Ten candidates, representing four colleges of the University, are on the ballot for Daily Iowan trustees in the election tomorrow. Votes may be cast by subscribers only between 8 and 5 o'clock. Names and addresses must be signed to each ballot. No separate ballots will be printed. The ballot which appears in this issue will be used. The votes will be cast in the ballot box in the Daily Iowan office, room 14, liberal arts building.

Members of the Iowan board have expressed their appreciation over the enthusiasm and interest displayed by the various colleges.

Who Candidates Are

Of the following ten candidates only two may be voted for:

Edwin H. Lighter, Sigma Nu, is a reporter and desk editor on the Daily Iowan. He is the only candidate who is registered in journalism. He also is connected with the work on the 1921 Hawkeye.

Edmund J. Harrington, Psi Omega, is the candidate from the college of dentistry. Mr. Harrington is president of the sophomore dental class, and during his three years at Morningside, Sioux City, he served as business manager of the Sioux, the college annual.

One Woman Seeks Job

Marian Davis, Alpha Delta Pi and member of the Erodolphian literary society, is a candidate from the college of Liberal Arts. She is the only woman seeking election.

Robert L. Hunter, Apollo and a member of the Zetagathian literary society, the men's glee club and dramatic club, will be a freshman law student next year. Mr. Hunter, according to his own statement, is not the candidate from the college of Law.

Harry Kamer, Zetagathian and a student in the school of commerce, will take up journalistic work next year. He is especially interested in advertising and has had some experience in this work.

DASHES AND HURDLE RACES SET FOR FRIDAY

University freshmen who run in the dashes and hurdles will run off these events this afternoon as a part of the telegraphic meet to be held with Northwestern freshmen Thursday. Coach Fieseler announced last night. These include the 100, 200, 440, and high and low hurdles. The remaining cards of the track meet will be held over until Thursday.

Coach Fieseler said recently when the dual was first announced that men who placed would be recommended for numerals. Time will be caught on the leaders and the telegraphic comparison with the marks made at Evanston will determine the placing. No limit has been set on the number who may enter and as many heats will be run off as are necessary.

DANCING GIVEN BY AESTHETIC CLASSES

Graves, Heberling and Houser Appear in Novel Costume Solo Dances and Interpretations

A large audience witnessed the annual dancing demonstration given by the aesthetic and folk dancing classes at the women's gymnasium last night. Bright costumes, appropriate for the different folk dances gave a pleasing effect to the many graceful dances of the program.

Solo dances, given by Esther Graves '20, Marjory Heberling '20, and Ora Houser '20, were attractive and well interpreted. "Poupee Valsante," or the "Dancing Doll," by Poldini, was interpreted by Miss Graves, who was dressed in a costume of green leaves. Miss Heberling, who interpreted the Spanish dance "La Fera," wore a dazzling Spanish costume in keeping with her dance. Miss Houser interpreted the "White Rose Mazurka." She wore a white costume representing the petals of a white rose.

Among the novel group dances were, "Krackoviak," a polish dance, given by Mrs. Josephine Hunter Ray and Althea McGrath, the "Darky Schottische," and the Weaving dance given by members of the folk dancing class.

Dancing was under the direction of Edith Goodenough of the department of physical education. Dorothy Latchem, at the piano, accompanied the dancers.

A similar program consisting of seven numbers will be given for the delegates of the P. E. O. convention this afternoon at 2:30 at the women's gymnasium.

WOMEN JOURNALIST PLEDGES WEARING FRATERNITY SYMBOL

Huge, bright colored pencils, tied around the neck with green ribbons are being worn by Theta Sigma Phi pledges who are on probation until initiation Thursday evening. Pledges of the journalistic sorority are wearing queer little pledge pins that never appeared on the campus before. The pins are writing pens pinned over purple and green ribbons, the corority colors.

