Spring Vacation Tour Is Under Supervision of Professor Wassam

TWENTY-FOUR MEN TO GO

Sears Roebuck Mail Order House, Northwestern School of Commerce, And Swift Packing Plant Are On List of Institutions To Be Visited

Details for the trip to Chicago to be made by students of the school of commerce during spring vacation have been completed, according to Prof. C. W. Wassam, of the economics department and promoter of the trip.

Students making the trip will leave Iowa City in two groups, the first at 2:37 o'clock Thursday afternoon, and the second on the midnight train. All will meet Friday morning at 8 o'clock at the Fort Dearborn hotel from which they will begin their excursion.

Will Watch Board of Trade

At 8:30 a. m. the group will visit the Sears-Roebuck mail order house; at 10:30 a. m. the Board of Trade; at 2:30 p. m. the Underwriters laboratory; and at 7:30 p. m. the Northwestern school of commerce. Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock the Illinois Steel company will be visited and at 10:30 o'clock, the Swift Packing plant. The Ford plant will be visited during Saturday afternoon.

Number is Limited

The number designated by the Commerce club, which is fostering the trip, has been filled and no more can be accommodated because of the obvious disadvantages of a larger group.

The students who have agreed to go are: Frederick Woodruff, Arlen J. Wilson, H. D. Palmer, Paul Custer, Karl F. Jasper, Clinton Smith, Edward Pfeffer, F. M. Sandy, Leland B. Irish, J. L. Goepfinger, Herman P. White, H. E. Snedaker, Warren P. Lawrence, Joseph S. Auner, Glen A. Wolford, Arthur Black, Clarence W. GIRLS' BASKETBALL GAMES POSTPONED

The women's interclass basketball games, which were to be played last night, have been postponed until after vacation on account of the coming examinations, according to Marian R. Lyon, physical director for women.

In the first games of the interclass series the senior team beat the junior team and the sophomores won from the freshmen. The postponed games are between the freshmen and seniors; and juniors and sophomores.

MUMMA IN CHARGE OF NATIONAL RIFLE MATCH

Major Morton C. Mumma, commandant, has been appointed executive officer in charge of the National Rifle matches, which will be held at Camp Perry, August 10 to 19. Assistant Secretary of War Crowell has also named Major Mumma as a member of the committee on rules and regulations governing the National matches.

IRVING-EROS PICK ANNUAL PLAY AND SET TRYOUT DATE

"Mrs Bumpstead Leigh" is the name of the play which will be presented by the Irving-Erodelphian literary societies this spring. Tryouts for the parts will be held March 31, according to Henry E. Ruwe, chairman of the play committee.

The play, which is a three act comedy, will be directed by Mrs. W. R. Hart of Iowa City, who was in charge of the peace pageant here last autumn. No definite date for the performance has been set.

WOMEN'S GYM CLASSES TO DEMONSTRATE WORK

"Not an Exhibition to Show Off," Says Instructor But Review of Daily Life at Gym

The women of the department of company. What we want is to give a demonstration, April 22, of their year's work in gymnasium. This demonstration is the first of its kind in that the whole department will take part in the program.

"Do not call it an exhibition," said Miss Marion R. Lyon, head of the department of physical education. "It is to be a demonstration. We're not dressing up to show off before company, what we want is to give a demonstration of our everyday work in the gymnasium and to give an idea of the character of the work in this department."

All classes in the department will take part. Freshmen classes in physical training will give Swedish gymnastics. The sophomore class will give wands and Indian club drills with musical accompaniments. The aesthetic and folk dancing classes will give several dances, and the heavy apparatus class will do stunts which will make the men's gym team take notice, it is asserted.

A demonstration swimming meet in which the classes enrolled will take part will be held some time later in the term.

