

WET GROUNDS KEEP IOWA AND MICHIGAN FROM DIAMOND CLASH

Wolverines Cannot Play Here Today Because of Having a Game Scheduled With Ohio.

PLAY AT ANN ARBOR SOON

Teams to Meet On May 22 in What May Be the Deciding Conference Battle—Parks, Pitching Ace of Lundgren's Team, May Fall Like Cicotte, Say Dopesters.

Michigan will not play here this afternoon. Wet grounds made it necessary to call off the game yesterday and the Wolverines had to leave last night for the east where they will meet Ohio State at Columbus today, so that a game could not be arranged for this afternoon.

Cancellation of the game doubtless will have a marked bearing on the Conference championship and it gives the edge slightly to Michigan as the Hawkeyes must play Coach Lundgren's men on their own pasture and do not get a chance at them here. May 22 is the date set for the Iowa-Michigan game at Ann Arbor. It will probably be the deciding game of the Big Ten race.

May Mean Title.

A victory for either team means practically the championship or at least a tie for it. If Iowa wins the team will likely come through the season with only one defeat, and Michigan can do no better. In order for Illinois to win the Indians must continue the season without another defeat and that is unlikely.

Iowa has only one Conference game left after the Michigan game, a return game here with Purdue and it looks like a victory for the Hawks after the one to one tie at Lafayette early in the season.

Iowa Team Improves.

The recent game at Ames showed a decided change for the better. After showing both strong and weak at the bat for some time the Hawkeyes plugged Plagge, highly reputed pitcher in Missouri Valley conference circles, so hard that the game was drawn out for nearly three hours.

Parks, the king of the Wolverines, is known to be a world beater, but so was Eddie Cicotte until he met the Redlegs from down Cincinnati way, and a bobble behind him may bring a wail from the Wolverines as the Hawkeyes have a tendency to hit the ball at inopportune moments for the opposition. Hamilton can be depended upon to stop many budding batting rallies and with good support looks just as good as his heralded opponent.

SENIORS MUST PAY FEE OF $10

Students Expecting to Graduate Advised to See Secretary Bates.

All University seniors who expect to receive their degrees at Commencement on June 15, should pay their graduation fee of $10 before May 20, according to a statement made by W. H. Bates, secretary. This fee pays for the diploma.

But few colleges this year are giving sheepskins, because of the scarcity of that article. Some colleges will give degrees and provide for supplying diplomas later when a supply of sheepskin is available. Though scarcity of the article has caused trebling of the price in the last year or two, the University has a supply on hand that is expected to last until next year, when it is hoped that more can be obtained.

LOWDEN OFFERS PRIZE TO MATHEMATICIANS

An examination for the Lowden mathematical prize of $50 open to all students finishing the sophomore work in mathematics this year will be held on Saturday, May 29, from 8 to 11 a. m. in room 222 of the physics building. The prize is offered annually by Frank O. Lowden, governor of Illinois and candidate for president on the republican ticket.

Subjects covered by the examination are arithmetic, algebra, geometry, plane trigonometry, analytical geometry of two dimensions, differential and integral calculus. The prize may be divided equally between not more than two candidates or withheld entirely in case none of the candidates give evidence of superior ability. Those intending to compete must submit their name to Prof. Henry L. Rietz, professor of mathematics, at an early date.

TRACK TEAM MEMBER IS HURT ON TRAIN

Glenn R. Rotten, Broad Jumper, Injured Sunday While Returning From Ames Meet.

Glenn R. Rotten '22, University broad jumper, was seriously injured on Sunday while returning with the track team from Ames, where he took part in the Iowa-Ames meet on Saturday. He is in the University hospital at the present time. His physician reports that he is recovering.

Mr. Rotten was standing on the steps of a railway coach as the train was slowing down at Mount Tour, Ia., and was leaning out trying to see a hot box on one of the car's trucks when he was struck on the side by a signal post.