Initiation will be held Thursday evening, May 20, at the home of Mrs. Grace Partridge Smith on the west side, following a dinner at 6 o'clock in honor of the pledges. The five pledges are Sylvia Cochran '17 of Denison, now connected with the Iowa City Daily Citizen, Agnes Johnson '22 of Waterloo, Huberteen Kueneman '22 of North English, Thelma Graves '21 of Clarksburg, W. Va., and Eileen Galvin '20 of Anthon.

AMBITION OF SOCIAL CLIMBERS ON DISPLAY IN LIT PLAY TONIGHT

"Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh" to Show Westerners With Assumed Dignity Parading in the East

MISS BLATTNER HAS TITLE

Romance in Sub-Plot to be Carried by Genevieve Cleary, Edward Chamberlin and Henry E. Ruwe—Twelve Members of Irving—Erodolphian Societies Will Appear in Cast

Varied fortunes of the family of a patent medicine peddler of Missionary Loop, Indiana, parading with assumed dignity and under an assumed name in eastern social circles feature the presentation of "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh," to be staged by a cast of twelve from Irving-Erodolphian literary societies at the Englert theatre at 8:30 o'clock this evening.

The part of Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh, socially ambitious daughter of the Indiana "stomach elixir" salesman, about which the social element centers, is played by Helene Blattner. A sub-plot of romance which plays a prominent part in the production is carried by Genevieve Cleary, Edward H. Chamberlin, and Henry E. Ruwe Jr., in the characters of Violet de Salle, Geoffery Rawson, and Anthony Rawson.

Use Jubilee Scenery

Costumes and settings for the play are all modern and realistic. It was announced yesterday that some of the scenery used in the Law Jubilee will appear in tonight's production.

The complete cast of characters is: Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh ----- Helene Blattner
Nina ----- Maude Adams
Violet de Salle ----- Genevieve Cleary
Anthony Rawson ----- Henry E. Ruwe Jr.

PICK BEST STUNTS FOR P.E.O.'S ENTERTAINMENT

Visiting Delegates to See Various Acts of Year at N. S. Auditorium Thursday Evening

The finest parts of entertainments presented by University organizations this year, as considered by the P. E. O. chapter of Iowa City, will be presented again as a courtesy to the visiting delegates of P. E. O., Thursday evening, May 13, in the natural science auditorium. About 300 members of P. E. O. from all sections of the state are attending the convention which opened here last night and will close with the entertainment of Thursday night.

The program consists of: Selections from the girls' glee club concert.

An exhibition by the men's athletic team.

"You'll never know," duet by Martin Flentje and Glenn Thompson, accompanied by the Beauty chorus, taken from the engineers' show.

"It pays to advertise," presented by Whitby literary society at Iowawa.

The Gypsy Girl's Dance," given by Clarence E. Hamilton, accompanied by the laws' outdoor orchestra, taken from the Laws' Jubilee.

Hawaiian music, by the Cosmopolitan club.

"The Florist's Shop," presented by the Dramatic class of the public speaking department.

The ushers will be University girls who are members of P. E. O. Complimentary tickets are being given out by members of the local chapter.

LITERARY SOCIETY HEADS DISCUSS ROOMS IN UNION

Presidents and secretaries of both the men's and women's literary societies met with Prof. C. H. Weller, campaign director of the Memorial campaign, Ruth Rogers, field secretary, and Prof. Forest C. Ensign of the board of trustees at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon to present plans for literary society halls in the Iowa Memorial Union.

Whether one large hall to be used jointly by two societies with individual suites of rooms for offices and conference rooms would be best, or whether the societies should have smaller halls with entirely different arrangements was discussed.

GEOLOGY CLUB PLANS "CALVIN HOUR" MONDAY

Tribute Will be Paid to Former Professor of University by an Appropriate Program

The Geology Club of the University will hold a "Calvin Hour" in honor of former Prof. Samuel Calvin, next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which time all students in the department of geology and their friends will be invited to attend. The purpose of this meeting is to impress upon the students the greatness of the contribution to science made by Professor Calvin while holding a chair in this University.