ANNOUNCE Y. W. C. A. CONFERENCE PROGRAM

President Jessup and Mrs Aurner to Talk—Mrs Lambert Will Preside

The program for the Y. W. C. A. cabinet training school to be conducted April 10 for next year's members of the Y. W. cabinet was announced at the executive cabinet meeting, Monday afternoon. Kathryn Dayton '20 and Miss Mary I. Bash general secretary of the association, were the committee in charge of arrangements.

The conference is arranged in an all day program divided in three sessions. The morning session, beginning at 11 o'clock, will consist of talks by President Walter A. Jessup, and Dean Nellie S. Aurner on the general theme, "The Place the Y. W. C. A. Should and Does Hold on the Campus." Mrs. J. J. Lambert, chairman of the advisory board, will preside.

"20 in 1920" is the slogan of the second session, a luncheon at the Hotel Burkley for the old and new cabinet. A toast program with "Dr. Geneva, M. D." as its title, offers a means of arousing interest in the summer conference held each year at Lake Geneva. Mary Anderson, president of the association, is to be toastmaster. Toasts will be given by students who have attended the Lake Geneva conference.

The afternoon session called at 1:45 o'clock will begin with an explanation of the purpose of the association and the work it undertakes. A technical hour will follow during which training in the executive phases of "Y" work will be given.

The morning session to be held in the liberal arts assembly room will be open to the public.

P TO K-4 MAY BE NEW SLOGAN AT QUADRANGLE

Since a considerable amount of interest in chess has been aroused among University students during the past quarter, especially among the men of the Quadrangle, the formation of a chess club has been receiving special attention.

Those interested plan to form this club immediately after the spring vacation. A regular organization will be formed, and a tournament will be staged toward the end of the third quarter. All who are interested in the organization of such a club are asked to communicate with Carl Franzen of the college of education or John Nill of the college of applied science. Both men room at the Quadrangle.

SPONSOR CARDS ARE NOW BEING PRINTED

Captains of Women's Council Choose List of Guardians For Freshman Students

A sponsor system for the girls at the University will be completed shortly after the spring vacation, according to the sponsor committee, of which Alveretta West '21 is chairman. Cards are now in the hands of the printer. When these are finished they will be filled out with the name and address of some girl who is to come to the University for the first time next year, and sent to a sponsor, or upperclassman.

Captains of the districts of the Women's council are now interviewing all the University women in their districts to get a list of sponsors for next year, according to members of the council. "These will be ready by two weeks after vacation it is hoped," said Miss West yesterday. "Any girl who wants the honor and who will take the responsibility of starting a new student out and getting her acquainted with the University and its ways may become a sponsor," Miss West continued. Each sponsor will have one sponsee.

The sponsors will be assigned their sponsees at the office of Miss Violet Blakely, social assistant and advisor to the dean of women, and cards will be mailed to the sponsors (Continued on page four)

AERO CLUB PROPOSES FLYING COURSE FOR COLLEGE CURRICULUM

Ohio State Is Only University With Field And Ground School—Others Have Private Organizations—State Representative Would Ask For Student Opinion

Flying for the college man who aspires to keep up in his studies may yet be a course offered to the University student if the plans of the University of Iowa Aero club backed by University officials and headed by President Walter A. Jessup materialize.

At a recent banquet of the Aero club a program was laid out to boost aviation at Iowa City for the purpose of securing a ground school appropriation of $100,000 at the next session of the state legislature, and to secure federal aid in the way of planes and competent flying instructors after the ground school is assured.

Army Favors Plans

Major Morton C. Mumma was appointed by President Jessup as chairman of a committee to aid, advise and cooperate with the Aero club in the plan to secure a school of aviation and obtain an aviation unit in connection with the R. O. T. C. Prof. L. P. Sieg, formerly connected with the aviation branch of the war department, and Dr. Verlie Van Zele, former overseas aviator, are the other members of the committee.

Major Mumma reports that affairs at Washington are not settled with regard to the aviation question but he found most of the military authorities in sympathy with an extended aviation program which would include cooperation with interested universities. He expressed himself as being greatly in favor of the proposed plan and signified his intention of supporting the endeavor.