He was able to keep his hold until other members of the team lifted him into the car. He was given medical attention and when the train reached Iowa City was taken to the hospital. Unless no internal injuries develop Mr. Rotten will recover from the accident. He bled freely after he was struck and it was feared for a time that he was mortally hurt.

Mr. Rotten will not be able to participate in the state track meet at Des Moines on Saturday, it was announced yesterday.

SICKNESS ON DECREASE HERE

Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria on Decline, Says Doctor McDonald.

Scarlet fever among University students is on the decline according to word given out at the office of William J. McDonald, director of student health, yesterday. The epidemic is believed to have been carried by a student with a mild case of the disease who neglected to report the case to the director of student health.

Two students gave clinical evidence of having diphtheria this month and there were four or five cases with positive cultures. Doctor McDonald believes that the spread of this disease can be attributed to a carrier who is now under observation. There is evidence that partial blame for the epidemic may be placed elsewhere than with the carrier and efforts are now being made to obtain positive proof. There was but one case of diphtheria last month.

"The alternating warm and cold weather of the last few days has brought the usual number of catarrhal cases and mild colds in its wake," said Doctor McDonald. He urges greater care in dressing to obviate the effects of the inclement weather.

MEN AND WOMEN WILL COMPETE IN AQUATIC PROGRAM WEDNESDAY

Shephard Returns From Isolation Hospital After Indications of Scarlet Fever Disappear.

EIGHTEEN EVENTS ARE SET

Features and Fancy Diving by Both Men and Women Will Compose Program—Twenty Tickets Left For Sale at Whetstone's—Doors Closed to Single Admissions Until 7:20.

Swimming events at the Armory Wednesday evening will begin at 7:30 o'clock and all ticket holders must be present by 7:20 o'clock when single admissions will be admitted. This program is to be the biggest event of the year, composing both men and women in eighteen events. Shephard, the Iowa stellar swimmer who has been in the isolation hospital with indications of scarlet fever, has been released and will take part in the program tomorrow night.

About twenty tickets remain for sale at Whetstone's for 35 cents and when these are sold the sale will close. The feature event of the program will be a handicap race between the men and women teams. Women will also take part in fancy diving events.

Eighteen Events Listed.

Following is a list of the events and entrants for the evening's program: Eel Slide—Members of the Eel club. 40 yard dash—Anneberg, Brown, Weidlein, Bond and Shephard. Bag stunt—David Richardson; and novelty by Goodell and Rademacher. Men's fancy diving—Shephard, Weidlein, Ward, and Pillars. 100 yard breast stroke—Dethlefs, Dilgner, Vedova, Mills, C. L. Smith. Potato relay—Two freshman teams consisting of: (1) Ward, Smith, Clark, Colby; (2) Gallop, Munkhoff, Strait, Evans.

Women's fancy diving—Voss, Kimm, McGarvey, E. Graves, C. Graves, Taggart, Proudft. 40 yard swim with hands and feet tied—Ward, Mills, Gallop, Rademacher. 100 yard backstroke—C. L. Smith, Mills, Weber, Pillars.

Men and Women Race.

Men's and Women's handicap race—Feature event of the program—Women's team: Kimm, Starbuck, Lit-tig, Hayes, O'Donohoe, McAlvin, Wright, Shore, Peterman; Men's team: Anneberg, Weidlein, Shephard, Brown, Bond, Rademacher.

Hawaiian Canoe and Mississippi Steamboat race—Eel club.

Demonstration of butterfly, muskrat, bicycle, somersault, spiral, and lobster.

Demonstration of strokes—Crawl, Italian crawl, side stroke, back stroke, breast stroke, by Eel swimmers.

100 yard dash—Anneberg, Shephard, Brown, Bond, Weidlein.

Push ball—Freshman and varsity teams.

Plunge for distance—Forney, Cannon, Newport.

Sinking of battleship, featuring human submarine and hydroplane—Shephard, Weidlein, Cannon, Ward.

SENIOR CLASS MEETS TODAY

Members of the senior class of the University will hold a meeting at 11:50 o'clock this morning in the liberal arts assembly, according to Don A. Nasby, president. Several events pertaining to the commencement exercises.