Mrs. Calvin, wife of Professor Calvin, has accepted an invitation to attend. Addresses on the life of Professor Calvin will be made. Prof. A. C. Trowbridge will talk on "Doctor Calvin as a Scientist"; Prof. A. O. Thomas on "Doctor Calvin as a Teacher"; and Dean G. F. Kay on "Doctor Calvin as a Man."

Dr. Calvin was a professor of geology for forty years at Iowa and was Dean Kay's predecessor as state geologist from 1892 to 1911. At the time of the meeting of the Iowa Academy of Science held here last month, a portrait of Professor Calvin was presented to the State Historical department at Des Moines by the Academy. This portrait is now in the care of the Geology Club and will be exhibited at the meeting Monday.

ANNETTES COMPETE THURSDAY

Fourteen Women to Seek Swimming Letters at Meet Tomorrow Night

Contests consisting of races, demonstrating various swimming strokes, plunging, and diving will feature the annual woman's swimming meet to be held at the women's gymnasium tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Fourteen enthusiastic "Annettes" have already signified their intention of competing for the numerals to be awarded to the winners. Margaret Starbuck '22, who won the meet last year, will enter the Thursday meet. Those who star tomorrow evening will be given opportunity to compete with the men in their meet May 19.

Those planning on taking part in the meet are: Adele Kimm, Beatrice Mc Garvey, Margaret Starbuck, Edna Grimm, Alene McGrath, Helen Hayes, Amy Littig, Dorothy O'Donoghue, Eleanor Williams, Ruth Rowland, Gladys Taggart, Catherine Wright, Julia Darrow and Emilia Hartman.

PLANE HERE THIS WEEK

The Aero Club of Iowa City will receive the plane for which it has been waiting, Friday or Saturday, according to a telegram received by Karl Fischer, Phi Gamma Delta, who is pilot for the club.

PROMINENT JUNIORS ARE MADE MEMBERS OF HONOR SOCIETY

A. F. I. Elects Twelve Third Year Men to Membership in Senior Honorary Group

NAME REPRESENTATIVE MEN

Leadership in Extracurricular Activities is Criterion by Which Men Are Selected—Members of A. F. I. Typify the Iowa Spirit—Is Semi-secret Organization

- Clyde Charlton of Rolfe
- Clyde Doolittle of Delhi
- Robert Finlayson of Clinton
- Robert Hayes of Iowa City
- Edgar P. Hoffman of Ida Grove
- Robert Kaufman of Davenport
- William Kelly of Newton
- Vance McIlree of West Union
- Floyd Page of Ida Grove
- Frank Shuttleworth of Sibley
- Fred A. Steiner of Corydon
- Benjamin Synhorst of Pella

The above named junior men were elected to membership of A. F. I., honorary senior society, at a banquet at the Burkley hotel last evening.

Membership in A. F. I. is based upon prominence in the student life of the University. While scholarship is considered important, leadership in extracurricular activities is the criterion of election. Achievement in dramatics, athletics, publications, literary and journalistic work and the working out of the Iowa Spirit all count toward making an A. F. I. man.

The men elected to membership in the honorary society last evening will be initiated into the semi-secret organization June 2.

The Men Chosen

Clyde Charlton is a letter man in football and a delegate to the inter-fraternity conference. He was chairman of the junior Prom committee. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Clyde Doolittle is a candidate for the Republican nomination to the legislature from his home county. He is a member of the Student Council, and of Sigma Chi and Phi Alpha Delta fraternities.

Robert Finlayson came into University prominence as stellar forward on the Varsity basketball team, winning his I in that branch of sport. He is a member of Theta Xi fraternity.

Robert Hayes is a member of the Hawkeye staff and assistant sports editor of the Daily Iowan. He is also a member of Irving literary society.

Edgar P. Hoffman is one of the Hawkeye track stars. He broke the Iowa Field record for the high jump at the Iowa-Coe meet this spring. He is vice-president of the junior class and a member of Acacia fraternity.

Robert Kaufman is a member of the Student Council and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He has his letter in football and basketball and is a delegate to the Pan-hellenic council.