Ohio State Has Field

Committees of the Aero club appointed by President Arthur Starbuck include John S. Ashby, chairman of the national committee corresponding with congressional committees on aviation; George P. Holmes, chairman of the survey committee to report on the number of students in the University interested in an aviation program; Glen V. Conrad. (Continued on page 4)

"JACK THE PEEPER" AGAIN
 The return of the robins has been accompanied by the return of "Jack the Peeper." Each year as balmy weather pervades our University city, strange sleuth-like beings under the cover of dusk, slip about the city by car and by foot, to pause a moment on meeting a woman or group of women to request dates or make insulting remarks. A similar condition existed last spring.
 But early reports would indicate that action should be taken by the detective agencies at once in order to prevent the full return of last year's condition.

During the past two weeks a number of University women have been accosted on the streets after dusk.
 Some have been urged to take a ride in cars by strangers and others have been asked to accept unknown
 escorts. "Peepers" have been frightened from doorsteps and windows by the screams of women at sorority houses. These conditions give evidence of abnormal situations.

Public streets should be passages of safety. When University women must remain at their dwellings during an evening from fear of being accosted by strangers, it is time that action was taken by city officials.
 It is true, no serious incidents have been reported, but the time to act
 is now. "A stitch in time saves nine."

The prevailing situation does not speak well for a University city filled with representatives from all parts of the state. If the condition is allowed to prevail it will be followed by a wave of anxiety by parents.
 Advertising of this nature is un-healthful.

The job of the police force is to clean up the city. Women's civic rights demand that they be protected from insults and taunts. Law abiding citizens deserve this protection.

PLAY AND FORGET SHOP
 The funniest thing about the two classic characters of the modern stage, Potash and Perlmutter, is the fact that they always talk shop. No situation of social obligation or vital pressure is sufficiently important to overshadow that incessant round of ludicrous chatter about business, cloaks, suits, rent, and prices.

After a few more hours of this serious business of "getting by" in quarterly examinations, the 4000 and some odd members of our undergraduate body politic will be released to follow their various bents
 after their own whims. These few days of respite from the monotonous
 business of viewing lazy grey clouds from a class room interior affords a happy opportunity to forget "shop."

In the good old days when the chief source of scholastic difficulty was Smith's fifth grade geography and McDuffey's school reader, our primitive selves anticipated a different form of recreation for every moment of that priceless vacation.
 Our estimate of the value of those few days of relaxation might have been somewhat distorted, but at any rate we came back bringing teacher an apple and looking on the bright side of the ordeal.

It ought to work again. We are about to enjoy the privilege of resting our book-befuddled brains. Why not do a good job of it; play and forget shop? The best soldier is better for an occasional furlough.
 Potash and Perlmutter look funny,
 not intelligent.

If the Chicago policemen were as successful in apprehending thugs as they are in detecting good citizens
 Chicago would soon be a paradise.

Iowa does not have a monopoly on the perpetual circles. There seems to be one down at Washington.

Divorces in the movies are as common as marriages.

Sports are getting rough when Big Ten coaches resemble thugs.

A rainy day has saved many a flunk-er.

Vacation is here. Give the college yell.

THE LISTENING POST
 One might have known it would start raining when the University baseball squad announced its intention of going out of doors.

"Democrats Join G. O. P. to Knock Wood," says headline. The superstitious business, you know, of rapping upon something hard.

"Dame Fortune also walloped the Hawkeyes another blow when Ristine, crack two miler, failed to hear the call for the two mile run." What the University needs most, it seems,

 is an announcer.

It might, too, hire a body guard
 for Coach Jones.

It is pleasurable anticipation indeed with which we are looking forward to the spring vacation. In the home town next Monday, a mud slinging campaign of several weeks duration, is to come to an end. We hope to be there for the election.

