SENIOR WOMEN CARRY ON LAST YEAR'S TRADITIONS

Committees were appointed and plans formulated for Senior Women's Week, commencing May 24, at a meeting of senior women held yesterday afternoon in the liberal arts drawing room. Florence Strub, as vice-president of the 1920 class, presided.

Mortar-boards will be worn during this week and Senior women will observe the "cut-day" inaugurated last year. A picnic, a sing, and a theatre party will be on the program of events. It was also suggested that a petition be circulated to petition the faculty that seniors be exempt from final examinations.

Committees appointed, final arrangements for the various events and suggestions for the week's program are to be posted on the bulletin board outside the office of the dean of women. Seniors will consult this for the time, place, and arrangements of events to take place on Senior Week.

A. F. I. ELECTS THIS EVENING

Twelve Junior Men Will be Chosen for Honorary Society

A. F. I., honorary senior society for men, will elect its twelve successors this evening following a banquet at the Hotel Burkley. A. F. I. was founded in 1916. Its membership is limited to twelve men, who are elected the latter part of their junior year on the basis of their prominence in scholarship and extra-curricular activities. Juniors in all colleges are eligible for election.

It is the purpose of the society to provide leadership in campus activities. It was A. F. I. which prompted the Student Council at the first of the year.

The twelve seniors who are active members of the society at present are: Donald Nasby, president; Ralph E. Overholser, Edward Chamberlin, Lawrence Block, Robert Aurner, Fred Lohman, Leo Nicolaus, Dwight Ensign, Leon Brigham, Hugh Rosson, Arthur Pyles, and Roy Burns.

BISHOP REESE TALKS ON LABOR PROBLEMS

Unions Attempting to Carry Out the Teachings of Christ, Says the Ohio Coadjutor

Bishop Theodore Irving Reese of Columbus, Ohio, bishop coadjutor of the Episcopal church of the diocese of southern Ohio, spoke before a large University audience at vesper service Sunday afternoon at the natural science auditorium.

The subject which Bishop Reese chose for his sermon was, "The Leadership of the Spirit," and he emphasized the thought that although leaders come from the ranks of the educated men and women we should regard education not as the end but rather as the means to an end. It is necessary that all leaders be first isolated and then differentiated. A leader may be compared to a yeast cake which cannot do its work until the wrapper has been removed, he said.

Bishop Reese, who is an honorary member of the American Federation of Labor and is greatly interested in labor problems, said that the labor unions are at bottom trying to carry out the teachings of Christ. He mentioned Noah, whom he said was a labor leader in Bible times. He also spoke of modern leaders such as Florence Nightingale, and he held up Christ as the supreme leader who was put to death because he would not compromise.

The real test of a leader, said Bishop Reese, is the spirit and zeal which he puts into his work no matter what his profession may be.

America is now being swept by a wave of intense, individual selfishness, he remarked, and he urged that we should not forget the American boys who rest under the cross marked graves in France. But a few months ago we were fired by a splendid patriotism and were willing to give anything for our country; now we are forgetting our soldier graves abroad and we are even bored when we see a uniform in the movies or on the street.

The University orchestra and the vesper choir furnished music for the service. Bishop Harry Sherman Longley of Des Moines read the scripture and offered the invocation.

APPOINT WELLER AS CAMPAIGN DIRECTOR OF MEMORIAL UNION

Choose University Editor for Position Temporarily After Considering Many Names

SEEK A PERMANENT MANAGER

Post Will Need Man Who Can Handle Executive End of Enterprise—Amount Already Subscribed is Large and Will be Announced at Alumni Meeting in June

Prof. Charles H. Weller, University editor and director of the summer session, has been named by the executive committee of the board of trustees of the Iowa Memorial Union to be campaign director to raise $1,000,000 for the erection of the Memorial Union in honor of the institution's soldier dead and men who have served in the country's wars.

The appointment of Professor Weller is temporary, but he will serve until the permanent manager of the Union is selected or until his successor is appointed. The executive committee, in surveying the progress of the campaign, considered the qualifications of several men for permanent manager, but made no selection.

The permanent manager will be called upon not only to continue the campaign for funds but to be the executive head of one of the greatest educational elements in the University. As head of the Iowa Memorial Union he will be in one of the most influential educational positions in Iowa, directing a center for Americanization and unification of the University student body and alumni.