William Kelly is captain of the football team and has his letter in the gridiron game. He is president of the junior class, past president of the Y. M. C. A., and a member of Delta Chi fraternity.

Vance McIlree is one of Iowa's twirlers on the varsity baseball team. He has his I in the diamond game and his I-2 in basketball. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Floyd Page has his letter in track and is president of the junior law

THE SPONSOR SYSTEM

A Sponsor System movement has been started on the campus under the auspices of the Women's Council. A chairman has been named and 160 girls have volunteered their services in the work which will be tried out at Iowa for the first time next September.

Under the system proposed every girl entering the University will be assigned to an upper classwoman who will be responsible for her welfare during her entire freshman year, and more particularly during the bothersome week of registration. Many prospective freshmen will receive helpful hints from their sponsor by mail, for girls will be assigned as fast as they complete their intentions of coming to the University.

Incoming first year women will be met at the trains, if they have no other organization or individual to meet them. They will be shown about the city. The things worth while will be explained to them. The thousand and one things that a freshman wants to know will be answered by someone in whom the freshman has confidence and, at least, a slight acquaintance.

The Sponsor System is not new in University circles. At the University of Wisconsin the junior women, organized under the name Yellow Tassel, perform this service. The Big Sister movement at the University of Minnesota does a similar work there.

Such a system would be a valuable asset to the University of Iowa. The Women's Council is doing a concrete service for the University. A sponsor system will do much to make pleasant those apprehensive first few days of the freshman's career at the University. The freshman woman will get a better start in college and get that start with less disappointments and lonesomeness if she has a "big sister" to help her in the many small difficulties that arise.

HEADS UP THERE, IOWA

The University baseball team lost its first game of the season Monday to Illinois, a team it had beaten in an earlier contest. Iowa, flushed with three consecutive victories over Big Ten teams, did not seem to have the stuff Monday afternoon. It seemed to lack the fight and zip that characterized the playing of the Illinois team. Perhaps the weekend trip to Indiana was too strenuous for the Hawkeyes.

It was apparent that Iowa's men were excited at the start. There was a tension in their every move. They believed that upon the result of Monday's game rested the final outcome of the conference championship. They had their "daubers" down.

Coach Ashmore has a good team. The best of teams have their off days and perhaps Monday was Iowa's time to slow down. The Hawkeyes still can win the conference title. It'll take a lot of fight to accomplish the trick but that is one of the virtues of Iowa's athletic teams. Let's show them that old fight, Iowa. Let's meet

Michigan next Monday with our heads up.

THE LISTENING POST

The financial crash of the Midland Packing company at Sioux City last week recalled to us knit neckties, set with diamond stickpins, silk shirts of the brightest hues and rarest fabrics, worn by self-satisfied young men who dashed around in high powered motor cars and danced late at night in Sioux City's one-hoss cabarets.

How we disliked those stock salesmen—those self satisfied young men of the silk shirts and knitted neckties! They were amusing in a way too, but when we encountered them in the lobby of the Martin hotel, our enmity arose. They sold Midland Packing company stock, they would tell you in their complacent manner. "The largest corporation in Iowa," was one of the talking points. Just as though we cared a rip. Our disgust reached its highest point on those days which we were assigned to write articles for The Journal about the progress being made on the Midland plant. "Stock is selling fine," Mr. Sawyer, the president, told us one day. We knew that. The silk shirts and knit neckties of the stock salesmen bore startling testimony of the fact.

But to our friend John Peterson, at one time a member of the University wrestling team, goes the honor of predicting the downfall of the Midland Packing company. Peterson "did" the stockyards for The Journal and one day while we were down there with him, we passed the Midland plant, then in the process of construction. "That company will close its doors within six months after it opens for business," he told us. We laughed. "They've got $8,000,000 behind them," we reminded him. Then he laughed. "Wallingford had billions behind him," was his subtle reply. We tip our hat to Peterson.

EDITORIAL VIEWS

MICHIGAN'S NEED

"Michigan is a snobbish school." Such a statement, spoken with all sincerity, puts us immediately upon the defensive.