WON'T DROP SO-LONG FRIVOL FROM A PLANE

Rumors on the campus to the effect that free copies of the So-Long Frivol will be dropped from Earl Fisher's aeroplane, due to arrive here within the next few days, have been denied by Bruce Gould, business manager of Frivol.

In regard to the matter Mr. Gould said yesterday, "I have made no such arrangements with Mr. Fisher. It is true that I considered the matter seriously, but the plan was discarded as not feasible."

The So-Long Frivol will be on sale Wednesday, May 26.

'BIG JUNE PUSH' IS PLANNED FOR UNION

Memorial Forces to Make Concerted Solicitation For Subscriptions at Commencement Time.

All the wheels of the Iowa Memorial Union machinery are being oiled for the "Big June Push" for subscriptions from alumni and former students throughout the state and from the student body of the University. Only 1,470 out of Iowa's 4,500 students now enrolled have contributed as yet but every opportunity will be given them to subscribe from 9 o'clock on the morning of June 1 to midnight June 11.

"All officers are directed to report daily the extent of their gains and on June 11 are to send back the results of their victory," said Prof. Charles H. Weller, campaign director. He explained, too, that such military language translated into civilian terms simply meant a tremendous concentration of effort to secure pledges for the Iowa Memorial Union.

The big drive closes at Commencement when the annual meeting of the University of Iowa association will be held and the total amount of subscriptions to date will be made public. A definite quota for students will be set in a few days; their contributions to date total $39,568.

Instead of buying a memorial such as the seat at the Point, the statue of Sophocles in front of liberal arts drawing room, or anything of that nature, this year's senior class will be canvassed for life memberships in the Union. "It certainly isn't much, this $50 membership," said one senior. "We all ought to do at least that much, when we consider that Yale, Harvard, and other alumni give more than that, in addition to the big tuition they are compelled to pay."

TICKETS GO ON SALE FOR CONCERTS ON NEXT TUESDAY

Tickets for the afternoon and evening concerts to be given here by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, May 25, in the armory, are on sale at $2 until Thursday, May 20. After that date the price will be advanced to $2.50. Tickets for a single concert will be put on sale May 21 at a price of $1.50. The tickets may be obtained at Ries' Iowa book store, the University book store, Weineke's book store, Whatstone's, Harmony hall, Ragan's music house, Sunier's music house, and the Johnson County bank. Seats may be reserved at the Johnson County bank from May 21 to 24.

The Minneapolis Symphony orchestra draws its membership from musicians in all parts of the world. It is called the Minneapolis, because the people of that city subscribed the guarantee fund, which made possible its organization, sixteen years ago. Fifty players, performing upon twenty different instruments, now make up the orchestra. Emil Oberhoffer has conducted it since its beginning.

JUNIOR WOMEN ELECT TO STAFF AND CIRCLE IN TODAY'S BALLOT

Twenty Nominees Elected Saturday at Junior Breakfast Comprise List of Candidates.

RECEIVE NO APPLICATIONS FOR DAILY IOWAN JOBS

No applications have yet been received at the office of Prof. C. H. Weller, University editor, for the position of editor-in-chief and business manager of next year's Daily Iowan. According to the constitution of the Daily Iowan Publishing company, the petitions must be in as soon as possible in order to be acted on at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trustees in June.

The qualifications of the positions require that the candidates must be seniors in good standing. The salary for both positions is $300 a year with opportunity for increasing that amount on a commission basis.

SANDWICH SALE IS POPULAR

Women of Athletic Association Find Many Buyers at Gymnasium.

That the sale of sandwiches at the women's gymnasium is a decided success is well proven by the fact that 700 of the peanut, date and cheese variety were sold last week, by the girls of the Women's Athletic association. The profit netted thereon which will go into the treasury of the association to help on the playground proposition.