Considerable Money Raised

Aside from his official connections with the University, Professor Weller was publicity manager for the Liberty (Continued on page 3)

DEAN KAY TO SPEAK AT Y. M. CONFERENCE

Twenty University Men Will Go to Lake Geneva for Annual June Meeting

George F. Kay, dean of the college of liberal arts, has recently accepted an invitation to speak at the annual Geneva conference of Y. M. C. A. men at Lake Geneva, Wis., to be held from June 11 to 21. Twenty representatives will be allowed to go to the conference from the University.

Dean Kay will discuss college teaching as an avenue for leadership. The quota of representatives from the different schools has been limited because of the crowded conditions at the conference last year. R. H. Fitzgerald, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. is endeavoring to get permission to take a larger delegation. Eight-hundred representatives from Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, Ohio, North Dakota, and South Dakota will attend.

A committee consisting of Frank K. Shuttleworth, president of the Y. M. C. A., chairman; Ray Clearman, and Allan H. Herrick will receive applications and select the twenty men to represent the University. "The selection by a committee was made necessary due to the fact that several men outside of the council of fifty have already expressed a desire to go," said Secretary Fitzgerald. "As in the case of the Des Moines convention there will doubtless be many more applicants than our quota permits."

DEAN TEETERS IS HONORED

Elected Chairman of Conference of Pharmaceutical Faculties

Wilbur J. Teeters, dean of the college of pharmacy and chairman of the social committee, has been elected as chairman of the American Conference of Pharmaceutical Faculties of the American Pharmaceutical association. Dean Teeters has been attending a meeting of the American Pharmaceutical association which convened in Washington, D. C., from May 5 to May 10.

The American Conference of Pharmaceutical Faculties is composed of professors and representatives from forty-three schools and has been formed for nineteen years. The object of the conference is to advance and standardize pharmaceutical training.

Dean Teeters was chairman of the committee on higher educational standards at the convention and read a paper before the association. The association of pharmacy is similar to the American Medical association and the National Dental association and has been in existence sixty-eight years.

COMMERCE FRATERNITY INSTALLATION TODAY

Delta Sigma Pi Initiation Will be Followed by Banquet at Hotel Jefferson

Epsilon chapter of Delta Sigma Pi, national professional commerce fraternity, which was granted to the Guilders club several weeks ago, will be installed here this afternoon. Following the installation and initiation members of the new organization will banquet at the Hotel Jefferson.

This makes the fifth chapter to be installed in the United States, the other four being located at New York City, Chicago, Boston and Milwaukee. Delta Sigma Pi was founded at New York City in 1907. The purpose of the fraternity is to foster the study of business in Universities; to encourage scholarship and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice; to promote closer affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce; and to further a higher standard of commercial welfare of the community.

H. G. Wright, national president, of Chicago, and several other men from Chicago and Northwestern University are to install the new organization this afternoon. Delta Sigma Pi will be the tenth professional fraternity to be organized on the campus.

The ten charter members of Epsilon chapter will be: Paul K. Lovegren '21 of Burlington; Clarence W. Fackler '20 of Des Moines; Alfred H. Ribbink '20 of Muscatine; Warren P. Lawrence '21 of Anamosa; Erling Larson '21 of Kanawha; Harold S. Case '21 of Abington, Ill.; Leland B. Irish '21 of Whiting; Judson O. Burnett '21 of Rockford; Arthur G. Kruse '21 of Dysart; and Philip N. Peterson '22 of Linn Grove.

ILLINI GETS BREAKS ON IOWA BOBBLES AND WIN GAME 2-1

Shimek's Error and Two Passed Balls by Michaelson Allow Both Runs to Tally

ANDERSON MAKES A SCORE

Cracks Out Two Bagger and Comes Home for Iowa's Only Tally on Bad Throw to Catch Him—Ryan and Hamilton Split Honors in Pitcher's Battle

Three Hawkeye bobbles turned Iowa from the field yesterday afternoon with the short end of a 2 to 1 score against Illinois, and broke up a great pitcher's duel between Hamilton and Ryan. It was the first defeat of Coach Ashmore's men this season.