Charlie Chaplin didn't give Mrs.
 Charlie Chaplin a nickle of his $667,- 000 a year salary so she's asking for a divorce. Maybe part of the salary was watered so you can't really blame Charley.

Delaware, in the opinion of the suffragists, is the "boob" state now.

Let's hear the "bats crack."

Well, Well! Another quarter's wasted. M. V. M.

300 COURSES OFFERED FOR SUMMER SCHOOL

Work For Two Sessions Outlined In Pamphlet Issued By Extension Division

More than 300 courses will be offered by the University 1920 summer sessions according to the summer news pamphlet which is being sent out by the extension division.

During the 1920 summer session, which will be divided into two terms of six weeks and five weeks, work will be offered in the graduate college, the college of education, in the colleges of liberal arts, medicine, and applied science, and the instructional staff will number more than 150.

Plan French Cottage

Among courses to be offered will be the conversational study of the French language. Young women students of the 1920 summer session will be given opportunity in the practical study of French by means of a French cottage where students will live together and in which only the French language will be spoken. The French cottage will be in charge of Miss Lucille Franchere of the Romance language instructional staff.

A new course in industrial chemistry, designed for the practical application of theoretical chemistry, will be given for the first time in the summer session. Equipment for the new industrial laboratory is now being placed in the basement of Close hall.

Athletic Instruction Offered

Special enlarged courses in athletic coaching will be offered during the first six weeks of the summer session. Classes will be offered in the coaching of football and basketball and gymnasium classes will be in charge of David A. Armbruster of the department of physical education.

County superintendents of schools will be offered a special course of training which will be continued over a period of four summer sessions. Three courses in the teaching of English will be offered by the department of English. These courses, which are designed for high school teachers, will be under the direction of C. H. Ward of the Taft School, Watertown, Conn.

Other courses include a new pre-nursing course covering technical work, the library training school, the Lakeside Laboratory at Okobiji which offers advanced research work in natural history, and the additional courses offered in the department of music.

Election of Y. W. C. A. officers for the coming year will be held today. Tables for voting will be placed in the halls and voting members of the association may cast their ballots any time from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., according to Mary I. Bash, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A.

Nominees for president are: Margaret Dolliver '21, Henrietta Shell '21; for vice-president: Alice Cavin '21, Helen Von Lockum '21; for treasurer: Catherine Hamilton '23, Ruth Reeder '23; for secretary: Marjorie Meardon '23, Ruth Wallace '23; for undergraduate field representative: Lucile Everett '22, Jean Spiers '22.

ness but has entirely recovered. Heldt Performing Well "G. Devine (158) has been showing up better than he did in previous meets, said Coach Schroeder. Captain Jensen, Vana and Francois in the 145, 125 and 135 pound classes respectively are performing in old time style. Heldt in the heavyweight is also performing well. "Members of the gymnastic team will not be sent to the meet," according to Coach Nelson Sharp. Several of the best performers are off the team, accounting for the non-entrance.

Fencers To Stay at Home

The fencing squad is doing good work," said Coach Schroeder, "but since this is the first season that fencing has been taken up since the war began it was not deemed advisable to send a team." Coach Schroeder expects to send a good representation next year, as the men will have the advantage of a year's training.

The idea was started by one of the Y. W. C. A. democracy discussion groups as a remedy for undemocratic feeling on the campus. This discussion group was appointed by the Women's council, as the sponsor committee. It is composed of Alveretta West '21, Selma Millick '22, Mildred Martin '22, Ruth Tisdale '21, Thelma Graves '21, Margaret Holmes '21, and Kathryn Dayton '20.

The sponsor system is now used at Grinnell college, University of Wisconsin, University of Minnesota, and many other large colleges and universities, according to Miss Blake-ly.

Only one other university in the country, Ohio State, at Columbus, Ohio, has an aviation field and ground school. Several universities, notably Cornell, Princeton, and the University of California have private aviation fields close to the campus which are liberally patronized by students, it is said.

Opinion Must Be Expressed
