie '23, William S. Kester '23, Milo Brooks '22, and Richard Shote '22.

NOT SENSE BUT STYLE, SAYS CO-ED

"Girls are using sense for once in regard to their clothing," stated a University doctor as he noticed the woolen hose his patient was wearing. "Sense!" exclaimed the patient; "don't you know that woolen hose is the style? Silk is a thing of the past."

"I might have known that there was some other motive," laughed the doctor. "But whatever the cause, it's a good thing."

SHOULD BE A MAJOR SPORT

Armbruster Believes that Swimming Should Be Emphasized

To make swimming a major sport in the University is the policy of David Armbruster, swimming director at the men's gymnasium.

Mr. Armbruster asserts that Iowa has too long regarded swimming entirely as a matter of course, with the result that it is only a minor sport, and contends that the University should develop a team which could compete with those of other large institutions.

The director explains that an encouragingly large number of men are coming out, the candidates being both freshman and varsity material. Water basket balls have been obtained and the men will soon take up that form of aquatic sport.

HAWKEYE CLUB DINES AT HAMILTON CLUB

Chicago, Nov. 15.—About 200 Iowans attended the dinner dance of the Hawkeye club of Chicago at the Hamilton club Thursday night. Woodworth Clum, secretary of the Greater Iowa association, as the guest of honor, said Iowa is famous for corn, hogs, and the Cherry Sisters. He pointed out that Iowa today claims four governors as her sons—those of Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, and Oklahoma; that other Iowans are Theodore N. Vail, Herbert Hoover, and Billy Sunday; that agriculturally Iowa leads the world for any area of equal size.