The Indians jumped into the lead in the first frame and never were headed, although several times it looked as if Iowa was going to tie or even pass the downstaters. Ryan, however, proved just strong enough to retire the side before the damaging hit was made. He was effective for the first seven innings and held the Hawkeyes to two hits; after that Iowa took a brace and threatened to wipe out his two run lead in the last two sallows.

Crosley Scores First

Mee started the trouble when the game was young with a single through Crary. Crosley forced him at second. McCurdy then proceeded to take three erratic wallops and retired, Crosley stealing second. Reichle then dumped a roller at Shimek but the Iowa shortstop got it tangled with his feet and Crosley scored. Iowa came back in the same fashion. Woodward walked, went to second on Draper's sacrifice, and was thrown out at the plate when attempting to score on McIlree's single to center.

From this time on until the seventh Hamilton and Ryan furnished the big show with the exception of a running catch by Anderson in the third when he doubled an Illinois runner off second by a quick throw.

Indians Increase Lead

A. T. O.'s QUARANTINED

Newell Johnson '22, Contracts Mild Case of Scarlet Fever

Newell S. Johnson '22, Alpha Tau Omega, of Woodbine, is in quarantine at the isolation hospital with a mild attack of scarlet fever. The members of the fraternity are under close observation and each member must report for a culture each day for the time being. Miss Dorothy Harvey '21, is also in the isolation hospital with scarlet fever.

"The situation is very good and not alarming, as the cases are very mild," said Dr. William J. McDonald, director of student health. Last month there were thirteen cases of scarlet fever in the University. The cause of the epidemic has not been discovered because of the mildness of the cases and the fact that the disease has not been carried from one person to another, according to Dr. McDonald.

The Phi Kappa Psi house is still under close observation because of the contraction of diphtheria by Robt. M. Cahail, sophomore engineer, who is in the isolation hospital. The house will be under quarantine until there are two negative cultures from each member.

A LITTLE SERVICE, PLEASE

The athletic board of the University staged a successful interscholastic field meet here Saturday. With it a dual meet was held with Minnesota and the manner in which events in both the high school and University sections were run off was gratifying indeed. After the spectator was safely ensconced on the cement stands of Iowa Field, nothing interfered with his afternoon's pleasure.

But before he reached his seat he had just cause for complaint. Perhaps in the rush of the many details incident to such an undertaking, the athletic board inadvertently slipped up on the matter of the ticket sale. Because of the extra attraction, the high school meet, it was necessary to charge holders of yearly athletic tickets 25 cents additional tariff. tariff.

Two windows, close together in the "shed" at the entrance of Iowa Field which functions as an office, were all that were provided to handle the crowd. One window served those students who held yearly athletic tickets and the other was for those without the tickets. The service was poor indeed. By exact time, it took one man, who paid $8 for a yearly athletic ticket last fall, twenty-one minutes, from the time he fell in line until he received his extra ticket. The complaints came naturally and frequently.

If it is necessary to charge extra fees again this year, and let's hope, and trust, and pray such an expedient will not be necessary, new provision should be made for the sale of tickets. A ticket stand in the business district, open at least one day before an athletic event, would cut the number of malcontents to a minimum.

STUDENTS IN POLITICS

The University is lacking in political organizations. It has its Lowden-for-President club and there are prospects of a Republican club being organized here in the near future, at least not later than the beginning of the next academic year.

Other universities throughout the country have their political organizations. They serve to better acquaint the students with each other and, to some degree, to interest students in national politics. The membership receives information of the how and why of things political that they could not secure in any other way. The leaders receive a valuable training that will prove its worth after they leave university halls.

Students should take a greater interest in things political. By political we do not mean the "peanut politics" or "button-hole politics" of the street corner variety. Rather we mean thought and action along lines that have to do with national political parties, their purposes and origin, as well as their views of government and the machinery of government.

The importance of college students becoming interested in politics cannot be overemphasized. The students who are on the college campus today will be leaders in the community life tomorrow. Those who guide the destiny of the country in the next generation are now largely found in American colleges or universities. The interest in good government and the best political road to such a government may best be laid when the citizen of tomorrow is finishing his higher education.

Training is provided in the theory of business and extra-curricular activities provide practical experience. Our institutions teach political science, but they do not teach practical experience in contemporary politics. Perhaps it is well that they do not. For the initiative in this case should rest largely with the students themselves.