Just how is Michigan snobbish and to what extent?

Many of us are too indifferent when called upon to speak to our fellow students—not to a "half-baked" friend, but to a casual acquaintance in class, to the fellow who recognizes us and who in turn is recognized by us. Are you afraid that he might think you are getting too familiar? If he does think so, he is a small man and does not belong here; if he returns your salutation in a friendly spirit, Michigan wants his company. This is a large school and if there is anything which will make it seem larger it is "not seeing the other fellow."

Just speak because he is a Michigan man and you are a Michigan man. Most of us live only one University life, and that's short enough. Perhaps this fellow you have been passing up might some day be your boss; or you might run across him in New York or London or where not—maybe Cuba. And if you are a real Michigan man you will want to speak to him.

You might be surprised to find him a bank president, or still more surprised to find him selling Larkin's soap; but he is a Michigan man and for that reason deserves a salutation.

This life is too short to nourish small prides and prejudices, even if your father does own half of your city, or even if you yourself are a campus celebrity. You can't tell which one of these men you would like to know some day. Play safe! Show democratic spirit by speaking to that class neighbor; if he doesn't register your friendly attack, you, at least, have the satisfaction of knowing that he does not belong here and that the quicker he leaves the better.

—The Michigan Daily.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mathematics Club will meet Thursday afternoon, May 13, at 4:10, in room 222 physics building. Eda Kelley '21 will speak on "The Number Pi." All interested are invited.

Bethany Circle will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. George Gay, 726 Iowa avenue, at 7:15 o'clock.

SICKNESS IS CURTAILED BY STUDENT HEALTH

Practically no new cases of diphtheria or scarlet fever have been reported to the board of health in the last twenty-four hours which indicates that the Student Health board has been taking care of the cases. Newell S. Johnson '22, Alpha Tau Omega, has been taken to the isolation hospital and those men who had been exposed have been quarantined in the house. Other men in the house have been reporting every day to Dr. William J. McDonald, director of student health, for examination.

Only one case of scarlet fever has been traced to a known case. The other cases are all widely scattered and are due to cases too mild to be recognized, with which these students have come in contact.

Robert Cahail, Phi Kappa Psi, of Davenport, who was taken to the isolation hospital for diphtheria, is reported to have a serious case. The other men in the house who were exposed will be released from quarantine when two negative cultures are taken. "The situation is not alarming because the cases are of a mild nature," said Dr. McDonald.

COUNCIL CONSTITUTION IS RATIFIED BY LAWS

The laws unanimously ratified the proposed constitution for the student council which appeared in Tuesday's Iowan, at a meeting of the Law Students' Association, held in the law building yesterday afternoon. The chief change in the new constitution is in the matter of representation.

Plans were also made for a smoker to be given for all students considering entering the law college next year. It will be held in the law building Thursday evening, May 20.

DO YOU or DON'T YOU

I say you do read our ads. The Boss says you don't. At any rate if you do read this ad we'll both profit by it.

Our boss (we call him Old Timer), says that if we do fix up some arrangement to get a 'Check' on our advertising, that you will either be too proud or else so afraid that there is a 'nigger in the grass' someplace that you won't pay any attention to it.

I tell the Old Timer that you are just a natural human being, that you would only be too glad to buy your drugs at 1/4 off just to help me prove 'It pays to advertise,' so I can keep my job another year.

Don't I win? Sure I do, but you must tear this ad out and bring it to the store the next time you have anything to buy that we sell (Except Eastman Kodak Goods), and we'll give you 1/4 off on all you buy at that time.

lenic council, which will be held at the Alpha Chi Omega house, Thursday night. The methods by which it is conducted in other colleges will be considered.

Under this system, each sorority in Pan-hellenic council sends the names of its rushees to a disinterested party. The rushees express to this party, first, second and third preferences. If elected, they are notified by this person. The aim of the system is to do away with influence upon the rushees at hours when no communication is supposed to be held, according to Frances Nelson, Gamma Phi Beta, president of Pan-hellenic.