On certain days of last week the college of applied science came in for its share. This week the girls are planning to include the dental and law buildings in the sale. Jean Spiers, president of the Women's Athletic association, says, "the best thing about it is the way everybody is taking hold of the work, for the girls are either volunteering to help make them or to sell them; fully two-thirds of our membership of seventy-five are on the job." Miss Marion R. Lyon, speaking for the board of control, said she was thoroughly in favor of the plan.

COLLEGE PRESS

Montana—Women who work their way through college at the University of Montana have established a cooperative house where they may cook their meals.

Harvard—It has at last been decided to consider basketball as a major sport at Harvard.

Park College, Missouri—Thirty-one victories out of the last forty debates with the leading colleges of several states is the record of Park College. Eleven state victories have been won since 1903.

Kansas University—It has been estimated by the "Daily Kansan" that at average speed one travels two miles in eight dance numbers. Counting two dances each week end and seventy-two Friday and Saturday nights in the school year, 238 is the smallest average that can be danced.

Swathmore, Penn.—A mail pilot flying low in order to flirt with a group of college girls fell into a clump of trees. Students are now decorating their rooms with aerial apparatus.

Ames—Maurice "Maury" Kent, former baseball coach at the University of Iowa, has been engaged to direct the basketball and baseball activities at Ames starting next fall. He will also assist in coaching the football team. He graduated from Iowa several years ago where he was a star pitcher.

Iowa's Most Famous

ALL YOUR MEMORIAL QUERIES ANSWERED HERE IN A NUTSHELL

By Prof. C. H. Weller.

1. When did the idea of a student union originate?

It is an old idea. The majority of the great universities have unions or are on the way toward building them. One was established at Iowa in the old St. James hotel but came to an end when the hotel burned.

2. Who started the present project?

It would be hard to say. The war furnished the occasion, and definite action was taken by the University of Iowa Association in June, 1919.

3. What organization is backing the project?

The University of Iowa Association, working through a special corporation, the Iowa Memorial Union. The trustees of the Union are prominent alumni: Fred W. Sargent, Chairman, F. C. Ensign, Secretary, W. H. Bremner, Rush C. Butler, Charles M. Dutcher, W. O. Finkbine, John M. Grimm, Joe R. Lane, D. D. Murphy, Myra Bloom Sheuerman, J. B. Weaver.

4. Where will the Union be housed?

In a magnificent new building constructed to meet its various needs.

5. Why will this be called the Memorial Union?

Because it is designed to honor the memory of the sons and daughters of Iowa who have served the nation in its great wars. Their names will be inscribed on appropriate tablets in the building as a perpetual memorial.

6. Will the Union be allied with American ideals and interests?

Nothing surer. It will be dedicated to true Americanism, and its very existence will be a pledge of earnest and patriotic service. Arising out of a desire to honor those who have shown their willingness to sacrifice for America, its every influence will be for a devoted patriotism. This will be one of its most definite and important aims.

7. In what way will the Union be a "social center"?

In the first place it will be a general assembly place. Here students will find club rooms, class and committee rooms, game rooms, grill rooms, and quarters for the many organizations dear to the student's heart.

8. What organizations will be accommodated?

Their names are legion. The literary societies will have suitable suites; the dramatic club a fully equipped "little theatre;" the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., Newman Society, such offices, assembly rooms, and service rooms as they require; the glee clubs, practice rooms; student publications, appropriate offices; the various clubs and societies, a meeting place; etc. Demands are many, and each will be met as nearly as possible according to desire, subject to architectural considerations. The organizations are being consulted as to the requirements.

9. And the alumni?

Just such a suite as they have long desired, with club rooms, offices for the secretary of the Alumni association, etc.

10. Will the building have any large hall?

The plans contemplate a large and beautiful memorial hall with upwards of 3,000 feet of floor space and suitable for homecomings, formal and informal receptions, and dances. This will be a feature of the building.

11. Is the Union designed for both men and women?

Decidedly so. Iowa is a coeducational institution. The Union will have appropriate quarters for either sex and a joint club room for both men and women.