Iowa students, both men and women, should take a greater interest in state and national politics that they may better be prepared to do their work in their community of tomorrow, when the present generation of leaders has handed over the reigns of government.

EDITORIAL VIEWS

PHI BETA KAPPA

The announcement of the elections to Phi Beta Kappa is made in another column of this issue. What does it signify? That 65 students, who have gone faithfully about the business of getting an education and have shown special ability, have been given public recognition and an honor that has a distinguished name.

This mark of excellence in scholarship carries with it an obligation to live up to the ideal of this society established nearly a century and a half ago. Its ideals are expressed in its name—the Greek words in which means "Philosophy, the Guide of Life."

No noise, no brass bands, no declaration of principles and programs, no figuring up of gate receipts—only a recognition of the real claim of the university upon the time and attention of its graduates. Not all worthy students can be recognized in such elections, and any one of the 65 who have been granted this honor could name other students more worthy than himself to receive it.

As no one will make the mistake of taking himself too seriously on account of this election so the others will not envy him a little glow of satisfaction—an hour's pleasure over it. If such an election in any way helps anyone "to work joyfully, to think deeply, to live wisely," then the object of the society has been attained and the best work done by the university received recognition.—Wisconsin Daily Cardinal

Shimek and Crary played the ball slow to get him. Hamilton then struck out Kissinger and had Ingwersen guessing when Michaelson let two of his fast ones get through and Haas took the remaining two bases as a gift.

Ryan started to go bad in the eighth as soon as Anderson smashed a fast one over the left fielder's head and scored when the Indian infield threw the ball to the cinder track. Hamilton got his second hit of the game and Parrott followed with a walk, only to have both of them stranded when Woodard and Draper popped out. Ryan started the ninth by hitting Leighton but got away lucky when two Iowa men fouled out and the game was over.

The game yesterday was the last between the two Universities for the year and leaves them at even terms, Hamilton taking a thirteen inning game from Ryan at Urbana recently 4 to 3. Illinois looked better in the field and behind the bat yesterday than the Hawkeyes, but this was offset by the edge Hamilton had on Ryan. Several times the Iowa captain was put in a tight place by his teammates but the visitors were not able to hit the ball out of the infield on such occasions.

Honors went to Hamilton in the strikeouts and he also was steadier with men on bases, walking only one against four by Ryan. Anderson's catch in the field and McCurdy's clever game behind the bat were the features.

Think!

IS THERE ANY EARTHLY REASON WHY YOU SHOULD ACCEPT "READY-MADE" CLOTHES— WHEN THE SAME MONEY WILL BUY YOU THE BEST MADE-TO-ORDER CLOTHES?

Men! Let's get down to brass tacks on this clothing proposition.

You wouldn't ride in a street car if you could roll around in a Packard or a Pierce-Arrow for the same money!

You wouldn't accept brass for gold; nor tin for silver—if the price were the same for all four metals.

And the only earthly reason why any man buys his clothes ready-made—instead of having them made to his particular preference is because he thinks he's saving money.

He thinks he's saving money. But he isn't. Not in this town.

Suppose we could prove to him beyond peradventure of a doubt—that the best, the finest made-to-measure, custom clothes would actually cost him less than ready-to-wears.

Would he go on buying factory-made, stock clothes—and paying more for them?

If he would—then he'd buy rhinestones at the price of diamonds—and be perfectly satisfied.

We say to you, here and now, that we can and will make the best custom tailored suits or overcoats to your order at $45—which is $15 to $25 less than equivalent qualities in ready-mades.

We ask you to let us prove it at our own risk and expense.

T-R-T

How can we undersell "ready-mades?"

Why, simply because we haven't a dollar invested in clothing stock—we sell from samples—and we can afford to accept about one-third of the clothing dealer's profit margin.

Think of the huge investment it requires to sell ready-made clothing. Think of the waste and loss in carried-over goods! All these expenses are eliminated by the Royal Tailored-to-Order plan.

The whole nation is waking to the fact that the Royal Way of selling clothes—direct from the wholesale house instead of from clothing cabinets—is the sane, the economic, the right way.

Ready-mades are not merely inferior to Royal Tailor Mades—but infinitely more extravagant.

Think, men! Think before you buy your next suit. Then you'll buy it Royal Tailored-to-Order.