Delta Gamma, Delta Zeta, and Alpha Theta have elected their delegates for next year to Pan-hellenic. Delta Gamma elected Margaret Benton, as junior delegate, and Pauline Thompson, as senior delegate in place of Nancy Lamb, junior delegate of this year, who will not be in the University next year. The other newly elected junior delegates are Agnes Johnson, from Delta Zeta, and Ruth Reeder from Alpha Theta.

CHANGE STATUS IN PHI BETA KAPPA

Only Seniors With Average of 90 Percent Eligible as Members, Says Benjamin

All full seniors who have an average of 90 percent will be eligible to membership in Phi Beta Kappa, according to a revised constitution of the Iowa Alpha chapter. The only qualification is that 45 semester hours of the student's work must have been done at the University.

The names of the seniors who have been chosen will be announced within the next two weeks, following a business meeting of the society, and initiation will be held June 7, according to Prof. Gilbert G. Benjamin, president of the local chapter.

The ruling requiring an average of 90 is a new one, replacing the old method of selecting the highest 10 per cent of the senior class. The standing will be materially the same, however, since the 10 per cent basis rarely included those who had an average of less than 90, according to Mr. Benjamin.

Since B is counted as 87 per cent, it will be necessary to have almost straight B's with some A's, to meet the requirement.

Another change in the constitution permits the election of graduate students who have completed a year's work here with a sufficiently high standing.

Under the present plan, two elections are held during the year. At the first election, at the end of the first term quarter, the five students of highest standing who are full seniors, are chosen, in addition to any summer school graduates who attained the required average.

TEN STUDENTS SEEKING IOWAN TRUSTEE JOBS

A. S., is the candidate of the Iowan subscribers in the college of applied science.

Carlton Ernestene, Phi Kappa Psi, is a three year pre-medical student, who is seeking the editor-in-chiefship of next year's Hawkeye.

David N. Richardson, president of the Tri-city club and a member of the Eels club and the Quadrangle council, has had newspaper experience on the Davenport Democrat.

William O. Moore is a member of Philomathean literary society.

Donald Holdeogel, Sigma Phi Epsilon and a member of the Zetaganthian literary society, intends to enter the journalistic field next year and major in this line of work.

class. He is a member of Phi Delta Phi and Acacia fraternities.

Frank Shuttleworth is president of the Y. M. C. A. and of Irving literary society. He has been active in campus activities since his freshman year.

Fred A. Steiner is editor-in-chief of the Hawkeye and a member of the Daily Iowan staff. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon and Sigma Delta Chi fraternities.

Benjamin Synhorst is a letter man in football and was one of the mainstays on the Hawkeye squad until he left the team. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta and Nu Sigma Nu fraternities.

Former Members

The present membership of A. F. I. who will graduate this June are Donald Nasby, Ralph E. Overholser, Edward Chamberlin, Lawrence Block, Robert Aurner, J. Mel Hickerson, Leo Nicolaus, Dwight Ensign, Leon Brigham, Hugh Rosson, Arthur Pyles, Roy Burns and Fred Lohman.

Forcing Down Prices

There are mighty few signs of prices lowering on any kind of commodities.

BUT WE CAN OFFER LOWER PRICES NOW

We do this because we own the goods and can sacrifice them as we desire; also because we are determined to make this do as much money-saving for the people of this community as possible.

But, to share in the money-saving, you must attend this event and share in the merchandise advertised in the daily papers.

Every item that we're advertising is a to the high cost of living—making the cost vastly lower to you.

COME TODAY. BE ON TIME.

"At the Jefferson"

The three restaurants of the Jefferson are unlike each other in everything but excellence. At one time or another you'll probably use them all.

The most beautiful and luxurious of them—and a perfect setting for any meal—is the Main Dining Room. But when your principle concern — besides, of course, a good meal—is fast service and little ceremony, the Coffee Room will be just right. And for the man who is pressed for time, with only a minute or two for a hurried lunch, there's the Quick Service, which meets such emergencies quite satisfactorily.