12. Do the students want the Union?

Undoubtedly. They have already subscribed $40,000, and it is expected that the total student subscriptions will be from $60,000 to $75,000. "Actions speak louder than words."

13. Will the Union be large enough to satisfy future needs?

That is the intention. With the University growing so fast as it is, this consideration is important, but it is believed that ample room will be afforded for many years.

14. Have architectural plans for the Union building been approved?

Only tentative plans have been drawn as yet. The design submitted is very noble, but its interior arrangements are subject to the requirements of its occupants.

15. How much is the building to cost?

Its estimated cost is $1,000,000. A smaller amount will not suffice to cover the needs.

16. When and where will the building be erected?

As soon as possible. The trustees are eager to begin construction. No decision has yet been made as to its site.

17. Who is expected to furnish the million dollars?

Alumni, students, former students, faculty, and friends of the University, whoever and wherever they may be.

18. How much is each individual expected to subscribe?

According to his ability. If every alumnus and student would subscribe only a fraction of the difference between the cost of his education and what he paid for tuition, the amount could be raised over night. Students of state universities have been too prone to take the beneficence of the State for granted and to fail in realizing a corresponding obligation.

19. Will subscribers be entitled to the privileges of the Union?

They will; non-subscribers will not without special fee. Those who subscribe above certain amounts will be entitled to certificates of life membership.

20. What are the rates for life membership?

For students, a subscription of $50 or over; for alumni, $100 or over. Of course these are minimum figures, and persons who are able should give more generously. Hear the dictum: "Freely ye have received; freely give."

21. How are the subscriptions to be paid?

Either in cash or in four annual installments.

22. When is the first payment due?

At any time in the year 1920. The subscriber may fix the date according to his own convenience.

23. Where can a pledge card be obtained?

By addressing the Iowa Memorial Union, Iowa City, Iowa.

24. How much has already been subscribed?

A full financial statement will be made at the annual meeting of the University of Iowa Association, June 14, 1920. The trustees have thought that a report before that time would be premature. Very encouraging progress has been made.

25. Are subscribers likely to be harassed with future solicitations?

No. Nor need the amount subscribed be a burden. A degree of self-sacrifice may reasonably be expected.

26. How much should I subscribe?

That is for you to say. This is a big enterprise, and a million dollars is a lot of money. You should at least become a life member if it is in any way possible, but if you have prospered in this world's goods, you should give much more generously. Present subscriptions are from $10,000 down to rather small sums, but some of the small sums represent more sacrifice than some of the larger ones. Consult your conscience.

27. Why does not the State build such a building?

The State assumes the burden of equipment and instruction. The Union, while an essential, is so personal a thing that the tax-payers can hardly be asked to supply it. As well expect them to furnish a student's clothing or board. Furthermore, there are some things in life that one does not care to ask as a largess. To subscribe for the Union is a high privilege and a duty.

28. Why are "friends of the University" asked to subscribe?

On the ground that the Union will be the deepest influence of the University on the lives of the young people of Iowa. Such intimate things have always appealed to the hearts of all who are interested in education.

29. Have people of other state universities given such things?

Michigan is said to have received gifts to the amount of $11,000,000. California was given $2,290,000 during this last year alone. Other instances are many. Iowa has been the recipient of numerous donations and bequests: her friends are just awakening to her needs and the opportunities she offers. Private institutions are, of course, supported mainly by such gifts.

30. What if the enterprise should fail?

The enterprise will not fail. Iowa has put her hand to the plough and will not turn back. Her honor is at stake. The Union will be built.

SOLICIT FRESHMEN TODAY

Solicitation of all members of the freshman class for fifty cents each will be made today, according to James Van Epps, president of the class, and sponsor for the Student Loan and Benefit Fund, to which organization the money will go. Tables will be placed in the liberal arts building from which members of the Van Epps' committee will conduct the campaign.

If the "June Push" has as much kick as the June bug the Memorial Union will go over.

An alibi seldom comes from the victor.
